STATISTICAL TABLES

NOTE:
An explanation of the numbering system:
The charge number for stations or circuits continues in use as heretofore and is subject to change when any change in a name or alignment affects the alphabetical listing.

Roll and Pastoral Records of Conference Members in Full Connection: 631, 1979

Note: This was formerly the Chronological Roll and is now alphabetically arranged for greater convenience and to provide a listing of the service records of conference members in full connection, both effective and retired. Since the information came from records supplied by each man and includes only service in the North Carolina Conference, the Conference Secretary should be notified of any discrepancies or changes that the members wish to have made. Note that service years vary in value and the Conference Board of Pensions evaluates each year of service in terms of annuity credit. The figures in the right-hand column only indicate the number of years served under episcopal appointment to the North Carolina Conference after being received into the North Carolina Conference. All questions concerning years applicable to annuity credits should be directed to the Board of Pensions (Editor).

SECTION V

Minutes of SPECIAL SESSION of the NORTH CAROLINA ANNUAL CONFERENCE December 16, 1978

The North Carolina Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church met in Special Session at Edenton Street United Methodist Church, Raleigh, North Carolina, on Saturday, December 16, 1978. The Annual Conference was called to order by Bishop Robert M. Blackburn, resident bishop of the Raleigh Area of the United Methodist Church.

The conference sang the hymn, God of Grace and God of Glory. Bishop Blackburn led in prayer.

Bishop Blackburn addressed the conference. He thanked the delegates for coming and announced that he had consulted the Cabinet before the call for the special session was issued. He announced that the purpose for which the session was called was to consider the opportunitites to expand our ministries to children in the conference, and further stated that the session would only deal with the purpose for which it was called.

Bishop Blackburn called upon the Secretary, James Coile, for motions of order. James Coile made the following motions:

I move that the Bar of the Conference be the ground floor of the sanctuary and the chancel area of the Church.

The motion was seconded and passed.

James Coile then made the following motion:

I move that the registration cards be the official roll of the Conference.

The motion was seconded and passed, and the registration cards were filled out and signed by the delegates and collected by the tellers.

The secretary pointed out that the rules of the Conference were those adopted by the 1978 regular session of the Annual Conference. Bishop Blackburn thanked the Reverend Doctor Wallace Kirby and the staff of Edenton Street Church for being the host for the session. He expressed thanks to the press and the visitors for their presence at the session.

Bishop Blackburn explained that the Child Care Study Commission was authorized by the Trustees of the Methodist Home for Children and the Conference Division of Health and Welfare Ministries to conduct the study that was being presented to the Conference. He pointed out that during the two year study, the Study Commission had consulted experts in child care on the state and national level and the General Board of Health and Welfare Ministries of the United Methodist Church.

Bishop Blackburn called on the Reverend E.R. Porter, chairperson of the Conference Division of Health and Welfare Ministries, to present the report.

The Reverend Porter led the conference in looking at the report which had been distributed to the delegates by mail prior to the convening of the session. (A copy of the report is attached to and made a part of these minutes.)

December 1978

TO THE DELEGATES OF THE NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE

Dear Friends:

The information enclosed in this folder will give you a good background in helping you to vote intelligently regarding a very vital matter concerning our ministry to children. It comes after many months of careful investigation and preparation.

These recommendations call for an expansion of our child care facilities. It is quite obvious that if we can establish some agencies on a smaller basis in several cities throughout eastern North Carolina, we will serve the needs of more children and over a wider area of North Carolina Methodism.

The campus we have had in Raleigh for nearly eighty years is a beautiful property, but is now much more than we need for the kind of child care that is presently needed. It is a poor use of our resources to tie up sixty-two acres of valuable property for as small a group of children as we now have at the Home. The decline in the number of children served by our Home is due to the fact that county social service agencies prefer to assign their needy children to agencies closer to their home counties, and therefore, we need to disperse our ministry for them.

I think the recommendation from the Child Care Study Commission and the Board of Trustees of the Home is a very sound one and calls for our careful consideration.

Sincerely yours,

Robert M. Blackburn

THE STUDY COMMISSION ON CHILD CARE

Authorization and Functions

The Board of Trustees of the Methodist Home for Children passed a motion at their September 21, 1976 meeting requesting the Division of Health and Welfare Ministries of the North Carolina Conference to appoint a Study Commission on Child Care "to begin as soon as possible a long range study program of Child Care as a responsibility of the North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church."

Thus, in response to the request and directive of this motion, a Study Commission on Child Care was appointed and began work January 4, 1977.

This Commission had as members:

Ernest R. Porter, Chairman, pastor of Centenary Church, New Bern
- Chairman of the Division of Health and Welfare Ministries

J. Paul Edwards, Goldsboro District Superintendent
- Former Chairman of the Division of Health and Welfare Ministries and current Cabinet Representative to the Division and to the Board of Trustees Methodist Home for Children, Inc.

Drewry Jones, President of A.E. Finley and Associates, Inc.
- Former President of the Board, Methodist Home for Children and former Chairman of the Finance Committee

Merritt Jones, Insurance Executive, Moore and Johnson Agency
- Former President of the Board, Methodist Home for Children and former Chairman of the Buildings and Grounds Committee

Vassar W. Jones, pastor of Camp Ground Church, Fayetteville
- Vice Chairman, Division of Health and Welfare Ministries, member Board of Trustees, Methodist Home for Children and North Carolina Conference representative to SEMAR

Mrs. Louise Peterson, President Board of Trustees, Methodist Home for Children
- Coordinator Christian Global Concerns, United Methodist Women
- Treasurer, North Carolina Council of Women's Organizations

L.T. Wilson, pastor of First Church, Mt. Olive
- Member of the Division of Health and Welfare Ministries

T. Marvin Vick, Ex-Officio
- Administrator, Methodist Home for Children

The Recommendations found later in this report are the results of twenty-two months of work by this Commission, which met almost every month during this time. The Commission contacted each pastor of the Conference, every local church Health and Welfare Representative, and the Social Services Department in each of the 56 Counties of the Conference and asked specific questions of what they considered the primary needs in Child Care, now, and as projected for the next ten years. Visits were made to eleven different types of Child Care Agencies. Consultants from the General Division of Health and Welfare Ministries; The Duke Endowment Child Care Section; State Department of Human Resources; State Department of Social Services; and the Southeastern Methodist Agency for the Retarded, Inc. (SEMAR) were interviewed in depth. Many books and articles on the history, current methods, and projected needs in Child Care were read.

Concurrent with the study and information referred to in the above paragraph a study of the ministry of our Methodist Home for Children was made. During the process of this part of the Commission's work, the conclusion was reached that a "highest and best use" study of the Home's Campus in Raleigh was needed. This need and a request for such a study was made to the Board of Trustees of the Home. This was accomplished in cooperation with the Conference Council on Ministries, which funded it. Results of this study are included elsewhere in this report.

Progress reports from this Commission were made to the North Carolina Conference in June of 1977; to the Bishop and Cabinet; and several times to the Board of Trustees, Methodist Home for Children.

The final Recommendations of this Commission were presented to the Board of Trustees, Methodist Home for Children, November 10, 1978, with two suggestions. First, that if they concurred in any or all of this report that, jointly by the Commission and Trustees, any Recommendations shall be presented to the Annual Conference. Second, that if they concurred in any or all of this report, a "Steering Committee" of Trustees should be named to "develop a plan of implementation" for that which was adopted as the expanded and new program of Child Care for the North Carolina Conference, making use of appropriate legal, real estate, program and staffing consultants in developing such a plan.

ACTIONS TAKEN BY BOARD OF TRUSTEES, METHODIST HOME FOR CHILDREN, INC.

On September 21, 1976 the Board of Trustees requested the Division of Health and Welfare Ministries of the North Carolina Annual Conference to appoint a joint study commission with the Trustees of the Methodist Home for Children to begin as soon as possible a long range study program of Child Care as a responsibility of the North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church. This Study Commission should incluse a generous number from the Board of Trustees of the Methodist Home for Children and a like number from the Division of Health and Welfare. The Staff of the Methodist Home for Children should be called on as resource persons.

The purpose of the Study Commission would include:

1. What is the best use of the Raleigh campus?
2. What direction should be undertaken in meeting the need for Foster Care?
3. What direction should be taken in the area of Group Home Care?
4. What means should be considered to underwrite a program of expanded Child Care if study indicates such a need?

This Study Commission would begin work as soon as possible and serve with full support from the Conference Cabinet, the Trustees and Administration of the Methodist Home for Children and other interested agencies of the Conference.

The joint Commission started work on January 4, 1977. The original intent was to have a final and complete report for the Annual Conference of 1978. The work proved to be so much that the Commission requested an extension to 1979.

In May 1977, the Commission requested the Board of Trustees, Methodist Home for Children, to conduct a "highest and best use" study of the Methodist Home for Children property. On November 21, 1977 the Board of Trustees, Methodist Home for Children voted to ask Bradshaw and Gaddy, Raleigh realtors, to conduct a "highest and best use" study of the Methodist Home for Children property.

The Land Use Study was completed and presented to the Board on July 26, 1978. By action of the Board, the Land Use Study was turned over to the Study Commission on Child Care.

On September 20, 1978 the Chairman of the Study Commission on Child Care reported to the Board of Trustees, Methodist Home for Children, that it was the conclusion of the Study commission "that the Methodist Home for Children Board of Trustees should develop a new program of Child Care to meet changing needs and sell the property at 1001 Glenwood Avenue."

The Study Commission also reported on that date that it would bring specific Recommendations to the Board as soon as possible. On November 10, 1978 these Recommendations were presented to the Board of Trustees, Methodist Home for Children.

The Board of Trustees voted "to accept in principle the Recommendations of the Study Commission on Child Care and recommend to the Annual Conference that the Methodist Home for Children property at 1001 Glenwood Avenue be sold and the proceeds used for area facilities for Child Care."

Subject to the approval of the North Carolina Annual Conference, the Board of Trustees, Methodist Home for Children, Inc. is prepared to move to implement an extended program of Child Care.

The Board of Trustees, Methodist Home for Children is committed to Child Care and wish to assure the North Carolina Annual Conference that it is our intent to carry out the highest quality Child Care Program possible.

Board of Trustees
Methodist Home for Children, Inc.

A HISTORICAL PERSPECTIVE

The Methodist Home for Children was established in 1889 to care for orphan children. At that time the need for orphan care was very real. The economy was very low. Families were necessarily very large to provide the needed labor for an agricultural economy. Preventive medicine and health and safety regulations were unknown, so tragic death was a common occurance in North Carolina society. It has been established that at the turn of the century there were about 30,000 orphans in the State. The main line churches answered the social need with the establishment of orphanages.

By 1947 (the end of World War II) the situation had changed drastically. The economy was much improved with industry entering to balance with the agricultural economy. Family size was steadily declining to a post war level of two children per family. Preventive medicine and stringent safety regulations resulted in fewer tragic midlife deaths. This being true, the need for orphanages ceased to exist.

A new social phenomenon in society began to create new and tragic consequences for children and youth, namely, the breakdown of the family, the soaring divorce rate and alcoholism. The result: abused, abandoned, neglected children.

To meet these new needs and give aid to society where it was needed, the orphanages revamped their programs; changed their names and offered new services to needy children and young people, including large residential care centers, small residential care centers, treatment centers, group homes, foster homes and others.

The public sector had always provided care for juvenile delinquents in correctional institutions, leaving the status offenders, the non-offender, and the abandoned or neglected child to the private sector.

In the early 70's it became evident that the private sector could not handle the rising costs of care for the status offender, the non-offender and the abandoned or neglected child, so the public sector by federal legislation and State legislation offered numerous avenues of financial assistance, thus becoming something of a partner in care. This relation continues today. Child Care in the private sector could not continue without this cooperation.

By the mid-70's strong opposition began to be voice in protest to the correctional system for Child Care in the public sector. Legislative actions resulted in restricting what can happen to a juvenile delinquent, criminal type offender, accused juvenile offender or adjudicated juvenile offender. These could no longer be co-mingled with adults, or retained in large size residential centers.

Legislation aimed at correcting this situation also included language effecting the private sector. The intent of the legislation was to provide community based 'homelike" dwellings for needy children in small units near the original home of the child. While the original intent may have been to provide only for children or youth held in care by the public sector, strong pressures are on the private sector today to operator in similar fashion. Where this is going is anybody's guess right now. Community based operations are very expensive and staffing is a critical problem.

The North Carolina Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church has historically recognized its responsibility to needy children and attempted to carry out the mandate of Jesus Christ (Matt. 18:10-14) through the Methodist Orphanage until 1955 and now the Methodist Home for Children. The Trustees have faithfully followed the changing needs and adjusted the program to be effective in serving these needs. In 1955 the name was changed from Methodist Orphanage to Methodist Home for Children. In 1967 Methodist Home for Children signed compliance agreements to make it possible to meet the needs of all children. In 1974 Methodist Home for Children accepted partnership with the public sector by accepting Grant-in-Aid from the State. In 1977 Methodist Home for Children was licensed by the State and in 1978 Certified by the United Methodist Church.

By its Charter, the Trustees of the Methodist Home for Children, Inc. are charged with the responsibility to provide Child Care for the North Carolina Annual Conference within the bounds of its Jurisdiction. In 1899 the Trustees met the challenge; in 1947 the Trustees again met the challenge and now in 1978-79 the Trustees are faced with a new challenge.

With limited income, rising costs, and changing social conditions, the North Carolina Annual Conference, the Conference Study Commission on Child Care and the Methodist Home for Children must examine its direction for the next several years.

Since 1960 the following table shows the census and cost of care per child at the Methodist Home for Children:

	Census	Cost of Care Per Child Per Day

Alabama, Virginia and other states across the nation are experiencing the decline in census. It is a general development nationwide. Other Child Care Agencies in North Carolina are experiencing the decline. By action, if not by statement, we are being told to develop a new approach to Child Care.

Note: Some reasons for the decline in census are given under Section 3 of the Recommendations.

RECOMMENDATIONS TO THE NORTH CAROLINA ANNUAL CONFERENCE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

FROM: The Study Commission on Child Care and the Board of Trustees
Methodist Home for Children, Inc.

1. That the Methodist Home for Children continue to be the service arm of the North Carolina Annual Conference and its churches in aid to children and youth.

   The Methodist Home for Children is the only agency of the North Carolina Conference designed and ordered specifically to provide care for children and youth with special needs.

The are about 7,000 children and youth in North Carolina known to need, and presently receiving, special care.

350	in group homes
2,000	in private institutions
800	in training schools
4,000	in county run foster homes

Reference: Mr. Robert Mayer, II, Executive Director, Child Care Section, THE DUKE ENDOWMENT, April 22, 1977

An undetermined number remain unknown or without placement, yet needing the kind of care presently being given to the 7,000 above. A historian with THE DUKE ENODWMENT estimated in 1976 that the number of children and youth in North Carolina at that time, needing out-of-home care, would be about 30,000.

The Church has a missional responsibility to seek out and save those who are lost.

Child Care is missional. It is EVANGELISM. Children and youth are coming into care today about puberty and are at that time of decision making as far as their philosophy of life is concerned. They are afforded the opportunity to receive the guidance of the Church.

It is MISSIONS. Most children needing care come from outside the reach of the Church and fall within the area in which Jesus admonished the Church to work.

It is EDUCATION. Each child in care is afforded the best education possible.

It is REHABILITATION. There is no way of knowing the number of homes, as well as individual lives, that have been saved through the services of Child Care.

It is LOVE. Many children who find it necessary to live away from their own homes have been denied love and affection even from birth. Love is a major ingredient of Child Care.

It is REDEMPTION. Many children in care have been disappointed and let down so many times that they have lost faith in adults, faith in themselves, and faith in God. Every effort is made to reestablish their faith.

2. That the Methodist Home for Children consider changing its corporate name.

A new corporate name might more closely indicate services being rendered by the Church in and through its new and expanded program.

3. That the Methodist Home for Children develop Group Homes in the Conference. We recommend that the program of Group Homes be developed slowly and carefully with District and local church cooperation being sought to locate, finance, and staff each operation. Methodist Home for Children should maintain responsibility for administration, supervision, and training.

A "Group Home" is defined as "an open home or other suitable place located near the juvenile's home or family, and programs of community supervision and service which maintain community and consumer participation in the planning, operation, and evaluation of their problems which may include, but are not limited to, medical, educational, vocational, social and physiological guidance, training, counseling, alcoholic treatment, drug treatment, and other rehabilitative services."

Among the many changes that are occurring in American society and which have, do, or will affect Child Care Agencies, none is more startling than the movement for deinstitutionalization. Originating in a concern for children placed in correctional institutions under "lock-up" conditions, the movement has extended its concern to any and all children placed in care programs with multiple bed space exceeding 40 in any one given location. The current movement is pressing for Group Home facilities located within 60 miles or less of the home or origin for the child.

Already a decline in the number of requests for placements in institutional settings (agencies with bed space exceeding 40) is being experienced across the United States.

Many residential agencies have already incorporated the Group Homes concept in their program. Twenty-eight of the 30 homes for children Certified by the Division of Health and Welfare Ministries of the United Methodist Church include Group Homes in their services.

A Profile of Group Homes in North and South Carolina, published by Group Child Care Consultant Services, School of Social Work, University of North Carolina, The Duke Endowment and the North Carolina Child Care Association, reported that based on actual occupancy on July 1, 1977, the average annual per capita cost of care per child in Group Homes was $14,146. This is based on 70.5% occupancy of licensed capacity; 100% occupancy would reduce the figure to about $8,000.

Reference: Profile, pages 31-33

The Study Commission, after extensive indepth study and on site visitation, concludes that multiple Group Homes would expand the services of the Methodist Home for Children, bring the services closer to the community and more nearly meet the geographical expectations created by the Charter requirements that we serve 56 Counties of North Carolina. On September 30, 1978, 44% of the population of Methodist Home for Children was from Wake County. Forty-one Counties in the Conference area were not being served.

4. That the Methodist Home for Children develop as quickly as possible a Department of Foster Care to promote, locate, train, and maintain a network of Foster Homes throughout the Conference.

A "Foster Home" is defined as a home facility owned and operated by the resident family, licensed and trained to receive and care for a given number of children and youth as needs occur and requests are made. Purchased care payments are made by the referring agency as children are accepted into care.

Such homes, when available, are maintained at no cost to the parent agency (MHC), except when called on to perform child caring service. They remain "in the ready position" for service when it is needed. The type of care provided can be emergency, short or long term.

In conference with Departments of Social Service of the 56 Counties constituting the North Carolina Conference, the Study Commission determined a state-wide need for emergency, and short term care.

> Minutes, Study Commission on Child Care
> April 4, 1978, February 14, 1978,
> September 19, 1977, August 10, 1977,
> April 22, 1977, March 31, 1977.

More child caring needs are being met by Foster Care in the State of North Carolina at this time than through any other program. Deprived of the natural home, children can best be served through good Foster Home care.

This is the most economical way for a parent agency to provide Child Care.

The Study Commission felt that across the Conference, there are a significant number of clerical and lay homes that would welcome this opportunity to serve children in need.

5. That the Methodist Home for Children develop and sustain a program for the strengthening of marriage and the family and a program to reach troubled families with assistance that would enable the family to stay together.

Most children and youth coming to the attention of Child Caring Agencies today are in need of care due to broken homes or poor concepts of family life. A positive approach to Child Care would be the strengthening of existing homes and family patterns to prevent the need for placement.

Considerting the 72 children and youth served by the Methodist Home for Children on September 1, 1978, 49 were from broken homes with both parents living.

The Study Commission on Child Care made an indepth study of this area of service, recognized the work of other denominations in this area (Baptist and Presbyterian) and concluded that a program to reach the disturbed child and disintegrating family is an important step in resolving the increasing needs for Child Care.

A program to strengthen marriage and reach troubled families would include seminars, workshops, counseling, inservice training for parents and for pastors and other community based professionals.

Such a program is difficult due to the fact that the families needing help do not always recognize this need or seek out assistance.

Careful planning and execution are essential to the development of such a multifaced program.

6. That the Methodist Home for Children consider locating, building and operating a new Residential Care facility to provide for a maximum of 40 children and youth. Location would be at the discretion of the Trustees Methodist Home for Children. Suggest consideration be given to the geographical center of the Conference and convenience to other facilities that might provide expanded services with Methodist Home for Children.

A "Residential Care Program" is defined as a facility of two or more cottages or residences located on a common land site operating under one administrative office with multiple services, i.e. religious, recreational, social, psychiatric, etc.

Current Standards of Care recommend a population not to exceed 10 children or youth per cottage in a residential setting.

Some children or youth presented for care today are troubled basically because of the small intimate relationships within the family. Their problems have come from too tight a relationship. They need the broader community represented by Residential Care. They are frightened by both the tight relationships of family and greater involvements of the community (the town, city, etc.). They respond to the experiment in community living provided by Residential Care and gain skills for ultimate living in the community.

The Study Commission found most parent agencies retaining a plan for Residential Care for specialized services such as a treatment center and/or other needed services.

7. That the Methodist Home for Children shall consider providing Emergency Care for children and youth as part of the Recommendations in 3, 4, and 6.

"Emergency Care" is defined as a caring facility (Foster, Group, Residential) available on short notice to receive into short term care a child or youth requiring removal from the natural home.

Every county social service agency contacted in the study indicated a prime need for Emergency Care whether it be through Group, Foster, or Residential programs.

Emergency Care is a standard program of most Child Caring Agencies. Methodist Home for Children has no program of Emergency Care at this time.

8. That the Methodist Home for Children consider locating, building and operating facilities to provide for the care of mentally retarded children and/or youth.

The last census in North Carolina indicated that of the 1,761,084 people under the age of 18 years, there were 52,832 persons mentaly retarded. Within the bounds of the North Carolina Conference, there were 26,054 mentally retarded persons under age 18 years. There are about 6,348 mentally retarded persons in our Conference area with Methodist affiliations; 2,221 of these under age 18. Of this 2,221, there are 1,843 who are mildly retarded, 295 who are moderately retarded and 83 who are severely and profoundly retarded.

Reference: Rev. Robert Pitzer, Executive Director SEMAR Minutes Commission dated August 10, 1977

The greatest need of mentally retarded children in North Carolina is for Residential Care and alternative. There are in North Carolina 1,050 children who cannot live with their parents, 351 in Foster Care, 250 in Group Homes, and 400 who are in Medical Care.

Reference: Miss Liddy Dishler, N.C. Child Service Dept. Mental Retardation Services, Division of Health and Mental Retardation, Minutes Commission dated August 10, 1977

The Methodist Home for Children has no program for the mentally retarded now.

The Study Commission recognized the great need in this area and further recognized the problems involved in securing appropriate facilities, engaging staff and providing the program.

9. In order to make it possible to develop these new areas of service to children and youth, we recommend that the property at 1001 Glenwood Avenue, Raleigh, North Carolina, be sold with the proceeds being used, along with the assets of the present Corporation, to develop these areas under the direction and supervision of the Methodist Home for Children, Inc.

The present property includes more acreage than is necessary for carrying out any of the Recommendations.

The present facilities are inappropriate for any phase of Child Care as presented in findings and Recommendations.

The present location is not the best suited for a Child Caring Agency.

The capital funding of the Recommendations is not possible by the North Carolina Conference at this time.

The capital funding for the Recommendations must come from agency resources, namely, the land at 1001 Glenwood Avenue.

The Board of Trustees, Methodist Home for Children, authorized Bradshaw and Gaddy, realtors of Raleigh, to submit a highest and best use study of the approximate 62 acres of land which is located between Glenwood Avenue and St. Mary's Street.

On July 3, 1978 Mr. Gaddy and Mr. Bradshaw submitted their study with the following SUMMARY OF CONCLUSIVE FACTS:

The subject property, containing approximately 62 acres, is unique both as to size and its location on the frings of a changing, primarily residential area in the geographical center of Raleigh. After analyzing all factors indicated in this Study and reviewing them as summarized above, it is our opinion that the entire subject property should be developed as a single multi-use Project, using a single architectural development theme such as Williamsburg, Tudor, New England, etc., to establish a unique individuality. Architectural control would be of the utmost importance on each tract of the Project, even if the Project is developed at some future date, this architectural control design should be established in the protective covenants and carried through the development of the entire Project.

In order for the Methodists to receive the highest possible value for the property, consideration should be given for the Methodists to establish a minimum-sized Development Committee of appropriate individuals who in turn would employ a qualified Real Estate Consultant to oversee the general development of the Project which would be limited only to the installation of all utilities, street improvements, and developing the Master Plan to a point which would allow unimproved sites to be available to individual developers. However, through the Consultant, the Committee would thereafter continue to have architectural approval to insure that the development would be carried out according to the theme and Master Plan previously approved.

Another important factor to assure the highest possible value for the property would be the marketing sequence of the various tracts and uses of the Project. An underlying basis for the conclusions of this Study has been the creation of value through the various uses of the different tracts of the Project. It is our opinion that improper marketing sequence could be most detrimental to this basic concept.

The authorizing agreement for this Study included a provision that a suggested asking price be included, subject to a later opinion of value derived through the appraisal process by an independent M.A.I. Appraiser to be employed by the owners of the subject property.

CONCLUSION

The Board of Trustees, Methodist Home for Children, Inc., in a Special Session on November 10, 1978, voted to accept the report of the Conference Study Commission in principle, and further voted to sell the property at 1001 Glenwood Avenue, Raleigh, North Carolina, subject to the approval of the North Carolina Conference.

The Board of Trustees requested Bishop Robert M. Blackburn to call a Special Session of the North Carolina Conference at his convenience, to consider the matter.

This report represents no request for capital funding from the North Carolina Conference for Child Care and offers a better use of resources and programs in the service of children and youth.

Subject to approval by the Annual Conference, the Trustees Methodist Home for Children, Inc. will implement the Recommendations on the basis of further study and with the guidance of professional consultation in every detail.

Minutes of the Special Session
North Carolina Annual Conference

Mrs. Louise Peterson, President of the Board of Trustees of the Methodist Home for Children, addressed the Conference and had distributed a statement concerning the authority of the Trustees to sell the property of the Home. She expressed appreciation to the Bishop for calling the special session and to the delegates for their attendance. She stated that if the recommendations of the Study Commission were adopted, a Steering Committee would be appointed to prepare concrete proposals on how to expand child care in order to implement the recommendations.

The Reverend Paul Edwards, the Cabinet Representative on the Division of Health and Welfare Ministries addressed the Conference. He stated that the decrease in the number of children in the Home was a major concern of the Trustees. He poing out that the Study Commission met for over a year before there was discussion on disposing of the property on Glenwood Avenue. He pointed out that it was then that the Land Use Study was done, and further stated that money was not the prime interest but better child care was.

Dr. Marvin Vick, Administrator of the Methodist Home for Children spoke and endorsed the report as the best steps to take. He shared with the conference correspondence from Ms. Bertha Swindell of the General Board of Health and Welfare Ministries in which she concurred with the report of the Study Commission.

The Reverend E.R. Porter made the following motion:

> I move that the North Carolina Conference endorse the recommendations of the Child Care Study Commission and authorize the Trustees of the Methodist Home for Children to sell the property located at 1001 Glenwood Avenue, Raleigh, North Carolina.

(The motion needed no second as it came from the Division of Health and Welfare Ministries.)

John Brooks, at large Lay Delegate, spoke against the motion. He stated that the report was inadequate as to the use of the land. He asked if the property could be used in other ways that would help pay for expanded child care and suggested that additional study needed to be done and a further report should be made in June.

The Reverend James Auman asked if consideration had been given to leasing the property on a long-term lease, rather than to sell the property?

The Reverend Porter replied that it had not.

The Reverend C.M. Mitchell made the following amendment to the motion:

> On Page 13, Item 9, Line 3, of the report, delete the word "sold" and enter the word "leased" and that any and all portions of the report be changed to conform with this change.

The motion was seconded.

The Reverend Porter asked that Charles Gaddy (from the Land Use Study Committee) be permitted to speak on this matter. Mr. Gaddy stated that he felt that it would be better to sell the land to obtain funds now for the use of the children. He added that the land would be worth more in the future but that the dollar will likely be worth less.

He added that leasing could be incorporated in the use of the property.

The Reverend J.W. Lineberger asked if we could separate the Porter motion and vote separately on (a) the recommendations concerning child care and (b) the recommendations to sell the property.

The Bishop ruled his request out of order at the present time.

The Reverend James Auman spoke in favor of the Mitchell Amendment.

The Reverend Clyde Dun offered the following motion:

> We recommend the Bishop appoint a committee to investigate the best use of the property of 1001 Glenwood Avenue, to allow continued service of the United Methodist Church to children and youth, and, at the same time consider other areas of service and ministry of the North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church.

The motion was seconded.

The Reverend A.F. Fisher offered the following substitute:

> That we accept the report with the exception of section nine and the second part of the motion to sell the property and that the same committee report to the Annual Conference on the use of the property.

The substitute by Fisher was seconded.

The Reverend J.W. Lineberger spoke in favor of the Fisher substitute.

Mr. Robert Haas (Lay Delegate from Orange United Methodist Church) spoke against the Fisher substitute.

The Reverend J. Thomas Smith asked a question (concerning page 10 of the report) concerning the dvelopment of the Group Home concept. He also asked if the two million dollar endowment of the Home could be used to begin this concept.

The Reverend Porter replied that the income from the endowment was being used for current operation of the Home.

Mr. Albert Goldfinch, Business Manager for the Home, stressed that the Annual income from the endowment is needed to meet the budget of the Home.

The Reverend Lester Jackson spoke in favor of the Fisher substitute.

Mr. Robert W. Hill (Lay Delegate from Riverdale United Methodist Church, New Bern District) spoke against the Fisher substitute.)

The Reverend Samuel D. McMillan, Jr., spoke against the substitute.

The Reverend Robert D. O'Keef asked if we had received from anyone an offer to buy the property.

The Reverend Porter replied that no offer had been received because the Board of Trustees had not made the property available for sale.

The previous question was called and order. The vote was taken by a show of hands. The Fisher substitute was adopted.

The Reverend E.R. Porter asked if a report from the Child Care Study Commission was due in June of 1979?

The Reverend Sam D. McMillan, Jr., offered a motion calling for detailed study by the Child Care Study Commission, the Board of Trustees of the Methodist Home for Children, and the Division of Health and Welfare Ministries.

The Reverend R.W. Ponder raised a point of order on the McMillan motion stating that the Fisher substitute motion was limited to report on land use. The Bishop ruled the McMillan motion out of order stating that it was asking the groups mentioned to do again what they had already done.

The Reverend Michael L. Hale moved to reconsider the Fisher substitute so that attention could be given to Recommendations 1-8 of the original report concerning child care needs. The motion was seconded but was defeated.

The Reverend E.R. Porter expressed concern for child care needs and suggested that a committee from the Conference work with the Child Care Study Committee and the Trustees of the Home to report to Annual Conference.

The Reverend Charles Litzenberger asked how he could get interested layman named to the committee. He was advised to give the name of the person to the Study Commission as a resource person that they might use.

The Conference was adjourned with the benediction by Bishop Robert M. Blackburn.

Conference Convened: Bishop Blackburn convened the Conference with these words: "I now have the privilege of calling to order the Twelfth Session of The North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church and the One Hundred Fifty-Fourth Session of the oldest constituent member Conference of United Methodism in The North Carolina Conference. This is the 1979 Session. The North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church is the successor to:

Introduction: Bishop Blackburn presented the president of Methodist College, Dr. Richard W. Pearce, who is also the Conference Lay Leader.

Welcome: Dr. Pearce brought greetings on behalf of the hard-working members of the staff who have been working toward the preparation for Annual Conference and gave particular notation to Bill Lowdermilk and Paul Granger. Dr. Pearce again requested help in energy conservation during Annual Conference. Pearce explained the changes in the dining arrangements and demonstrated how this would provide a more relaxed meal period. He brought special greetings from trustees, faculty and staff of the college, expressing the hope that every member would feel free to ask for and accept every possible hospitality of the college.

Introduction: Dr. Pearce presented the Honorable Beth Finch, Mayor of the City of Fayetteville, who brought greetings from the city.
Greetings: Mayor Finch officially welcomed the conference to the city of Fayetteville and expressed appreciation for meeting with friends old and new. She expressed gratitude for Methodist College and for the repetitive selection of Methodist College as the place for the Annual Conference to meet. She invited the members to partake of the facilities of the city while present at Methodist College. She emphasized that city buses now come to the campus. She wished the conference good success in its undertakings.

Host District: Bishop Blackburn thanked Mayor Finch for her gracious words of welcome and then explained the fact that the size of the conference now made such a facility as Methodist College a necessity to entertain the Annual Conference and pointed out that the various districts were taken in order as hosts to the Annual Conference. He introduced the Reverend R. T. Commander, Superintendent of the Greenville District, who represented the ministers of that district in being hosts to the conference to look to the Lay Persons and Pastors of the Greenville District to provide help during the Annual Conference. Commander spoke of the enthusiasm evident at conference and hoped the enthusiasm would be earnestly directed in a Godward sense. Commander's obvious personal enthusiasm and commitment was greeted with applause.

The State of the Church: Bishop Blackburn brought the annual State of the Church address. For text see Section VII.

Communion Service: Bishop Blackburn gave instructions to the conference as preparations were made to celebrate the Sacrament of Holy Communion. Further instructions were given by Conference Secretary, James Coile, concerning the approach to the altar. The Bishop urged all to come and partake of the elements in a sense of holy worship. A special time of memorial silent prayer was held.

Report of the Division of Ministry: Bishop Blackburn recognized the dedicated work done by this division and the excellent report which had been prepared and distributed to the conference. He called upon Herman S. Winberry for the report. Winberry expressed appreciation for the work in the past done by the registrars and announced that the Staff Coordinator, William W. Sherman, would now assume the role as registrar to the division.

Sherman came forward and called attention to page 7 in the distributed report which answered Question 24, "Who are elected as Probationary Members?" (For names see Condensed Minutes.)

The Probationary Members as read and listed were elected and Winberry requested Bishop Blackburn to give them the questions for Probationary Members. The questions were asked and all candidates answered the questions as required. Following the response, Bishop Blackburn offered prayer that the candidates might grow and be nurtured in the faith and in the spirit of the ministry.

Sherman again assumed the podium and read Question 33, "Who have been elected and ordained Deacons?" (For names see Condensed Minutes.) The notion for election was made and they were elected.

Sherman proposed three additional names under Question 33, Paragraph C, to be elected and ordained Deacons. They were moved and elected.

The candidates answered the questions as required with full and enthusiastic response. Bishop Blackburn presented parchment to all the candidates with the Historic Questions to remind them of the vows they had taken as they were received into Full Connection.

FIRST DAY, EVENING SESSION
Monday, June 4, 1979

The Most Sacred Service for the Ordination of Elders: Organist for the evening, David Witt of Edenton Street United Methodist Church, Raleigh, played as preludes: "Voluntary on the Doxology," by Purcell and "Old Hundredth Psalm Tune," by Walther. After the singing of the Processional Hymn, "God of Grace and God of Glory," the invocation was given by Bishop Robert M. Blackburn. William J. Weisser, Diaconal Minister and Director of Music of Edenton Street Church, directed the North Carolina Conference Ministers' Chorus in singing the anthem, "Ye Watchers and Ye Holy Ones," by Holmes.

Bishop Blackburn presided over the Service of Ordination. He introduced the speaker of the evening, Dr. Robert E. Cushman, professor, the Divinity School, Duke University. The Question was called and the motion to postpone was lost. Item 6 was now properly before us. Hunter responded and there was no set amount but that it would be repaid from offerings received. Joe Lister of Yanceyville asked a question and Hunter gave a satisfactory answer. Langil Watson spoke for the passage of Item 6, feeling that the conference needed plenty of enthusiasm for the program to be successful. He stated that he felt too many people were thinking small instead of thinking big when doing a proper job of evangelism. Ken Birt of Front Street Church, Burlington, asked a question concerning the extensive travel involved and whether the program could be modified. Report of the Child Care Study Commission: Ernest R. Porter chaired the presentation of the report. Porter emphasized that the report had been in the hands of conference members since the beginning of conference and that Stroud, who would present sections of it, would summarize it rather than read it verbatum. At the end of the presentation a motion, which was printed, would be presented. Stroud spoke in response to the desire of the special session of Annual Conference in December, 1978, to report back to the Annual Conference in June. The requests of the conference in December have been met, and the paper presented represents the answer to those specific questions. Following Mr. Stroud's comprehensive presentation, Porter read the motion to the Annual Conference concerning Methodist Home for Children property.

MOTION TO ANNUAL CONFERENCE CONCERNING METHODIST HOME FOR CHILDREN PROPERTY

I move that the North Carolina Conference, which effectuates its jurisdiction, control, and direction of the Methodist Home for Children by requiring that the trustees of the corporation shall be elected by the Conference, in accordance with North Carolina General Statute 55A-43, which is applicable to non-profit corporations and which provides that a corporation may sell all or substantially all of its property and assests upon the authorization received by a vote of a majority of the Directors/Trustees in office and in accordance with the certificate of incorporation of the Methodist Home for Children which provides power and authority to the corporation as per section 3, to "bargain, sell and convey in such manner as may be provided by the by-laws any and all lands – held and owned by the corporation when the grant, devise or other conveyance does not otherwise provide,"approve the efforts of the Board of Trustees of the Methodist Home for Children to develop a more effective program of child care and sell, lease, or develop or otherwise utilize the property located at 1001 Glenwood Avenue, Raleigh, North Carolina to more adequately generate revenue for the implementation and continued economic support of the Methodist Home for Children and its related services.

The motion was seconded and John Harris spoke to the motion.

Point of Order: Dr. Frederick P. Brooks, Jr., asked "for a ruling under church law of the following four points under THE DISCIPLINE, Par. 1525.6.

"1. Does the conference have before it a 'plan for development' of a 'child care facility' as THE DISCIPLINE requires, when the report says explicitly on page 4, 'we (the Child Care Study Commission) now have under consideration a detailed plan for the implementation of MHC expanded program?'

"2. Does the motion constitute the 'financial plan' required by THE DISCIPLINE, when it specifies no specific action and projects no specific proceeds?'

"3. Does the conference have before it a 'plan of service' in the sense and detail required by THE DISCIPLINE?

"4. Does the conference have before it a proper motion for approval, since it is stated only in terms of endorsement?"

Bishop ruled, "Yes," on Point 1, under the information received at the December meeting. On Point 2, the bishop ruled that it does because it is a plan for finance. The bishop ruled, "Yes," on Point 4 the bishop ruled, "Yes," with the change of the word endorse to approve, which was accepted by Porter.

Following the rulings by the bishop, John Harris spoke to the motion concerning the need for remaining in the field of child care. He expressed the belief that this is outmoded under the old scheme but will serve us well with the new program. The motion was properly before the conference.

Tibbie Roberts, trustee of the Home for Children, asked to speak for the motion. The conference granted Mrs. Roberts the right to speak, even though she was not a member of the conference. She spoke both as a advocate of children and as a Realtor. She expressed her understanding of the difficulty of making the decision to sell because it has been emotionally hallowed ground for Methodists for generations. She further stated that we should not miss the real thrust of life by getting caught up in our emotional desire to hold on to that which is obsolete.

Substitute Motion: A. D. Byrd, Jr., brought a substitute motion: "that we authorize the Trustees of the Children's Home to employ a Realtor to offer for sale the property of the Children's Home; however, no sale shall be finalized without the advice and consent of the Annual Conference." The motion was seconded. Byrd spoke to his motion, which was simply to sell with Annual Conference approval.

Substitute to the Substitute: Glen A. Holm offered a substitute to the Byrd Substitute: "that we sell the land at 1001 Glenwood Avenue. That we do everything we can to support care through the local Departments of Social Service Agencies in eastern North Carolina. That the money from the land sale be invested. That the conference COM study how to best use the money invested, with first priority being given to supporting ministries to physically, emotionally and ex-economically deprived and disadvantaged children and youth." It was seconded and Holm spoke to his substitute. John Brooks of Raleigh spoke against the Holm substitute.

Point of Order: Bob Wallace called for a Point of Order, asking for a ruling as to whether the substitute to the substitute was in order. Bishop Blackburn ruled the substitute to the substitute in order.

Point of Order: A D. Byrd, Jr., asked the bishop for a ruling as to whether Mr. Brooks' speech against the substitute to the substitute was not more of a dissertation as to his feelings concerning the overall matter rather than directed toward the issue. Bishop Blackburn ruled that the Brook's speech was in order.

The Question was called on the substitute to the substitute. The Holm substitute failed.

Substitute to the Substitute: James A. Auman moved a substitute: that "we keep 10 acres near the Methodist Building and lease, or develop for lease, the remaining approximately 52 acres." Auman spoke to his motion. Auman spoke with conviction and fervor concerning the necessity for keeping the property in Methodist hands and letting it generate funds for the future as God directs.

Langill Watson moved the previous question on all that is before us. The Watson Motion lost.

Miriam Block of Westover Church spoke for the Auman substitute. Porter spoke against the Auman substitute. John Brooks spoke for the substitute. G. Robert McKenzie moved the previous question on the Auman substitute. It was seconded. The conference ordered a vote on the Auman substitute. O. Kelly Ingram pointed out that Jack Ruth had gotten to his feet before McKenzie called the question on the substitute. The bishop ruled that, in the interest of fairness, he would allow Ruth to speak. Ruth spoke against the Auman substitute. The Auman Substitute was lost.

Substitute to the Substitute Motion: Douglas Byrd moved "that we authorize the Trustees of the Methodist Home for Children to employ a Realtor to offer for sale or a combination of sale and lease the property of the Methodist Home for Children. - However, no agreement shall be finalized without the advice and consent of the Division of Health and Welfare Ministries, the bishop and the Cabinet and the Trustees of the MHC, meeting in joint session." The Child Study Commission said it would accept the motion as a substitute. However, the bishop ruled that it would have to be voted upon because it was a substitute to the substitute. Maness Mitchell asked a question concerning fees paid Realtors in the proposed land transaction.

Henry Goodwin moved the following amendment to the Douglas Byrd substitute: "I move that the wording 'sell or lease' in the substitute motion (re. Methodist Home property) be amended to the wording in the Methodist Home for Children Trustee motion - i.e. -'sell, lease, develop or otherwise utilize the property.' " The amendment passed.

Virginia Carroll of Hay Street Church, Fayetteville, spoke against the Douglas Byrd motion. Dr. Henry Ferrell of Jarvis Memorial Church, Greenville, spoke in favor of the substitute. At such time when this Raleigh property is no longer needed for Child Care, the Trustees submit to the North Carolina Annual Conference a proposal for the disposition of the property and a recommendation for the distribution of the subsequent funds." 1. That first consideration be given to leasing arrangements for any or all of the approximately 62 acres;

2. That the leasing arrangements may be legally transacted without further action or involvement of the Annual Conference in session; this is to be interpreted as the Annual Conference underscoring our confidence and suport of the elected Trustees of the Home; and

3. That, should the Trustees at any time feel that it is financially feasible and attractive to sell any portion of the acreage, the bishop shall, at a regular or special session of the Annual Conference, seek the will of the Annual Conference on a firm offer to buy land at 1001

Glenwood Avenue."

The Jackson motion was seconded. George Blount spoke in favor of the Jackson amendment. Samuel McMillan spoke against the amendment. G. Robert McKenzie moved the Previous Question on all that was before us. The Jackson motion was defeated. The Douglas Byrd amendment, previously perfected, passed as the final disposition of the motion to the Annual Conference concerning the Methodist Home for Children property.

FOURTH DAY, AFTERNOON SESSION
Thursday, June 7, 1979

Business Session Resumed: Bishop Blackburn called the session to order and asked for the singing of Hymn No. 287, "We Are Climbing Jacob's Ladder."

Motion: Morris L. Barber moved "that the conference provide tapes of the sermons to the tellers in appreciation for their work, since they missed most of the worship services to count the ballots." It was seconded and passed with an expression of appreciation to the tellers for their hard work.

Motion: Tommy Faggart moved "that the top three persons on the bishop straw ballot be publicly announced to the Annual Conference." It was seconded and was so ordered.

The names were Wallace Kirby, Charles Mercer and Joseph B. Bethea.

Nominations to the Committee on the Episcopacy: The delegates to General Conference elected Mrs. Ruth Cade and Wallace Kirby as their delegates to the Committee on the Episcopacy. Richard Pearce stated that we need to begin right now furthering the cause of a favorite son candidate for the episcopacy so that we might place him into nomination and use every laudable means to attain the election of a bishop from the North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church. Mrs. Cade and Dr. Pearce both wished that the conference would select one candidate to support. They needed the authority to select a favorite son and elect a candidate for the episcopacy next year. The point was made that this could prove embarrassing.

Motion: Ruth Cade moved that "the General and Jurisdictional Conference delegations be allowed to take the results from the straw ballot on June 7, 1979, and endorse a favorite person for election to the episcopacy, who then would be the delegation's recommendation to the Annual Conference at the 1980 session."

Substitute Motion: R. T. Commander moved a substitute "that the Annual Conference endorse a favorite son candidate from the three selected in the straw vote." It was seconded. Albert F. Fisher spoke against the Commander substitute motion and in favor of Mrs. Cade's original motion, stating that, since they were people who would have to "sell" our favorite son, they should make the selection. Langill Watson spoke against the substitute. Kermit Braswell spoke in favor of the favorite son substitute.

G. Robert McKenzie moved that the Commander substitute be amended to state "that we certify whoever of the three candidates receives 60 percent of the votes cast." The McKenzie amendment lost.

The Commander substitute won.

Troy J. Barrett moved that we ballot immediately, beginning with ballot 60 and working backward. Barrett withdrew his motion, when the bishop announced that other ballots were available. It was agreed that the ballot would be taken immediately. It was. Each member of the Annual Conference was instructed to vote for one of the three previously selected on the straw ballot.

Result of the Twenty-second Clerical Ballot: The result of the Twenty-second Clerical Ballot was announced. There was no election.

Motion: Harvey Estes moved "that the top three vote getters on the clergy ballot be elected without a majority and that we continue in this manner until all delegates and alternates are elected. If more than three receive a majority, all receiving a majority shall be elected." The motion prevailed.

Amendment: Robert Wallace moved "to amend the report and recommendation of the Equitable Salaries Commission by adding a new III (and re-numbering the existing III and IV) on page 57. This new section would be entitled: 'Relating Minimum Salary Increases to Average Salaries of All Ministers,' and is to read as follows: Beginning with the 1980 Annual Conference the equitable salaries for the next year shall reflect a percentage increase in all categories which is not less than the percentage increase of the average salary of all ministers in the conference for the previous year." It was seconded. Wallace spoke to his amendment. Dennis Levin spoke against the Wallace amendment. The amendment was lost.

Amendment: Robert Wallace offered a second amendment: "I move to amend the report by deleting (page 55) the following words in the sentence four lines from the bottom of the page: (Delete) 'represents the income of some of the most skilled and experienced minister in the conference. It is paid by churches for which it is not one of the large and more significant items of their budget, and....' The sentence would then read: 'This has little relationship to the minimum, or beginning, salary that is reflected in the equitable salary support program.' " The amendment passed without objection.

WILLIAM SMITH DAVENPORT

I heard the voice of the Lord, saying,
Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?
Then said I, Here am I; send me.

Before the foundation of the world was laid, it was ordained of God that W. S. (Bill) Davenport would hear the voice of God calling and answer just as Isaiah, "Here am I; send me."

Brother Bill was born on January 3, 1916, at Mackeys in Washington County, N. C. His parents were Alva Edison and Mary C. Johnston Davenport. Bill grew up around Plymouth where he was later to operate a hardware store. World War II broke out and he joined the U. S. Navy. It was during this time that he began to feel the call of the Lord upon his life. After the war he returned to Plymouth where he operated his hardware store.

In 1953 he could resist the call of God no longer and gave his life to the service of our Lord. He began his ministry in the Methodist Church on the Jamesville Charge. This was followed by appointments to Clark St. in Rocky Mount, Trinity in Southport, First Church in Havelock, and LaGrange United Methodist Church. He was ordained Deacon on June 28, 1956 at Greenville, N. C. and Elder on June 25, 1958 at Wilson, N.C.

In 1976 Bill's illness became acute and he took disability leave from active service at LaGrange. Yet it would be a terrible mistake to think Brother Bill retired or resigned his ministry. He may not have been able to serve an appointment, but he never quit ministering. The commitment he had made to his Lord was a life time commitment. Throughout his entire life, wherever Bill preached the Kingdom of God increased. The love of Christ within him was life a heavenly magnet drawing people to the Lord.

Like the great apostle, for Bill to live was Christ. For if you traced his footsteps back through time, you would discover that the imprint on the lives of people was not his own, but the nail pierced feet of the Savior he served. I have never known a man who loved Christ more. Bill gave so completely of himself that he could truly affirm with Paul, "But what things were gain to me, those I counted loss for Christ." His concern was never for clothing himself with material wealth or possessions. In fact, he so often neglected his own physical needs that his congregations often had to take him to task. But you see, Bill had a greater vision than most of us. From the beginning of his ministry his heart was totally given to the service of the Lord and the needs of other people. He believed truth of the scripture that says, ". . . present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy acceptable unto God which is your reasonable service."

For me, to look into his face was to see the face of Jesus. Not because I ever thought Bill was divine, but because Bill allowed so much of himself to be given to Christ. To know Bill was to experience love, and love is of God. Brother Bill was one of those unique individuals who never met a stranger. Always there was a smile, a firm handshake, a kind word to be spoken. People trusted him and poured out their problems to him, believing that the God Bill knew was able to meet their greatest need. Even during the last years of his life which were so filled with pain and sickness, people continued to come to him for advice and help. Bill continued to give and give, not just himself, but the Christ who lived in him.

As a minister Bill was abundantly gifted, but perhaps his greatest quality was the genuiness of the love and compassion he felt for all people. He was constantly found in the hospitals, the homes, the businesses of people, bringing Jesus into their lives. Only the Good Lord knows the thousands of miles Bill drove to share God's love with people. He hungered and thirsted for the righteousness of God and found that God was faithful in filling him. Although he had always held to the doctrine of Entire Sanctification or Christian perfection, it was in the last few years of his life that he really began to experience its fullness. I remember his saying on one occasion that he wished he had devoted more of his early ministry to the proclamation of this part of the gospel message.

Bill found beauty everywhere — in nature, in art, in literature, in music. He especially loved the rousing hymns that seemed to lift people to the glory of God; hymns life: "Love, Mercy, and Grace," "Dwelling in Beaulah Land", "Pentecostal Power," and "Revive us Again". Yet he also loved the great hymns of Wesley and hymns like "How Firm a Foundation" and "The Church's One Foudation." Always his voice could be heard lifting his praise to God.

Bill had a wonderful family who loved him deeply. His devoted wife Georgia was his faithful companion in ministry. Just as people loved Bill, so they love Georgia. Bill has four children: Mrs. Betty Tesh of Elkin, Mrs. Louise Boseman of Grimesland, Mrs. Emily McCorkle of Goldsboro, and William Smith Davenport III, of Grimesland. He also has 7 grandchildren. All of us are deeply greatful to them for sharing so much of Bill with us.

Brother Bill faced life with courage and commitment. Equally so, he faced death. He once penned these words:

> Death, you old Boogey-Man
> You don't scare me . . .
> All you've got is a bucket full of sand,
> I've got Calvary!

Indeed, Bill did have Calvary and Calvary had Bill — now, Heaven has him. Exactly 20 years to the day that Bill was ordained Elder, his earthly body was laid to rest (June 25, 1978). His funeral service was rightly stated in the bulletin as "The Celebration of the Life of William Smith Davenport." It wasn't a sad occasion, for Bill was never a sad person. It was a time filled with a sense of peace and yes, quiet joy. The service was beautifully conducted by Rev. R. T. Commander, Rev. Dwight Huffman, and Rev. R. G. Gurley at the Grimesland United Methodist Church. The burial took place at Mackeys.

I love Bill Davenport and sometimes I feel very sad that he's not here to share my life with him. I close this brief memorial with this prayer in my heart:

Grant, dear Lord, that I may be,
One half the man Bill was to me!

HARVEY LOWRY, SR.

The Reverend Harvey Lowry, Sr. was born on September 12, 1927 to Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Lowry in Robeson County. He obtained his primary education at Hopewell Elementary School and then on to Pembroke High School. He received his B.S. degree at Pembroke State College. At the completion of his education, he began working for Reigal Paper Company and worked for a period of 22 years. Prior to completing college, he married Myrtle Locklear Lowry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Locklear. The young couple made their home in Rowland, North Carolina. To this union was born four sons.

Harvey Lowry began as a lay pastor in 1956 at Fairview United Methodist Church and Hickory Grove United Methodist Church. He served there for a few years and after this appointment, he was moved to Pleasant Grove United Methodist and Ashpole United Methodist Church. There he helped to build two new physical plants during his ministry. Finally, his final appointment came in 1973 at Prospect United Methodist Church, the largest Native American Church in the United States. There he ministered successfully to the people in and out of the pulpit. He truly believed in Jesus Christ, the Son of God as the supreme source and tried to exemplify that in his life.

He worked excessively hard for the Native American Churches within the United Methodist Conference. He felt that the Native American Church often asked the church, "Can you help us?" In too many instances the church he felt had found an escape from lifes' stern realities with all its problematic and peripheral attachments within the comfortable seclusion of a four-walled mountain top experience amid disdainful evils, which block unity and harmony among the races. He also believed that it was much easier to remain in a comfortable security and refuse to get mixed up in a mess. Somehow, Epicureanism has, from time to time, crept into the church and created a Utopian Paradise far above the problems, pressures, and prejudices of life which so often have disturbed the church's joyful complacency. "Yes, there is a problem but there's nothing we can do about it; forget it; let's eat, drink, and be merry."

Later on, Harvey Lowry saw the United Methodist Church of the North Carolina Conference help the Native Americans begin to see some demons move out of Robeson County. Sure he would say, "Thank God for the United Methodist Church, because she was not afraid to get her hands dirty in the Messy Valley of Robeson County. He has said, "Thank you", to the Bishop and the North Carolina General Conference on many, many occasions for lifting up the Native American Church.

Reflecting back through the years, Harvey Lowry was admitted on probation and ordained a deacon in 1971 and in 1976 was received in full connection and ordained an elder. Also he served the conference in the following capacities: The Board of Pensions; Commission of Religion and Race; Rockingham District Council on Ministries; Native American Task Force Chairperson; Board of Directors Wesley Foudation at Pembroke State University; Board of Directors Children's Home and Board of Directors Hinton Rural Life.

In summation, Harvey Lowry left for the eternal rest on Sunday, June 25, 1978 at home. The final rites were officiated by Bishop Robert M. Blackburn and Dr. Joseph B. Bethea at Prospect United Methodist Church. The philosophy of his life was that everyone has a purpose in this world and the purpose should consist of helping others obtain fulfillment and meaning in their life.

WILLIAM KENNETH BARRS

William Kenneth Barrs was born October 26, 1913, in South Miami, Florida. The son of John W. and Amie Elizabeth Barrs. One of twelve children. His childhood and early education was spent in Miami, Florida.

He was a graduate of Miami High School and Duke University, where he earned his Degrees of Bachelor of Arts, Master of Arts, and Bachelor of Divinity. He was ordained a Minister of the Methodist Church in 1937.

In 1938 he was married to Mary Ethel Parker, who died in October 1954. To this marriage, one son, David Michael, was born, in April 1947.

Kenneth enlisted in the Army and was commissioned a Chaplain in September 1942. He served 31 continuous months overseas, 18 months in North Africa, and the remainder in Europe.

After release from active duty in 1946 he continued his military service in the Army Reserve, graduating from Army Command and General College, and retiring as a Colonel in October 1973.

Kenneth and I were married in June 1957, and my daughter Mica Lynne, by my deceased husband, joined Kenneth and David to form a family, which grew together until the children left for school and marriage.

In March 1946, he joined the Staff of the Veterans Administration Hospital in San Francisco, California, where he served as the Protestant Chaplain for 27 years, retiring for disability in April 1973. At retirement he was cited with honors for his devoted ministry by many service organizations; he also received letters of commendation from the Governor of California, supervisors of the City and County of San Francisco, and the Mayor of San Francisco.

As a hospital Chaplain, he faithfully ministered to the spiritual needs of countless sick men and women in all walks of life, often in their moments of greatest anguish. Throughout his career, he was available at any hour to pray with and for the veteran and his family, bringing encouragement, guidance, and friendship to all. He gave comfort and staunch support to patients and to his colleagues of all faiths, and to those responsible for the humanitarian treatment of veterans who has served their country. He truly answered the call of his faith.

Two years before his demise, while in great pain from cancer, he wrote his Memorial Services. In it he included this poem:

"Love that wilt not let me go.
I rest my weary soul in Thee;
I give Thee back the life I owe.
That in Thine oceans' depths its flow
May richer, fuller be.

"O Light that followest all my way,
I yield my flickering torch to Thee;
My heart restores its borrowed ray,
That in Thy sunshine's blaze its day
May brighter, fairer be.

"O Joy that seekest me through pain,
I cannot close my heart to Thee;
I trace the rainbow through the rain,
And feel the promise is not vain
That morn shall tearless be.

"O Cross that lifteth up my head,
I dare not ask to fly from Thee;
I lay in dust life's glory dead,
And from the ground there blossoms red
Life that shall endless be. Amen."

God took Kenneth out of his suffering and home to be with him on September 25, 1978, at Lackland AFB Hospital in San Antonio, Texas. He is survived by his wife, Patricia, a son Dr. David M. Barrs, and daughter, Mica Lynne Brown, two grandchildren, four brothers, and five sisters. Memorial Services were held in Miami, Florida, by Dr. Dave Davis who delivered the service as Kenneth had written it. Interment was in the family plot in Miami, Florida.

I would like to share a prayer given to me by a friend of another faith:

The departed whom we now remember have entered into the eternal peace of life. They still live on earth in the acts of goodness they performed and in the hearts of those cherish their memory. May the beauty of their life abide among us as a loving benediction. Amen.

He was a kind and loving husband and father and we miss him very much. Our life was enriched by his.

Mrs. Kenneth Barrs

When one has known a friend for more than half a century it is tempting to depart from the usual memorial with its rehearsal of statistics and indulge in personal reminiscing. Perhaps the two can be happily combined in an appropriate tribute to a great and good man.

Born in a picturesque rural setting of South Jersey on April 3, 1899, "Nellie" Moore, as he was affectionately known, learned early to appreciate the beauty of God's handiwork. But lovely surroundings did not prevent life on the farm from being difficult; nor did they assure the kind of monetary returns needed for the realization of life's finer amenities. Still, undaunted by family reverses he set for himself high professional goals which, through great struggles, he was able to achieve.

It took amazing dedication to his call to the ministry to return to school for the completion of the eighth grade at twenty years of age, and then to go on to prep. school at Pennington, to college at Asbury, to theological seminary at Asbury, and to graduate school at Drew University. In all of his educational experience he was the elder citizen who learned to relate admirably to his younger contemporaries.

He began a student ministry at Strathmere in the New Jersey Conference in 1921 while at Pennington, and continued as a student pastor at Aldine and Woodruff until 1926. Throughout his college and seminary years he was pastor to a Presbyterian Church at Nonesuch, Kentucky. Returning to New Jersey he served Bayville and Ocean Gate (1931-1935), Belford (1936-1937), Bradley Beach (1938-1939), Delanco (1940-1945), South River (1945-1950), Bridgeton, Central (1951-1953), and Penns Grove, Emmanuel (1954-1955)

From 1955 to 1963 he was the principal associate to the writer at Pfeiffer College where he was more largely responsible than anyone else for the school's dramatic growth from a small junior college to a senior institution of nearly one thousand students. He and his companion of many years, Minnie Laning, his boyhood sweetheart whom he married on June 14, 1930, traveled the eastern seaboard searching for young people worthy of an opportunity to learn in a Christian environment. Several thousand youth, who came under the spell of their godly influence, owe their education to the persistence and labors of this dedicated couple. During those years their home on campus was a gathering place for students away from home who sought counseling and love. It was also, on many occasions, a place of refuge for a lonely presidential pair who frequently needed the inspiration of their contagious optimism and faith.

After Dr. Moore suffered a serious heart attack in 1963 they moved to their retirement home in Vero Beach, Florida. There, on June 10, 1964, Minnie Moore passed away quietly. Dr. Moore's last years, until he entered the Church Triumphant on October 6, 1978, were shared with Marian Taylor Osborne, a friend from college days, whom he married on January 29, 1966. She survives along with a son from his first marriage, Dr. Robert L. Moore, a physician in Vero Beach, and seven grandchildren.

In over fifty years of associating with "Nellie" Moore I never knew to have an enemy and never knew him to meet a stranger. he was a remarkable conversationalist, as much at home with humble an down-and-outs as with those of nobler lineage and standing. His exuberance, his optimism, his faith and wise counsel were contagious.

His love of people kept him active far beyond retirement. In the early 1970's he was still serving as hospital chaplain in Vero Beach. His infectious smile, kindly words and thoughful prayers contributed as much to healing as daily medications. He was an apostle of cheer, par excellence who, for free, spread joy wherever people gave him audience: on the streets, in the stores, in the stands, in the church, in the home.

Dr. Moore was one preacher who, better than most, emulated the example of Jesus by keeping his messages simple enough for a child to understand and profound enough to challenge the keenest of minds. he had a way of using homespun language in such a way as to make the points of his sermons tellingly clear. They were charaterized by imaginative illustrations and wholesome humor. He was easy to listen to. And he always preached for a verdict, believing that there were those in every congregation who needed the saving grace of our Lord Christ. Fortunate, indeed, were the people and churches he served.

It was not surprising that in due time he received the highest awards of both Pennington and Asbury, the Order of the Tower for distinguished alumni at the former, and in 1951 the Doctor of Divinity Degree from the latter. No one ever wore these honors more proudly, or more humbly, or more deservedly.

He was no religious fanatic; yet he was fanatically dedicated to Christ. He could be as happy at a ball game as at a revival meeting. As a competitor in athletics in his younger days, he played to win, just as in later years he preached to win in the pulpit. The demand for his services as preacher and evangelist continued throughout his active years. He leaves behind a host of persons, young and old, who found Christ as Saviour and Lord under the ministry of his preaching.

On the morning of his funeral I awakened in his bedroom to discover some lines on the shelf above his bed which must have served as a life-long inspiration:

Here's to somebody, staunch and true,
Who's always around when there's work to do,
Who keeps a supply of love and cheer
For all the folks for all the year,
Who knows that a gentle, loving smile
Is the best of tonics for all the while,
That there's nothing so bad that it can't be worse —
A case of blues is a terrible curse —
So here's to somebody, staunch and true,
Of course you don't know it, but that somebody's you.

The song of his life has been sung, but for those of us privileged to know him, the melody lingers on. It is the song of his Lord who promised him and now us: "I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee."

ROBERT MITCHELL DREW, SR.

Reverend Robert Mitchell Drew, Sr. died at the age of 54 on Saturday, March 31, 1979, while serving as pastor of Rosemary United Methodist Church, Roanoke Rapids, North Carolina.

Bob was born on November 11, 1924, in Ridgeland, South Carolina, to Ford and Catherine Drew, loyal Methodists. There Bob's life was nurtured; being baptized, confirmed and married in St. Paul's Methodist Church of Ridgeland. He attended the Jasper County Public School, graduating from Clemson College, Clemson, S.C., in 1948, and the Duke Divinity School fourteen (14) years later. In the interim, Bob was employed first in public health work and then as an insurance adjuster for U. S. Casualty Company both at the Fort Knox, Ky. and the Wilmington, N. C. offices.

In 1958 while attending Trinity Methodist Church in Wilmington, N.C. and under the leading of the Holy Spirit through the beloved Reverend Millard C. Dunn, Bob answered the call to preach. After a year serving the Bolton Charge, he entered the Seminary at Duke University, graduating in June, 1962. While at Duke, he served the Silk Hope Church.

Bob served the following appointments:

Bolton, 1958; Silk Hope, 1959; Maxton, 1962; Macedonia, 1966; Damascus Home, 1968; Windsor, 1970; Fairmont, 1973; Rosemary at Roanoke Rapids, 1977 through March 31, 1979.

Bob was married on June 28, 1946, to the former Joan Nix of Garnett, S.C.

In addition to his widow, Bob is survived by three daughters; Mrs. Joan Hoggard of Windsor, Mrs. Martha Ann Crisson of Burlington, and Mrs. Mary Catherine Floyd of Raleigh; two sons, Robert Mitchell Drew, Jr. of Charleston, S.C., and Stephen Drew of the home; his mother, Mrs. Catherine Mitchell Drew of Black Shear, Ga.; and five grandchildren. Funeral services were held for Bob in the Rosemary United Methodist Church on Monday, April 2, at 4 P.M. The service was conducted by Reverend Herman S. Winberry of Chestnut Street United Methodist Church, Lumberton and Reverend John Cline, Superintendent of the Rocky Mount District.

A large honor guard of pastors from across the North Carolina Conference was present and seated in a body in the Sanctuary. The service was marked by a spirit of praise and victory.

Graveside services were held April 4th at the Ridgeland Cemetery in South Carolina.

In this memorial I want to share some personal impressions about Bob Drew. Bob was a preacher. He loved the pulpit ministry and was an effective preacher of the Word. He was invited by other ministers to preach in their churches. Bob was a friend. He was my dear friend, a brother beloved. He had a way of making friends with clergy and laity alike. Bob loved the ministers of the North Carolina Conference. He served on many conference boards and committees. But his joy and honor was as a member of the Division of Ordained Ministry, where he served with devotion for six years as Registrar of the Membership Section. Bob loved his family and kept up with them. He was proud of his loved ones. Bob Drew loved Jesus Christ. In his heart Bob loved Jesus Christ.

"Servant of God, well done! Thy glorious warfare's past; the battle's fought, the race is won, and thou art crowned at last. With saints enthroned on high, Thou dost thy Lord proclaim, and still to God salvation cry, Salvation to the Lamb!

O happy, happy soul! In ecstasies of praise, long as eternal ages roll, Thou seest thy Savior's face. Redeemed from earth and pain, Ah! when shall we ascend, and all in Jesus' presence reign through ages without end?"

LEON RUSSELL

The earthly pilgrimage of Leon Russell, son of John L. and Sallie Shore Russell, began in Obion, Tennessee on November 13, 1905 and closed in Waynesville, North Carolina on June 1, 1979. He filled to the full these seventy-four years with rich living, faithful preaching, and loving service. Early in his life his family moved to Helena, Arkansas where he completed his elementary education in Woodruff High School before entering Hendrix College in Conway, from which he received the A.B. Degree in 1927.

Rarely, if ever, has it been given to us to witness in a life more consecration and determination to live and serve than that possessed by him. Leon was well equipped in every way for the work to which God had called him. To answer the call to serve meant to prepare, therefore in 1927 he came to North Carolina and enrolled in the Duke Divinity School from which he received the B.D. Degree in 1930.

As proof of his outstanding ability during the days of his preparation as well as throughout his ministry he was elected Alumnus of the Year and chosen to be the Alumni Lecturer one year in the Duke Pastor's School and Convocation.

On November 24, 1930 Leon and Alta Stone of Durham were married. To this home were born two daughters and one son who with their mother survive. They are Mrs. Paul Hardin, III of Drew University, Summit, New Jersey, John C. Russell an attorney of New York City, and Mrs. Robert Gillikin of Champaign, Illinois. He is also survived by nine grandchildren, one sister, Mrs. Margrett Allman, of Grossee Ile, Michigan, and one brother, H. Guy Russell of Columbus, Georgia.

Leon was admitted on trial in the North Carolina Conference of The Methodist Episcopal Church, South in Kinston in 1929. He was ordained a Deacon in 1931 and an Elder in 1933. He served the following appointments in the conference: Hatteras; Pikeville-Elm Street; Raleigh, Hayes Barton; New Bern; Centenary; Goldsboro, Saint Paul; Greenville, Jarvis Memorial; Rocky Mount, First Church; Burlington, Front Street; Superintendent of the Goldsboro District; and Superintendent of the Raleigh District. He retired in June of 1971. He and Alta moved to a place they loved, their beautiful home in the hills of Lake Junaluska.

Throughout his ministry he was often heard to say: "We are going to Lake Junaluska". He valued the opportunity of spending a few days in the midst of beauty to study and feast his mind upon that which gave him strength for the days ahead. When the time came for him to return to the tasks which were before him he did so with a new strength in mind and body.

In his retirement, he refused to cease his labors. Every change in location presented new opportunities for service. Many times he was called upon to serve in many capacities at the lake and in the churches of the surrounding area. During a number of the years of his retirement he served as Dean of the Junaluska Chapel.

Leon loved and remained loyal to The Methodist Church regardless of the changes which were made in its name throughout the years. He was always in the midst of those who instituted change when it was in the interest of God's children. He gave his time to its work on every level of its structure. Twice he was elected and served as a delegate to the General Conference, and five times as a delegate to the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference. In 1951 he was a delegates to the World Methodist Conference in Oxford, England.

Outstanding was his leadership on the Annual Conference level. Regardless of the area of interest or responsibility, he served with great effectiveness as an official in the fields of Missions, Education, Ministry, Long Range Planning, Home for Children, and the Home for the Aged. Twice he was appointed by the presiding bishop to serve in his Cabinet. This is only a partial list of responsibilities he carried for it would be impossible to enumerate all of them.

When the North Carolina Conference voted to establish a college in Rocky Mount, North Carolina it turned to Leon Russell for leadership. At the time, he was serving as President of the conference Board of Education. He was elected to serve as the President of the first Board of Trustees of the new college. He was also a member of the site committee, building committee and executive committee. It was he who suggested "North Carolina Wesleyan" as the name of the new institution.

As an expression of appreciation for his work in the college and beyond, across the conference, North Carolina Wesleyan College conferred the Doctor of Divinty Degree upon him on May 21, 1978. Such an honor could never have been given to one more deserving.

Leon was also loyal to his country. By precept and example he endeavored to carry out the historic principles of our nation. During his term of office in the State of North Carolina, Governor Clyde Hoey appointed Leon to serve for several years as Chairperson of the Committee for Interracial Cooperation. He was also invited to deliver a series of sermons for the armed services, sponsored by the Protestant Hour Network.

He was genuinely loyal to his friends. His home was always open to those who needed him. All who crossed its threshold felt the warmth of welcome, love, and hospitality which were always extended to them.

On Friday evening, June 1, 1979 in the Waynesville Hospital, after a very short illness, Leon slipped quietly away leaving a great heritage to those he loved.

On Monday afternoon, June 4, a memorial service was held in the First United Methodist Church of Waynesville by Bishop Paul Hardin and Dr. Lary Wilkinson. Internment was in Hillcrest Gardens in Waynesville. On the same afternoon the North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church, meeting in Fayetteville, held a memorial service to honor those ministers and wives of ministers who had died during the previous year.

The fellowship of our Conference is better; and the lives of its members are richer because he lived, labored, and loved in our midst — and did all of these things well. Multitudes who knew him, loved him for what he was. We thank our Heavenly Father for the life of Leon who walked with us and pointed the way as few have done.

KIMI YANAGIHARA TANAKA

Mrs. Kimi Yanagihara Tanaka of Durham, N.C. died August 2, 1978 in Duke Medical Center. She was a native of Kobe, Japan but had lived in Durham for more than twenty years. She was a member of the Duke University Chapel Choir where she was frequently its soloist. Kimi served on the library staff of the Woman's College at Duke University. She is survived by one son, Dr. Shin Tanaka of Minneapolis, Minn., one granddaughter, one grandson, three brothers, and one sister.

She was Kimi to all who knew her or heard of her. She was Kimi to those who knew her intimately as a person who had so much to give - everlasting beauty. Beauty in flower arrangement - a twist here, a twist there and a creation appeared - awe inspiring in simplicity and a revelation of what God created. Her voice trained to give meaning to all aspects of a God created sound was another talent.

Two instances stand out vividly in our minds about our association with Kimi. We had some missionaries visiting us many years ago in our home. We invited Kimi and Isawa Tanaka, Dr. and Mrs. H. E. Spence to have dinner with us when our missionary guests were here. Following the dinner we all went into our flower garden. The sun was setting, and Kimi started singing "Day is dying in the west, Heaven is touching earth with rest." Dr. Spence told us that the dinner, the missionary friends, the Tanakas, and the Wilsons had meant so much to him because it was on that very day he had been retired from Duke University and was naturally very sad.

Another occasion which we remember is the day that Isawa, her husband, baptized our little niece. Again the air was filled with music. She sang the lovely hymn entitled "Happy the Home When God is There".

Thank you, Kimi, for giving all of us who knew you so much of God's created beauty.

VIRGINIA DOWD PRINCE

Virginia Calloway Dowd Prince was born on November 21, 1893, to J. H. and Alice Turber Calloway in Surry County, North Carolina. She graduated from Glade Valley High School and attended Flora McDonald College in Red Springs, N. C. She moved to Morehead City, N.C. where she taught school. She met and married The Reverend O. W. Dowd on June 9, 1921. She was a faithful and good wife and was great help to him in the ministry. They served the following charges: Morehead City: First; Wilmington: Fifth Avenue; Franklinton: Louisburg; Hamlet; Elizabeth City District: Goldsboro: St. Paul; Oxford; Dunn: Divine Street; Raleigh: Jenkins Memorial. In all their work together, they emphasized the missionary responsibility of the church. During the years of retirement for Rev. Dowd from 1947 until his death on November 1, 1955, he served as Missionary Secretary of the Raleigh City Board of Missions and Church Extensions. They lived at 2107 Fairview Road in Raleigh during Mr. Dowd's retirement.

To know Virginia Prince was to find the joy and warmth of accepting love, the inspiration of unrestrained sharing, and the generous spirit of Christ.

She was a woman for all ages. Ministers, committee members, friends, neighbors, and family sought her wise and reasonable advice. She served with honor on important church committees until the last year of her life and brought a calm stability even in her absence. Young people, whom she loved and taught for many years, were encouraged by her dedication and thoughtfulness. Through her support and interest the young people renovated and rekindled interest in the church library. In so doing they discovered the lively art of being Christian in word and deed.

She was a champion of human dignity. In a rare combination of innocence and witty insight she accepted all people in spite of, if not because of, their human frailties. Her conversations emphasized the virtues of those she knew. Only the persistence in questionable living would cause her to wrinkle her brow in puzzled disappointment.

Acts of love brought a radiant and grateful response, whether they were as simple as a decorated cupcake given on Valentine's Day, a ride to the store, talking and stroking her cats, or a contemporary anthem, "Go Out with Joy." Life was a gift to be shared with everyone.

After the death of the Rev. O. W. Dowd she married Hugh W. Prince in July, 1959 and moved to Dunn. For the remained of her life she was very active in the life of Divine Street UMC. She easily found her place in the church. She was an effective force behind any program of the church. Virginia Prince loved people; she was an outgoing person drawing persons of all ages to her by her outgoing personality. She was gracious, sincere and beloved. Her courage and faith in God was her sustaining strength.

One request that she had made known before her death was that the poem which was read to introduce her at the Thursday Afternoon Book Club in January, 1965, be included at her funeral.

She died at Betsy Johnson Memorial Hospital, Dunn, N.C. on November 2, 1978. Her funeral was conducted by her pastor the Reverend Thomas E. Loftis on November 4, 1978 at Divine Street United Methodist Church. She was buried at Greenwood Cemetery, Dunn, N.C.

Who Is Virginia?

She who understands your silence.

She who will be a balance in the seasaw of life.

She who considers your needs before your deservings.

She who to herself is true and therefore must be so to you.

She, who, when she reaches the top of the ladder, does not forget you if you are at the bottom.

She, who is the same today when prosperity smiles upon you, and tomorrow when adversity and sorrow come.

She who cheerfully comes in when all the world has gone out; who weeps with you when the laughing is away.

She who guards your interests as her own, neither flatters nor deceives, gives just praise to your good deeds, and equally condemns your bad acts.

She who is the same to you in the society of the wealthy and proud, as in the solitude of poverty; whose cheerful smiles shed sunshine in every company.

This is Virginia Dowd Prince

MILDRED EVANS WILLIAMS
1911-1979

An excellent wife, who can find? For her worth is far above jewels. The heart of her husband trusts in her, and he will have no lack of gain. She does him good and not evil all the days of her life. Strength and dignity are her clothing, and she smiles at the future. She opens her mouth in wisdom, and the teaching of kindness is on her tongue. She looks well to the ways of her household, and does not eat the bread of idleness. Her children rise up and bless her; her husband also, and he praises her saying: "Many daughters have done nobly, but you excell them all."

Proverbs 31

Mildred E. Williams was born to Willie G. Evans and Nora Brown Evans on September 16, 1911, and was a native of Camden County. She was a graduate of Hugh Morson High School in Raleigh. She is survived by her husband Reverend Oscar S. Williams and three children: Shelton Williams of Belhaven, Ruth Lassister of Rich Square, and Gayle Stancil of Carboro. She also had 4 grandchildren.

Mrs. Williams met Oscar S. Williams and they were married November 6, 1932. Like so many minister's wives, she had to learn to become one later in their marriage since Rev. Williams had not decided to devote his life to the ministry in the early years of their marriage. Once that decision was made, Mrs. Williams became the ideal minister's wife. Brother Oscar would be the first to agree that they had a ministry together. For she was tireless in her work in the church. Yet strangely enough the leadership she provided was often unnoticed. The reason being that she was always sincerely humble and unobtrusive and was busy about things that were outside the limelight.

Though she never sought the praise of individuals, it was constantly coming forth, and justly so. Mildred Williams was one of those rare individuals who never lost control of herself. Always quiet and even-tempered, she carried on her work within the bounds of God's love and peace. Never once have I ever heard one single person say an unkind thing about her. In a world in which people are prone to find fault, this was quite an accomplishment. Rarely ever would you find her without a smile on her face or the soft hum of a hymn on her lips. Numerous times I have entered the parsonage to find her busy washing dishes and humming the melody of some hymn which for her was an act of worship. Each time I saw her I would think how much she was like Brother Lawrence, the little Catholic monk of the 16th century, who wrote:

The time of business does not with me differ from the time of prayer; and in the noise and clatter of my kitchen, while several persons are at the same time calling for different things, I possess God in as great tranquillity as if I were upon my knees at the blessed sacrament.

For Mildred Williams worship was a constant thing wherever she was. She had a quality of life that few people find. She was able to experience the peace of God whether in the midst of strife or in day to day living.

No minister could have desired a more faithful companion in ministry. Time and again Brother Oscar has shared how much she helped with the little but necessary things, such as, doing bulletins or filing our reports. Always she gave her voice to the glory of God as she sang in the choir. Always she was active and faithful in the work of the United Methodist Women, constantly sharing her talents and her labor, and most importantly her faith, in carrying on their great mission.

Countless numbers could be called forth to testify to the comfort and help she brought in time of bereavement and sickness. Always her faith was a channel whereby God reached forth and touched the lives of people. I can recall many times as she listened patiently and lovingly as I shared with her some problem. Each time her advice flowed forth filled with encouragement and hope. It was never difficult to love Mildred Williams.

For forty-six and one half years she and Brother Oscar shared their lives together. Undoubtedly, it will be no easy task to go on without her, yet we all know that that is what she would desire. What they shared together will give him hope and strength to continue, for faith, hope, and love do not die — they live on.

A memorial service was held at Bath United Methodist Church, of which she was a member, on Sunday February 25, 1979, by Reverend R. T. Commander, District Superintendent; Reverend Dan Meadows: and Reverend Mike Hobbs. There was no body to be buried, for in keeping with her entire life, Mildred had donated her earthly body to medical science, in the hope that it might be of some help to someone else. It was not necessary for her to give her spiritual body to God, for it had belonged to Him all the time. Since Mildred loved hymns so much, it seems appropriate to conclude with the words of a great hymn which so characterized her life of faith:

O Love that wilt not let me go,
I rest my weary soul in thee;
I give thee back the life I owe,
That in thine ocean depths its flow
May richer fuller be.

O Light that followest all my way,
I yield my flickering torch to thee;
My heart restores its borrowed ray,
That in thy sunshine's blaze its day
May brighter fairer be.

O Joy that seekest me through pain,
I cannot close my heart to thee;
I trace the rainbows through the rain,
And feel the promise is not vain
That morn shall tearless be.

O Cross that liftest up my head,
I dare not ask to fly from thee;
I lay in dust life's glory dead,
And from the ground there blossoms red
Life that shall endless be.

SECTION VII

CONFERENCE REPORTS, LEGISLATION AND RESOLUTIONS

STATE OF THE CHURCH ADDRESS - June 1979

The United Methodist Church has deep roots in the state of North Carolina. Eastern North Carolina, in particular, has some of the oldest churches and traditions in America. The fruits of these roots have been many across the two hundred years of our history. This heritage bespeaks something of the depth and dynamics of our United Methodism in this great state. Those who have gone before us have planted and cultivated well, and we are reaping the harvest. However, new seeds must be planted so that those who are yet to come may feel the impact of a vital Christian witness.

Our concern should be not only with the state of our particular church, but with the total Christian experience in our area. In many respects the state of our church is good. We have beautiful buildings and facilities. We have well-trained and dedicated pastors. Many of our church members are deeply committed Christians and are faithful in their stewardship of the gospel. As I travel throughout the conference, I continue to be encouraged and excited about the work that is being done and the potential that is there for service to Almighty God.

During the past year we have had a major emphasis upon evangelism. It has produced results and we are among the few conferences in American Methodism that can claim a net growth in membership, however small it may be. We will continue to concentrate upon this primary task of the church in winning new souls to a living relationship to Christ. The church exists for evangelism. We must never forget that! We do not evangelize in order to strengthen the church, but rather, we strengthen the church and develop our resources in order that we may evangelize the world for Christ. Let us continue to make this the initial purpose for our existence.

Our emphasis upon the ethnic minority churches has continued to be at the forefront of our concerns. During the past twelve months we have engaged in several consultations and special gatherings in behalf of the ethnic churches. It is encouraging to note that some of the most significant gains in membership have been in our Black and Native American churches. There is a critical need for ministerial leadership in these churches. We have held lengthy sessions to deal with this subject. We are engaged in a program of challenging each ethnic church to do all they can to produce at least one new pastor from among their congregation within the next few years. We have traveled to colleges and seminaries to enlist any possible candidates for our ethnic churches. We must concentrate upon a vital youth program within these congregations, for it is out of the youth of our churches that we recruit our future ministers.

The recent crusade for funding our ministerial pensions has revealed a vitality that many did not know existed within our conference. Later in this session a very encouraging report will be made on this crusade. It has indicated to all of us how supportive our people are for our ministers and their welfare. My heart has been warmed as I have noted the response of our Methodist people to this appeal for upgrading the pensions of their pastors. Everyone seems to agree that this has been the most successful financial campaign in recent history of the North Carolina Conference.

When we have completed the fulfillment of these pledges in the next three years, we will need to take a long look at our support of the institutions of this conference. They were visualized and created by North Carolina Methodists. We will be most unfaithful if we create such agencies of service and do not provide for their continuing sustenance and nurture. Most of our institutions are in much healthier condition than they were a few years ago. However, from the standpoint of their capital needs, we still have some very serious responsibilities that this conference must face.

One of the distinguishing marks of Methodism has been its plan of itinerant ministry. Experience has proven it to be a viable plan of keeping our churches supplied with effective pastoral leadership. We must take care not to erode this method. It is practically impossible to combine a "call system" with an appointive system. It also becomes increasingly difficult to match a Methodist pastor's appointment to accomodate the vocation of the spouse. Indeed, we have done this on many occasions, and in some instances it has been a limiting factor in a pastor's appointment. We will continue to have close consulation with pastors and Pastor-Parish Relations Committees, but we can succeed only to the degree that our pastors and people respond affirmatively to the process.

Every now and then you hear someone say, "Let the church be the church." To be the church in our present generation is a challenge almost comparable to a frontier. We have new horizons to seek out and new methods of fulfilling the call of our Lord. In Charles Dicken's famous novel, A Tale of Two Cities, the author sets the novel in its time and place, the France of the Revolution of 1789. He describes the scene as follows: "It was the best of times, it was the worst of times; it was the age of wisdom, it was the age of foolishness; it was the epoch of belief, it was the epoch of incredulity; it was the season of light, it was the season of darkness; it was the spring of hope, it was the winter of despair."

We understand that picture, don't we? Some days it seems vividly applicable to the world in which we live. We dwell in the winter of despair and the spring of hope. And the temperature is never just right.

(1) I believe that underlying all that we are today and aspire to become tomorrow is the issue of Christian discipline. We struggle with this constantly. We have mistakenly used our liberty to promote license. We are struggling to find a way somewhere between outright license, to do merely as we please, leading us to do only as others approve. We are a people who call our Organization Document a Book of Discipline, but that word has been out of favor for at least a generation, and we are reluctant to reassert it. On the one hand, we have a significant number of people who believe that Christian liberty is described by the slogan, "If it feels good, do it." And on the other hand, we have a growing number who want to reassert rules and regulations, restrict clergy and laity to clearly-defined lists of behavioral standards, and punish those who deviate. Many are still on a holiday of self-expression after generations of rigid restrictions that sometimes stifled creativity and wholeness. Still others are on what, by old standards, is almost an orgy of self-indulgence, a delight in breaking rules and any semblance of rules. What IS legitimate Christian liberty? And what IS unwarranted license? I have no simple answers. But I think we need to struggle with this issue in our church. Somehow we must recover the power of positive moral example.

(2) Secondly, we must deal with the relation of diversity to division. Some are bothered that we United Methodists have so many different points of view, so many theologies, so many styles of worship, so many lifestyles.

We know the word, "polarization". It seems to have become a key term in our life together, or rather, our life apart. Local churches split into warring camps over labor versus management, over racial inclusiveness, over charismatics. To maintain one's convictions at the same time that one respects the stance of another is one of the hardest tasks before us. Some even fear to study different points of view, for fear that their own convictions will be shaken. Yet, study we must. And we must learn how to share openly and honestly our differences as well as our similarities. New causes breed new hostilities. Affirmations of new identities make old identities suspect. Black becomes beautiful, and white turns ugly. Women assert the importance of singleness and career, and the married woman, devoted to home and family, feels like a second-class citizen. We lavish attention upon youth and make the old feel unwanted and useless. To find ways to use our diversity to the glory of God is surely one of the greatest challenges of this hour. The divisivenes among our people is one of the most destructive forces we have ever faced.

(3) In the third place we need to be careful that our resources are not promoted into restrictions. We are a very successful church, materially, however we may interpret the statistics. Our finances may not seem enough to meet the challenges before us. They do not. Still, we are wealthy. I don't know the total figure that might be attached just to United Methodist real estate in this country, but I think the total would be staggering. Just the figures of the quadrennial general church budget is impressive. We are almost paralyzed, debating issues -- or deciding that only experts can deal with them. We oppose warfare, but we are told that our economy depends largely upon a military establishment. We question the safety of nuclear energy, but recognize that without it we may be severely restricted in the enjoyment of the mobility and comfort we have come to expect. We want to save natural resources, but we find that if we stop cutting trees, people will be out of work. We want to dignify farm labor and raise the standard of living for those who work in our fields. But the small growers say we will bankrupt them if we insist on higher standards. And so, the very resources of modern life become restrictions on our freedom to stand for truth as we see it. And we remain silent and frightened and immobilized.

(4) Fourth, we must be careful that our commitment does not become our comfort. The Gospel is, indeed, a comfort to the afflicted. How many times its power has brought peace. But that peace is not the same thing as a smug comfort that sees Christian commitment as a drawing inward, a sharing only with like-minded people, a retreat from the world.

We have seen in recent decades a widening split between the activists, so-called, and the evangelistic. These two words should never have been put in opposition to one another. They are one and the same, the two halves of the whole gospel. Yet we fragment out witness. And there are strong voices telling us to stay out of all sorts of things and return to "real Christianity", which deals with the inner and not the outer. We become too often the people who believe that to be the light of the world is largely a matter of polishing our lamps and building our secure refuges for their protection. There are two tests we need to apply to our actions: First, is our Christian witness forcing us to change our lives in any way? And second, is it requiring any risk? Without change and without risk, I doubt that we can witness with any real power.

There is a story that has been going the rounds lately. Perhaps you have heard it. It illustrates well what I have been trying to say. A group of children decided to play church, and they had a good time doing so. They sang, pretended to take up the collection, and otherwise acted out a Sunday worship service. But that grew boring, so they decided to act out some Sunday School material. They decided to do some scenes from the life of Jesus. That went all right, until they chose one boy to be Jesus at the crucifixion. They got rather rough, pushing and insulting him. Finally, he protested: "Let's play church again. It's a lot safer."

To be the church we need to come again and walk the path of Christian discipline, temper our liberty with an element of constraint. We need to turn our diversity into versatility. We need to create out of our resources, not restrictions, but renewal. We need to turn our commitment away from comfort to one of deep and abiding conviction.

COMMISION ON ARCHIVES AND HISTORY

Archives and History Commission Hosts SEJ Historical Society

The Southeastern Jurisdiction Historical Society of the United Methodist Church met at Methodist College, Fayetteville, North Carolina, July 11-13, 1978. Your commission was host to the conference. We were thrilled to have twenty persons representing our conference and commission. Adolph Dial, a member of our commission, presented a paper on the "History of the Lumbee Indians and the Methodist Church". Bishop Robert M. Blackburn had the opening devotional. Reverend Lawrence E. Lugar, Chairperson of the North Carolina Conference Commission on Archives and History, was elected treasurer of the SEJ Historical Society, and appointed to the SEJ Commission on Archives and History as a member-at-large. Reverend Brooks B. Little, a member of our Annual Conference, was appointed to the SEJ Historical Society Executive Committee by the SEJ Council on Ministries. Brooks is Director of Archives and History of the SEJ-COM.

Conference Historical Society Reorganized

September 30, 1978 was a "Red Letter Day" for your commission. This was the date we officially reorganized the North Carolina Conference Historical Society. The following officers were elected: Chairperson, Reverend Steven A. Hickle; Vice Chairperson, Grady L. E. Carroll; Secretary, Reverend Ben C. Rouse. The society has 110 charter members.

New Books Planned

Those of us who have read the rough draft of the book "To Be Baithful To Our Heritage - A History of Black United Methodism in North Carolina" by Mrs. Linda D. Addo, Greensboro, N. C. and Reverend James H. McCallum, Raleigh, N. C., co-authors, are excited about the book. We hope to have it ready for sale by the end of 1979.

Other Publications

Semi-Annual Meetings

Two interesting meetings were held during 1978; one at Plank chapel in Vance County and one at Methodist Building in Raleigh. Both were well attended.

Research Continues

Mr. Joseph Watson, Rocky Mount, North Carolina, our researcher, has abstracted deeds for us in twenty-eight counties. He is doing a tremendous job, and we are indebted to "Joe" for the time and energy he devotes to this task.

Search for Oldest Building Continues

We are still trying to determine the oldest church building, still in use, in each district. The building will be judged on the guidelines established by the commission. We invite you to see our display of pictures in the Student Union.

Organizational Change

Mrs. W. T. Jackson, Jr., our vice chairperson, has resigned because of bad health. Mrs. Janice Cannon, Vanceboro, N. C. was elected to fill her unexpired term.

COMMITTEE ON COMMUNICATION

Comprehensive Communications System

The 1976 General Conference called upon the church to develop "a comprehensive approach to communications for the church." The General Council on Ministries and United Methodist Communications have been at work on this task for almost three years. They have prepared a working paper which is to be presented as a report to the 1980 General conference.

In the report, 13 functions are assigned to the Annual Conference Committee on Communication. I would like to mention each of these and to report what our committee is already doing to fulfill the functions.

Perform Functions in Internal and External Communication and Promotion

We support, develop and evaluate communication efforts within the annual conference and between the annual conference and external audiences. The Coordinated Mailing and the "North Carolina Christian Advocate" are primary sources of intra-conference communication. News releases, special articles and the airing of "Connection," our United Methodist radio program, are efforts to spread our "good news" to others by means of the media.

Communicate With The Public Concerning The Christian Faith From a United Methodist Perspective

Barbara Wilkinson, through the office of United Methodist Communications, provides news articles for use in television, radio and print media. In 1978 news of our conference totaled the equivalent of 38 newspaper pages–and this does not include local church or district news. In addition, some conference news has aired on radio and television stations.

Work With Local Church Communication Coordinators

In previous years training has been offered at the January Training Workshops and the Conference Leadership School.

Publish Periodicals To Inform Local Church Constituency

"The North Carolina Christian Advocate," under the excellent editorship of the Rev. C. A. Simonton, Jr., is providing this coverage for our conference in a superlative fashion. The move to weekly publication of the "Advocate" has strengthened its value, too.

Encourage Distribution and Use of Relevant National Resources

We need to encourage each local church to maintain a current list of leaders to receive "Interpreter" magazine. Also, we encourage the use of INFO-SERV, the toll-free telephone resource service for United Methodists (1-800-252-8140)

Produce Specialized Educational Media

We have produced filmstrips and other media resources in the past, but these have not been used very extensively in local churches. We are considering video-tape resources for the future.

Provide A Resource Center

The Media Center at the Methodist Building in Raleigh is the most unused bargain in Methodism (only 52% of the charges are members). More than 1500 media resources are avalable to member churches at no cost other than the low, annual membership fee. Non-member churches may rent media. A new catalog of resources has recently been published and distributed to every church.

Coordinate Program and Benevolence Interpretation

The Committee has been very active in this phase of its work. Each year new interpretive resources designed for our conference have been prepared. Where they have used, they have been very valuable in interpreting the United Methodist benevolence program.

The Fayetteville District had a successful Operation Understanding in January. This event brought 10 board representatives into nearly all the charges of the district for dialogue with local church persons.

Provide Training In Communications

Training has been offered at the January Workshops, Conference Leadership School, and in local churches, as requested. A training emphasis in the area of church newsletter workshops has been led by the Rev. Douglas Fox and/or Barbara Wilkinson. In May, 1978, we sponsored a Radio Workshop, to learn the opportunities available in the radio medium.

Initiate and Help Facilitate Two-Way Flow of Communication

This is perhaps the weakest phase of the communications process in our conference. We need to develop "ears to hear" the people at the grassroots level--the local church. This must become a prioity for our committee.

Assist The Ethnic Minorities With Communications Needs

A communication training event was held for Native Americans in the Robeson County Cooperative Parish in January. The Committee must place more stress in this area of responsibility.

Cooperate and Share Resources With Communications Persons at Other Levels

The officers and staff person responsible to the Committee are involved in the SEJ Fellowship of Interpreters and the SEJ Fellowship of Communicators as well as in other relationships with communications staff persons and committee leaders in other conferences. These relationships are very helpful.

COMMITTEE ON CAREER PLANNING AND COUNSELING

Goals

At the beginning of the Quadrennium the N. C. Conference Committee on Career Planning and Counseling set three goals to guide its activities from 1976-1980: (1) To provide assistance and support to local church pastors as they counsel with persons considering professional church vocations; (2) To assist the local church coordinators of career planning and counseling in presenting the career planning program within their respective churches; (3) To provide the youth of our churches information regarding the resources available to them for preparing for a professional career in church vocations. Annual programming has centered around progress toward these goals.

"Call To Ministry"

When counseling with persons considering the ministry, the pastor and the counselor need to have a perception of God's Call and people's comprehension of it. We need to understand more about the "Call" than what we have ourselves experienced. Therefore, your committee, through a task group chaired by the Reverend Judi Smith, prepared a survey of the interpretations of the "Call to Ministry" by both pastors and lay persons. The results of that survey were given to each member of the Conference during 1978. Hopefuly it has assisted persons in their understanding of what it means to be "Called" and in counseling with other.

BIBLIOGRAPHY

We have also developed and provided for the pastors and through them, the local church coordinators, a listing of material regarding career planning. This information cites sources from which local church personnel may receive information in career counseling.

1979 PROGRAM

It is our thinking that the "College Caravan" should be held every other year and should be open to Senior High youth. Because a caravan was scheduled in 1977 none were held in 1978. A College Caravan is planned for the 1979-1980 school year. In addition to the College Caravan plans for 1979 include a Seminar on Ministry co-sponsored by the Committee on Career Planning and Counseling of the Western North Carolina Conference.

We continue to lift up to the pastors and people of Eastern North Carolina Methodism the importance of counseling youth regarding the high calling of professional church-related work. We also urge each pastor to emphasize the call to full time professional ministry on Ministry Sunday (September 16) and the importance of involving Christ in our vocations of Labor Sunday (September 2).

DIVISION OF CHURCH AND SOCIETY

Church and Society Has Compromise Report for 1979

The Division of Church and Society takes seriously its charge to study the social issues confronting church people and to recommend lines of Christian action in response to these issues. The Division is also sensitive and sympathetic to the delegates of last year's conference who were frustrated at not being allowed to vote on the position papers prepared by the Division. Consequently, our report this year consists of both "study papers" which will not be presented for a vote and resolutions on which we'd like to ask the delegates to vote.

The issues on which study papers have been prepared are not necessarily new; rather, some of them are old issues that have been bogged down with misinformation and/or have been poorly handled by various forms of the media. As concerned Methodists, you are urged to give further attention without prejudice to these papers, follow through on the suggested resources, and only then take a stand. All six papers were printed in The N. Christian Advocate in the Spring and copies are in the packets on "current social issues" and available in the literature room. Subjects of these papers are the equal rights amendment, increased AFDC payments, the arms race and the military-industrial complex, collective bargaining, human rights, and justice for criminals and victims.

Resolutions

The resolutions prepared by the Division are printed in the Book of Reports and are on subjects that have been widely discussed and on which we feel the delegates are ready to take a stand. These subjects are The Law os The Sea Treaty, The Salt II Treaty, the death penalty, the food tax, support for our public schools, and an increase in support for general morality.

A Citation

In the Fall of 1978 the Division got an unsolicited and unexpected but totally welcome bit of assistance from a member of the conference who not only preached a sermon on support of our public schools but also allowed it to be published in the Viewpoint section of the Sunday News and Observer. We appreciate the prophetic voice of the Reverend Rufus Stark and present to him a citation with our thanks.

On-Going Projects

In addition to the work of preparing the papers, the resolutions and the study packets, the Division continued its tradition of a study tour to the United Nations, New York and Washington, D.C. This year due to a decrease in the number of participants, Church and Society joined forces with the conference youth. The inter-generational tour poved to be such a good experience that it is being considered in the planning for 1980.

A continuing major concern of the Division is criminal justice and a need to increase visitation in prisons. We have been supportive of the position of the N.C. Council of Churches on presumptive sentencing but not at the expense of longer terms. Prison authorities have been vocal in their appreciation of the Yokefellow Prison Ministries and have urged increase in participation in established units and the creation of additional units. Our financial contribution to this ministry was increased this year and we stand ready and eager to help local churches get involved in this visiting program. We rejoice that North Carolina now provides 14 full time chaplains in its prisons, which is a 700 percent increase in the last four years; however, more are needed. Our dream is to fund a full time United Methodist Chaplain!

Since this is a legislative year, members of the Division have been busy keeping informed about current bills on issues we think church people ought to be speaking on. Through attendance at Legislative Seminars, membership in the N. C. Council of Churches and the State Council for Social Legislation, THe Commission on Social Ministries in the state, and North Carolinians United for ERA, we have kept informed. Through letters, visits to the legislature and calls on our individual representatives, we have spoken for the position of the United Methodist Church as voted by General Conference and printed in our Social Principles. We have not limited our concerns to local or stat issues and on a national and international level we have kept informed through our publication engage--social/action and IMPACT. We need all local church and society or social concerns chairpersons subscribing to these resources and using them in the local churches.

The training event for our Division members and corresponding local chairpersons will be held at Lake Junaluska in July, and we will be sharing the week with the Conference on Missions. The theme for our phase of the conference will be "Hinder Them Not..." The International Year of The Child and the Church's Responsibility. Our Division was well represented at Junaluska last year and we encourage all interested people to register for attendance in 1979. Brochures with registration blanks are available at the Church and Society table in the literature room.

We are pleased with the Attendance and particpation in our part of the January Workshops and anticipate greater response this coming January. 1980 will be an election year and church people need to know the candidates and prayerfully seek guidance as they prepare to participate in the national responsibility.

METHODIST MINISTERS CREDIT UNION

Seventy years ago the first credit union in the United States was organized in New Hampshire as St. Mary's Parish Credit Union. The credit union movement in the United States was born in a church. It was a parish credit union in Canada that inspired the Reverend C.

Eugene Hix, Jr. and twenty-four others to meet in First Methodist Church, Elizabeth City, on the second day of the Annual Conference to organize METHODIST MINISTERS CREDIT UNION. Those participating were: C. E. Hix, Jr., Clyde Boggs, H. M. McLamb, M. W. Warren, J. T. Greene, O. W. Mathison, W. A. Tew, Henry B. Lewis, R. E. Walston, T. M. Vick, Floyd M. Patterson, C. W. Robbins, W. A. Crow, J. L. Joyce, Kenneth Bars, Henry Ruark, W. L. Clegg, William Randolph Dixon, F. S. Love, J. M. Ormond, E. L. Hillman, J. M. Culbreth, Dwight L. Fouts, M. O. Stephenson, and W. F. Keeler.

When the meeting adjourned, they had paid to the treasurer $102.25 in shares and $6.25 in membership fees at twenty-five cents each. Ten had made payment of only twenty-five cents.

These men had a vision. They looked for a day when together the ministers of this conference would work out for themselves a better economic life by democratic association in common effort with their fellows.

This year is a long way from that November day in 1938. In years, it is forty-one. In members it is 1808. In assets, it is $1,086,837.55. In loans made, it is $7,118,566.07. The loss on all this loan activity is .00327%.

Methodist Ministers Credit Union--forty-one years later and over a million dollars larger is still dedicated to the ideal -- "Not for profit, but for service."

This is illustrated most graphically by the fact that the average interest charged on loans outstanding May 14, 1979 is lower than the interest charged for loans made in 1938. It is also evident when without an increase -- indeed, with a cut -- in the average interest charges between 1960 and 1979, the dividends paid have been raised from 4% per annum to 5½% annum compounded quarterly. The dividends are higher than is currently permitted by banks and most savings and loan associations. Added to the bonus of life insurance in relation to all insurable shares, this rate is unequalled outside the credit union movement.

Changing times always bring the necessity of changing services and policy. This year has been one of the most crucial in our history. Some of the changes are among the most far-reaching since 1960 when our rapid growth started. Let me share briefly some of these changes.

Effective June 1, 1979, life insurance has been increased to cover the first $3,000.00 in each insurable share account. The same ratios revail as when the maximum was $2,000.00. These are determined by your age on the day of deposit or June 1, 1979, whichever is latest.

Dividends are being paid quarterly this year for the first time. This will enable you to invest your short-term funds here where the rate is ¼% to ½% higher than you can get on passbook savings at banks and most savings and loan associations. These short-term funds earn life insurance for you while on deposit, in most cases.

Our field of membership has been changed to include "full-time" lay employees of local United Methodist churches in the North Carolina Conference. "Full-time employee" is defined as "anyone who works thirty (30) or more hours per week" and whose employment by the local United Methodist Church "is the principal source of earned income, excepting retirement."

This expansion has already brought a fringe benefit to some of the employees and the credit union. Pay-roll deduction has been offered by one of our larger churches. One of the lay employees and one of the ministers have signed up for the service. May this tribe of churches and employees increase. One pastor of a circuit of churches has the treasurer of the charge send in payment withheld each month for savings and loan payments.

Bank drafts will be offered to all members who do not have the advantage of pay-roll deduction. The draft can be used to save and/or make loan payments. This will be available just as soon as the forms can be printed.

On May 15, 1979 a multiple loan interest rate schedule was put into effect by order of the Board of Directors. The rates range from 11% APR, which is lower than the interest charged in 1938, to 15% APR, which is only 3.22% APR higher than the interest charged in 1938. The old rates of 9% APR and 12% APR had to give way to the tides of inflation if the level of service was to be maintained or increased.

This change has been well received. To illustrate: Your treasurer was chided by the first person to get "15% APR used car loan" as follows: "I don't see the 15% APR--I see the 6% APR you are saving for me. They tried to finance it where I bought it for 21% APR." It's even better compared with "29% APR" charged by another lender for a used car loan to one of our preacher's sons. The total payments on $700.00 borowed to buy a four-year old car was increased to $1163.16 by adding collision insurance ($25.00 deductible), credit life and disabiltiy insurance, and finance charge at 29% APR. The loan made by the credit union could have been repaid in the same time for a total of $768.42, where the finance charge would have been 12% APR, the physical damage insurance would not have been required, and the disability and death coverage would have been provided without charge as a service of our credit union to the borrower. Come let us serve you also.

There is another new service -- GOLDEN DEPOSITS. This is a limited issue of high yield deposits and is open to

1) Members who have a share account earning the maximum life insurance coverage
2) Churches
3) Other credit unions
4) The general public

This issue is limited by the needs of the credit union and, therefore, may be discontinued without notice. It may also be opened by action of the Board of Directors at any time. This offer is for "new" funds--funds not now invested in the credit union.

The limited issue of Golden Deposits is offered under the following conditions:

$10,000.00 minimum deposit of new money will earn interest at ¼% (25 basis points) below the money market rate of the first day of the calendar quarter of issue.

$5,000.00 minimum deposit of new money will earn interest at ½% (50 basis points) below the money market rate of the first day of the calendar quarter of issue.

These accounts are insured in an aggregate up to $50,000.00 per account by North Carolina Savings Guaranty Corporation.

Notice of any potential change in rate up or down will be mailed to the last known address of the owner at least thirty days prior to the start of the new interest period (calendar quarter) in which the change may take effect.

Withdrawal of golden deposits may be made without penalty on the first day of any calendar quarter provided written notice was received in the Credit Union office at least 30 days before the end of the previous quarter.

Golden Deposits may be withdrawn on the first day of any month upon the receipt of written notice in the Credit Union office at least 10 days prior to the end of the previous month and the forfeit of 2% (200 basis points) of the guaranteed rate for the time the funds were on deposit.

Golden Deposits earn interest from the first of the month provided they are received by the fifth day of the month. Funds deposited after the fifth day of the month will begin earning interest on the first day of the following month.

The yield is now based on the "Money Market" rate of April 1, 1979, which was 9.437%. The yield for funds invested in amounts of $10,000.00 or above is now 9.187%, and on amounts from $5,000.00 to $9,999.99 is 8.937%.

Stop by the Credit Union desk to get in the act while it is open. Help yourself, your church, your credit union, or get information for a friend. Help your credit union help others now. Let us keep the practice of service above the grasping for profit.

CHURCH MUSICIANS

Mr. President, members of the cabinet, and delegates to the North Carolina Annual Conference, it gives me great pleasure to stand before you this afternoon to report to you about the North Carolina Conference Chapter of the Fellowship of the United Methodist Musicians. A mailing list of over 800 musicians has now been compiled who make up our conference chapter. The purpose of this report is to inform you of our programs and activities on the conference level. As President of our chapter let me first begin by reporting that all our programs are self-sustaining; the costs of all programs are paid for by fees or financial support from program agencies with the conference.

First, Youth Music Workshop and Concert Tour, which is usually held the last week of June, has been one of our most successful programs. Youth Music Workshop has been held for the past nine years. It is interesting to note here that we are one of the very few annual conferences which sponsor such an event. In our Workshop we meet for three days of intensive rehearsing at Methodist College under the direction of a guest conductor. We then depart for a four day concert tour. In the past we have gone twice to Atlanta, twice to Washington D.D. where we sang at the National Cathedral, toured the Western Conference and last year we toured in the Eastern part of our own conference. Guest conductors have come from Wilson, Buies Creek, Florida, Raleigh, and last year we were honored to have Dr. Will Andress from Shreveport, Louisianna. This year we will tour York and Lancaster Counties in Pennsylvania under the direction of Marvin Burke from Pfeiffer College.

Children's Choir Camp was held for the first time last August at Camp Don-Lee. Dan Holland served as Dean. Laura Davenport, Roger Searles and myself served as the faculty. 40 children from the conference learned about singing, Handbell ringing and Orff instruments plus taking advantage of all the activities which are offered at Camp Don-Lee. This event has been scheduled again for August 15-18.

In December a Conference wide Day of Evangelism was held at the Civic Center in Raleigh. Music for this event was arranged by our Conference Chapter of Musicians culminating with a Worship service in which a mass choir of over 100 singers from churches with our conference sang two anthems accompanied by Organ and Brass plus leading the congregations in hymns and responses.

In February with the financial help of the Division of Worship and Dr. Robert Pullman, we arranged to have a Seminar titled: MUSIC AND THE PASTOR. This event was first suggested by the Division of Education. The Musicians felt it could really have some impact on our Conference and decided to plan for the event. Dr. Carlton Young, Editor for the Book of Hymns (Hymnal) was the seminar leader. The event held at Edenton Street United Methodist Church in Raleigh was attended by over 100 persons and dealt with such topics as the use of the hymnal, new responses and Worship, staff relations and the role of the Musicians in the Church.

The Conference Handbell Festival was held again in February. More than 15 choirs from churches in our conference attended this event held on the campus of Methodist College. This event, like Youth Music Workshop, is conducted by a guest conductor. Mr. David Hines from Grace United Methodist Church in Wilmington was the guest conductor this year. The one day event gave choirs an opportunity to learn new techniques, perform and play together in a mass ringing. The day culminated with a concert program during which a special selection titled "Meditation" and written by Mr. Hines was performed.

Annual Conference is always enlightening, entertaining, education and spiritually rewarding. Music has always played an important part of the Annual Conference Session. As you can see by the Conference Program, everyday begins with music and ends with music and is led by one of the Musicians from a church within our conference. The scheduling for the whole annual conference session has been done by Mr. Bill Hilderbrandt.

Besides all these conference events, the Musicians schedule three meetings a year. Usually they are held in September, January and June at Annual Conference. At our September meeting the membership voted to charter the National Fellowship of the United Methodist Musicians so that we can be recognized nationally for the work that is being done in our conference. Our winter meeting was held as a Workshop and covered areas of Children's Choirs, Adult Choirs, Music for pianists and Organists, and selecting appropriate music. Our June meeting serves as a reporting and planning meeting for the next year. Officers serve for a period of two years. Here we would like to offer a word of special thanks to Reverend Ed Morrison for the guidance and leadership he has given our chapter as Conference staff person.

Fifty-two weeks a year our churches are led by dedicated Christians who serve the church as pianists, organists, directors, singers, and instrumentalists and who seek to inspire us through the gift of music.

How many of Us ever stop to think of Music
as a wondrous, magic link with God, taking sometimes the place of prayer when words have failed us 'neath the weight of care.
MUSIC, which knows no country, race or creed, but gives to each according to his need.

Thank you,

Respectfully submitted,

William J. Weisser
Diaconal Minister of Music
President, Conference Chapter of F.U.M.M.

DISTRICT CONFERENCE RECORDS

The Committee has examined the district conference records, and consulted with each district superintendent. We find that each of the records will be in complete compliance with the requested outlines as published in the guidelines of the 1978 Annual Conference Journal, Vol II, Page 301.

We recommend the continuation of the same guidelines.

1. That official binders be used.
2. That current reports be in the front of the book, and that tabes be used to designate the years. There should be a limit of 4-6 years in one book.
3. The following reports should be included each year.
   a. Minutes of the District Conference
   b. The District Superintendents' State of the District Report.
   c. The attendance record reporting the number present from each charge as well as the total of laity and clergy present at the conference.
   d. A copy of the Book of Reports presented to the District Conference.
4. We further recommend that all records beyond six years be placed in the repoistory of the Conference Commission on Archives and History.

COMPOSITE REPORT OF CALENDAR YEAR 1978

This composite report from the Cabinet is a summary of the story written by United Methodist in Eastern North Carolina during the year 1978. The story cannot be told without reference to statistical information, but the more exciting story in that written upon the hearts and lives of the people of this Conference.

Methodists of the North Carolina Conference are people of sentiment, who cherish tradition, revere their ancestors, and commemorate in many dramatic ways a heritage rich in moments of glory.

Recognition Of Our Heritage

During the year 1978 there were many observances of special anniversaries. Perhaps it will lighten a rather serious report to review a very unusual event that occurred in Kitty Hawk of which 1978 was the 50th anniversary. 1928 was itself the 25th anniversary of the Wright Brothers historical flight. In the years between 1903 and 1928 the Methodists of Kitty Hawk had acquired as their parsonage a house where Wilbur and Orville Wright stayed during their days on the island. The pastor was especially proud of the distinction the house possessed and proceeded with plans to erect an appropriate marker to tell the story.

He solicited funds and has an appropriate monument erected. The unveiling of the marker was to be done with special ceremony. Now occurred a series of events so bizarre that in the hearing of them you don't know whether to laugh or cry. Every pastor here can identify with the frantic preparations of the pastor, who like Martha of Bible fame was busy about many things. How he did work on that yard! He put a match to the debris. The fire got out of hand and burned down the parsonage.

The celebrations of 1978 were without such mishaps. Bicentennial anniversaries were celebrated at Straits United Methodist Church; and Ann Street, Beaufort. Six churches observed one hundred-fiftieth anniversiaries, and 8 had centennial celebrations.

On November 1, 1978 twenty-four representatives of the North Carolina Conference joined followers of John Wesley from throughout the world in the re-opening of Wesley's Chapel in London on the 200th anniversary of its original opening. The event was described by the British Methodist Recorder in front page headlines as the "Royal Re-opening For Restored Wesley's" calling attention to the participation of Queen Elizabeth and Prince Phillip. Never before had British royalty worshipped in a Methodist service. By the time of the re-opening we in the North Carolina Conference had contributed $15,067.37 to this restoration of the "Mother Church of Methodism."

With this recognition of heritage let us look now at the preparation of our people for the future. In every District new buildings witness to our hopes and dreams.

Church Buildings

Three new educational buildings have been occupied during the year and seven additional ones are under construction. Educational buildings have been dedicated at Mt. Zion and Butner in the Durham District; at Community and Cameron in the Sanford District; at Hookerton and Washington: First in the Greenville District; at Clark Street in the Rocky Mount District; and at St. James, Newport in the New Bern District.

Five new sanctuaries have been occupied during the year and six additional ones are under construction. New sanctuaries have been dedicated at Cumberland, Bethabara, and Dunn: Divine Street in the Fayetteville District; at Bascom's Chapel in the Sanford District; and at Pinetops and Clark Street in the Rocky Mount District.

Eight new parsonages have been occupied during the year and three additional ones are under construction. Parsonages have been dedicated at West Burlington in the Burlington District and at Ebenezer in the Raleigh District.

Evangelism

There is good news in the area of evangelism in that we ended the year with 212,280 members an increase of 397. There is actually a gain since 1970 of 2,267. There is bad news in that we have dropped in every other category of reporting in the area of evangelism.

Yet we take heart in the net gain in church membership and remember that we closed 1978 with a great emphasis upon evangelism as 2,000 of us gathered in the civic Center in Raleigh to be inspired and challenged to ring doorbells, knock on doors, and tell people about Christ. This is a vital part of our heritage and we should remember with joy that 1968 union did not alter our historical statement. For our Discipline still reads, "The Methodist Church believes today, as Methodism has from the first, and the only infallible proof of a true church of Christ is its ability to seek and save the lost, to disseminate the Pentecostal spirit and life, to spread scriptural holiness, and to transform all peoples and nations through the gospel of Christ."

Conference Finances

In the area of finances we have done well. Three hundred seventy charges, or 68.65%, paid 100% of their Single Figure fair share apportionment. Ninety-four point nine percent of the Single Figure apportionment was paid, an increase of .6%. Receipts for the $10 Club increased 20% and the Grand Total for all causes was $25,244.51, an increase of 6.7%.

The North Carolina Christian Advocate

The success of the North Carolina Christian Advocate is cause for rejoicing. Circulation is now more than 25,000 with the total for our Conference in excess of 10,900. It is now a weekly publication - interesting, informative, and inspiring.

Separation and Divorce

The Cabinet has been troubled by the increase in instances of marital problems among those families that occupy our parsonages. This concern has led the Cabinet to develop a policy to guide District superintendents, clergy with marital difficulties, and their churches. Here is the, "Policy Statement of the Cabinet of the North Carolina Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church concerning SEPARATION AND DIVORCE IN CLERGY FAMILIES, adopted by the Cabinet on May 17, 1979.

"The stance of the Old Testament and the New Testament is that marriage is a lifelong and exclusive relationship. The position of the Cabinet is that the Church should maintain a stand in support of Christian marriage and the Christian home and should not accept multiple marriage as the norm.

"We recognize that broken homes and divorce are a growing reality among the clergy, but this trend must not set the pattern for acceptable lifestyle for clergy.

"We urge the Pastoral Care Committee of the North Carolina Conference to continue to minister to the needs and hurts of clergy, spouses, and children involved in marital difficulties; we recognize that the District Superintendent of the troubled family has special pastoral and counseling responsibilities in this area; and we recognize the responsibility of the Cabinet to emphasize the sanctity of the Marriage Covenant and to support high Christian standards in the area of marital relationships. We wish to avoid self-righeous, judgmental harshness and to share in a caring ministry to our clergy.

"In this context we state the following policy:

(1) Each case shall be considered separately and according to its own circumstances and needs.

(2) Clergy contemplating separation and/or divorce shall share this information with the District superintendent.

(3) The District Superintendent shall serve as Pastor and Counselor. He/she shall inform the clergy family of other resources for help available.

(4) In cases of legal separation and/or divorce the District Superintendent shall ask the Bishop to appoint and activate a committee of three District Superintendents. This committee shall include the District Superintendent of the troubled clergy family who shall chair the committee. One of the three District Superintendents may be chosen by the involved clergy family.

(5) The committee appointed by the Bishop shall work with the clergyperson, the clergy family, and the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee of the charge involved to prepare recommendations to the Cabinet. Recommendations may include:
   (a) Continuing the pastor in his/her present appointment
   (b) Moving the pastor to another appointment
   (c) Recommending a Leave of Absence to the Division of Ordained Ministry
   (d) Referring the case to the Committee on Investigation

(6) Follow-up counseling will be urged for those involved in such family crises."

CLOSING

Much unfinished business has been carried over into 1979, but it was a full and meaningful year reminding us that we belong to an exciting church. The United Methodist Church sets us a challenging pace. She offers us the opportunity to glorify Christ and to follow Him with loving enthusiasm. May God grant us the will and the way to obey His will and to follow in His steps.

In closing it is for me a happy privilege to express our appreciation to Bishop Robert M. Blackburn for his inspiring leadership, for his pastoral concern, and for his devoted ministry to the North Carolina Conference. In mid-summer of this past year the exciting news swept across our Conference that the Bishop was going to marry Jewel Haddock of Jacksonville, Florida. That marriage on September 8, 1978 brought to our Bishop a loving wife, to our Conference a charming first lady, and to each of us a warm-hearted friend. I would like to ask Mrs. Lee Commander to escort Mrs. Blackburn to the platform that we might present her to the conference, and this concludes my report.

John M. Cline

BURLINGTON DISTRICT

This report reflects the good work of the 48 pastors and 63 churches of the Burlington District. The three counties of Alamance, Caswell and Orange have 19,056 Methodists and is one of the strongholds of Methodism in our Conference.

Membership:

We added 216 by profession of faith and 381 by transfer. However, we have had a net loss due largely to churches removing members by Charge Conference Action. An example is one church that removed 195 members by Charge Conference Action. Our district is once again beginning to emphasize evangelism and we believe the trend will be reversed and show a growth from now on.

Finances:

This year the churches accepted a record high percentage of the Single Figure Apportionments - 97.5% and they paid out 100.3% of the Acceptances which perhaps makes them No. 1 in the Conference.

Building Programs:

During 1978 we had a large number of churches to begin building programs. It seems 'Bethel' is the magic name in our District since all three Bethel Churches began new buildings. These churches are: Bethel of the Cobb Circuit, Bethel of the Hightower Charge and Bethel of the Burlington Circuit. Haw River Church began an extensive renovation of their parsonage and West Burlington Church dedicated their parsonage. Cedar Clift Church dedicated their lovely church buildings. Two churches began work on sanctuaries to be completed in the near future. They are Saint Lukes Church who plans to move into their buildings in early 1979 and Friendship Church that began a $370,000 sanctuary. Shiloh Church is making plans to add onto their buildings a large number of classrooms. New Hope Church completed their buildings.

One of the exciting programs launched in late fall was the Pension Funding Crusade. Our District made a film using most of the Retired Ministers and Widows of our District. This film is to be shown in over 50 counties of our Conference. It is believed this movie will be a great aid in awakening our churches to the tremendous need for an adequate pension program.

I am grateful for the privilege of serving with the fine pastors and laypersons of our Burlington District. It is because of our dedicated laity and clergy that we are able to make this good report.

Barney L. Davidson
District Superintendent

FAYETTEVILLE DISTRICT

Membership

The net total membership in the Fayetteville District in 1978 was reduced from 18,074 to 17,961, a net loss of 113 members. This came about through a decrease in all categories by which members are received, and an increase in the numbers removed from membership in every category. We trust that in 1979, the reverse will be true.

Finances

A total of $2,303,019 was paid by the churches of the district for all causes during 1978. $425,927 of this was paid on buildings and improvements. The charges of the Fayetteville District in 1978 paid 100.12% their acceptances of Conference apportionment and 94.9% of the apportionment, a 2.1% increase over 1977. Thirty-three of the 47 charges paid at least 100% of the apportionment.

Building and Improvements

The following dedications of Church buildings were celebrated during the year: Cumberland Church. Also, Divine Street, Dunn, following the retirement of a large indebtedness involved in the renovation of the Church. Angier Memorial, Angier, was consecrated following an extensive renovation. The Angier parsonage was dedicated on the same day, the indebtedness having been retired. Trinity Church, Fayetteville, began worship in her new facilities on Raeford Road after worshipping for several years in a house. Johnson Memorial has put into use a $250,000 recreation center and is planning the construction of a new church building at the same site on MacArthur road, in Fayetteville. Roseboro church has a new building under construction and a fellowship hall is being built by Cotton Church. Haymount Church, Fayetteville, has occupied its new $750,000 Educational unit.

Programs

A significant event in the district was "Operation Understanding," under the leadership of Robert Bundy with great assistance from Barbara Wilkinson. Thirty-one lay visitors traveled to benevolent agencies supported by our Conference and prepared themselves to describe the work of these institutions in churches across the district. They were accompanied in visits to the churches by representative leaders from the general agencies of the Church. For four days at the end of last January, they met with groups in large and small churches of the district to bring a first hand description of the work of the Church beyond the local church.

Pension Funding Crusade

The people of the Fayetteville District have responded to the Pension funding Crusade with good spirit, most churches pledging over 100% of their fair share goals. Tabor Church has paid 100% of her goal and many churches are already beginning to send in significant payments.

It is with sincere gratitude that I extend congratulations to all the pastors and people of the Fayetteville District for their considerable accomplishments.

Paul Carruth

GOLDSBORO DISTRICT

It is a real privilege and a great joy to make my fifth report for the 58 dedicated ministers and the 15,063 Christian laypersons of the Goldsboro District. The year 1978 saw growth in almost every area of our church work.

Special Ministries

Inspiring worship services take place in our sanctuaries every Sunday and the Sunday Schools are growing. Much good work is done within the churches, but our churches minister not only to its members but to the community, the nation and to the world. The Jerusalem-Bethel charge offers tutoring for minimum competency tests in high school; Selma: Edgerton Memorial has it Sunday morning worship services "signed" for the deaf and classes for "signing" are held; Goldsboro: New Hope offers a ministry to the carnival workers during fair week by serving them breakfast each day and having the minister available for counseling, and this church also is permitting a new church of another denomination to use their facilites while they are building; and George Megill, a member of our district, is serving as a missionary in Brazil.

Membership

Our district has shown the largest net gain in membership in the five years I have served it - 183. We received 230 on Confession of Faith, 221 from other United Methodist Churches and 183 from other denominations. It was encouraging this year to have many churches report at the Charge Conference that attendance in Sunday School is growing. We feel that the United Methodist Church in our district is very much alive and growing and we look to the future with confidence.

Building Programs

The churches in our district spent $373,280 this year on their buildings. Goldsboro: Jefferson built a lovely new parsonage and Wallace bought a new parsonage at the cost of $70,000. Trinity church is constructing a new education building and Zion added two new class rooms to its education building. Corinth refurbished its sanctuary and Pine Forest, Smithfield: Asbury and Rose Hill have done extensive work on their parsonages.

Finances

For eight straight years the Goldsboro District has paid 100% of its Single Figure acceptance, but this year we failed as one church was unable to pay in full. Despite this we still led all districts in per cent paid on askings for Single Figure. For 1979 our churches accepted a little over 99% of the conference askings. In adition we accepted 83% of the asking for Ministerial Education, 43% for Interdenominational Cooperation, 63% for Black Colleges, 88% for Missional Priorities, 74% for Lake Junaluska and $14,027 for Advance Specials.

Appreciation

The work for Christ and His church being done in our district reflects on the outstanding leadership given by our ministers and the dedication of our lay people. The future looks bright and it is a real joy that I have in working with all these fine people. We would offer a special word of appreciation to Mrs. Edith Holloman who served for four years as district president of United Methodist Women. We will miss her leadership but Mrs. Betty Wallace, the new president, will continue to give strong leadership in this office. We would also thank our district lay leader, Jimmy Davis, and the president of the district United Methodist Youth Fellowship, Eugene Everette, for the outstanding leadership they are giving.

J. Paul Edwards,

GREENVILLE DISTRICT

This report summarizes the tremendous faithfulness and dedication of the 16,000 laypersons and 50 ministers of the Greenville District who make up the membership of its 69 churches. This is mostly a statistical record and statistics say little about things for which the Greenville District is well-known: cooperation spiritual growth, hard work, and delightful friendships.

Evangelism

We are happy to report an increase in membership of 95. Although this is no great growth, it is still on the upside at a time when the church generally has been on the decline. We hope for greater growth for our Lord in the months to come.

Lay Life and Work

Our laity have been busy with Kingdom enterprises through the UMM, UMW, UMY, the district lay rally, the no-silent program, as well as regular local and district programs. Our Lay Rally was a high moment in the year as Dr. David Flude preached the Good News in a most heart-warming manner. 37 churches were presented World Parish Certificates which honored them for accepting all Conference askings.

Finances

The Greenville District paid 97.6% of its apportionment for Single Figure. For 1979, all but 5 churches have accepted 100% of the Single Figure asking. Salaries were raised $37,512 over 1978.

New Church Buildings

Parsonages were renovated at Queen Street, Belhaven, St. James in Greenville, Westminster, Robersonville, Salem at Simpson, Mattamuskeet, Maury, and at Pink Hill. Fellowship Halls were completed at Webb's Chapel ($75,000), Stantonsburg ($100,000), and at Wesley Memorial ($20,000). An office suite was completed at Queen Street. $50,00 has now been raised for an educational building at Calvary in snow Hill. A Music and Media Center has been approved at Jarvis Memorial ($200,000), and new $45,000 organ purchased by St. James Church. the pipe organ at Farmville has been enlarged. We have had dedications of a fellowship hall at Bethany Church on the Kinston Circuit, an educational building at Hookerton, and a $350,000 educational building at First Church, Washington. First: Washington is also beginning a $200,000 to $300,000 renovation program of its main building. A steeple and organ have been dedicated at Noble's Chapel.

Commendation:

A special word must be said concerning Mrs. Clara Jane Hardee, our District UMW president, Frank Steinbeck, our District Lay Leader, Ralph Hardee, our District Treasurer, and the dedicated leaders of our district COM. These persons have given generously of their time, ideas, and energies for God and the promotion of His Gospel.

I wish to finally say concerning the pastors and laypeople of this district that they love the Lord and serve Him gladly.

District Superintendent

NEW BERN DISTRICT

I am pleased to make this report on behalf of the forty-five pastors and 16,360 laypersons in the New Bern District. We have had our victories and our setbacks in this past year of ministry in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Evangelism

For the third consecutive year, the New Bern District reports a net gain in membership. There is still much to be done in this vital area of ministry, however. We receive only one person into the Church by Confession of Faith for every seventy persons on our rolls. Each pastoral charge needs to plan a Confirmation Class each year. Many youth and young adults have never said their eternal "Yes" to Jesus Christ.

Church School

Whereas the church membership is increasing ever so slightly, the membership and average attendance in the Church School continues a slow, painful decline. The District council on Ministries held three Sub-District Seminars for Church School leaders and teacher in the Fall. The Church School was a point of focus in each Charge Conference. There is not short-cut to an effective Church School. There must be study, planning, and visitation on the part of ministers, teachers, and pupils.

Stewardship

The pastoral charges in the New Bern District took great strides in moving toward 100% acceptance of the Single-Figure Apportionment for 1979. Only six charges failed to accept their full apportionment for 1979. It is hoped that all 41 charges will accept and pay 100% of the Single-Figure Apportionment in 1980.

Building Programs

One of the manifestations of effective ministry in our pastoral charges is the construction and renovation of new buildings. The North River Church retired its indebtedness incurred in sanctuary renovation. The Educational Building at St. James Church in Newport was dedicated on November 19, 1978. In March of 1979 the note was burned for the renovations at Belgrade Church.

New parsonages have been built at Swansboro and at Jacksonville: Northwoods. These are lovely and adequate homes. Havelock: First Church purchased a very nice parsonage (complete with swimming pool). The Pollocksville-Lee's Chapel Charge purchased a very nice parsonage in Pollocksville. In addition to these new parsonages, plans for renovation and expansion of parsonages are underway at Atlantic and Core Creek.

A new Fellowship Hall is under construction at Asbury Church. An Educational Addition and Balcony Completion project has begun at-Jacksonville: Trinity.

Plans for a new sanctuary are almost finalized at Maysville and at Hubert: Queens Creek. Plans for an educational addition at Tuscarora have been submitted to the District Board of Church Location and Building.

We regret to report that Foy's Memorial Church has been discontinued as of December 31, 1978. The members have been transferred to the Shady Grove Church and the building has been transferred to the care and keeping of the New Bern District Trustees.

Lay Life and Work

The laity of the New Bern District are very responsive to the program of the United Methodist Church. The attendance at the January Training Workshop and the District Laity Ralley was very good (although it could be better). There are four special phases of the Lay Life and Work.

United Methodist Youth

The UMY of the New Bern District is one of our most exciting and effective ministries. There are very active sub-district programs as well as a most dynamic district program led by Kate Cooper, District UMY President. I am plesed that the New Bern District Youth are leading the Conference in support of the Youth Service Fund.

United Methodist Women

The UMW in the New Bern District is under the capable and consecrated leadership of Mrs. Charles (Peggy) Hill and her many coworkers. The UMW is the "heart" of the missional emphasis in the district. The women meet annually on a District and Sub-District basis. Their pledge to missions continues to increase each year.

United Methodist Men

The United Methodist Men are growing in the New Bern District with new groups being organized this year at Garber Church and the Core Creek Charge. A Retreat was held in the Fall of 1978 at Camp Don Lee. Tom Pace is our District UMM President.

Lay Speaking Program

The New Bern District has sought to organize its Lay Speaking Program along the new guidelines set by the Division of Lay Life and Work. Rafe Williams is the newly elected District Director of Lay Speaking. Twenty-seven persons attended the first 10-hour Basic Training Session held on March 4, 1979. Another Basic Session is planned for June.

District Council on Ministries

The New Bern District COM has met quarterly to plan the work of the District. Highlights of the plans for 1979-1980 are a Mission Saturation Event scheduled for April 1980 and an increased emphasis on Young Adult Ministry and ministry in the Small Membership Church. The Reverend Henry A. Brizzell, Jr. has chaired our COM this year.

Special Ministries

The Bogue Banks Ministry at Morehead City ministers to more than 3000 seamen each year. United Methodist involvement in this ecumenical endeavor is very significant.

Pension Funding Crusade

It would seem remiss to report on the activity in the New Bern District during 1978-1979 without expressing appreciation for the splendid support given to the Pension Funding Crusade by almost every Pastor and lay person in the district. Although the final reports are not in at the time of the writing of this report, I am certain that the New Bern District will exceed its goal by at least fifteen percent. I appreciate this faithful support.

Reginald W. Ponder

RALEIGH DISTRICT

It would be impossible to list in a brief report the many activities of the 64 churches of the Raleigh District. The following is a summary of our work during 1978.

Membership

During the year 1561 members were received into our churches, with 446 of these being received on Profession of Faith. The total church membership for the district on December 31, 1978 was 29,508. This represents a net increase of 469 members for the year. Our great concern is to have no barrren churches in the 1979.

Finances

The churches of the district paid more than 100% of their Single Figure Acceptance for a total of $596,057.00. The following amounts were raised for some other important cause: Buildings and Improvements, $230,00; GENERAL and CONFERENCE ADVANCE SPECIALS, $33,000; MINISTERIAL EDUCATION, $25,000.

Building Projects

Wendell completed and occupied an attractive new parsonage. A new educational unit and administrative wing was completed at St. Marks. Benson Memorial consecrated and occupied a beautiful new sanctuary. A new parsonage was dedicated at Ebenezer.

Lay Life and Work

The district Lay Rally was well attended. Dr. George Outen was the featured speaker. The membership of the chartered Methodist Men of the district totals 1105. The attendance at the Raleigh District Lay Retreat was the largest ever. The men of the district are developing a District Scholarship Fund for deserving students in our colleges. The District Conference this year was challenged by the Raleigh District Lay Leader, Dr. David Mustian, to use the laity of the district to the fullest capacity.

The membership of the United Methodist Women totals 3311. The work of this organization continues to be an inspiration to all. Mrs. E. G. Craig, District President of UMW continues to give excellent leadership.

The District Youth Ralley was well attended and the January workshops continue to attract increasing numbers of our lay people.

Outreach

One of the most exciting projects of the year was the decision of the Raleigh Board of Missions to begin a new church on Highway 50 North. This flourishing area will continue to grow and we anticipate this new appointment with great enthusiasm. A survey reveals other nearby areas where we might consider locating a new church.

I offer a special word of thanks and appreciation to the ministers and lay people of the district for their unqualified cooperation and support.

Warren B. Petteway

ROCKINGHAM DISTRICT

The work of the Rockingham District is the work of 16,396 United Methodists in 77 churches with 51 pastors in Robeson, Scotland and Richmond Counties. Two churches in South Carolina are also included in this fellowship. These United Methodists deserve recognition and appreciation for their Christian commitment and I am happy to make this report on their behalf.

Evangelism:

Received on Confession of Faith or Restored	246
Received from other United Methodist churches	187
Received form other denominations	98
Removed by Charge Conference or Withdrawn	83
Transferred to other United Methodist Churches	182
Transferred to other denominations	141

At the end of 1978, we had a net membership decrease of 75. It is our hope and our intent that a larger number persons will hear and respond to the Gospel in 1979.

Church School

Total church School membership decreased, but average attendance increased. Prospect Church led our District in average attendance with 392.

Building and Improvements

Bethesda is completing construction of a fellowship hall and vestibule. A new church at Philadelphus is under construction. Hamlet: St. Peter is completing construction of a new parsonage. Lumberton: Asbury completed a new fellowship hall and re-roofed the church. Mt. Olive purchased a building to be used for education and fellowship. Barkers fellowship hall is under construction. Improvements are underway or have been completed at Collins Chapel, Hamlet: St. Peter, Pembroke: First, Hamlet: First, Beauty Spot, Cedar Grove, St. John, Snead's Grove, St. Pauls and Zion. Buildings and improvements are anticipated at Wagram, St. Luke, Maxton: St. Paul, Mt. Zion, Walls Chapel, New Zion, Philadelphia, Cool Springs, Sandy Plains, Tabernacle, Rockingham: Glenwood and Rockingham: First.

Lay Life and Work:

The District Committee on Lay Life and Work is well organized under the capable Leadership of Robert E. Hutchinson, District Lay Leader. Bishop L. Scott Allen was preacher for a very successful District Lay Rally. The January Workshops were well attended and appreciated as was the Richmond Sub-District Christian Workers' School.

United Methodist Women

With a membership of about 2,500, the United Methodist Women of the Rockingham District paid $36,555 for local church and community work in 1978. Mr. J. A. Garner and her district and sub-district leaders are to be commended for their dedication and commitment.

United Methodist Youth

We are grateful to Julia Henry, President and Robert Atchley, Coordinator, for their leadership of our District Youth Council. It's been another good year and our new youth leadership will be challenged to continue the fine work already begun.

Special Programs

Our churches are responding very wll to our North Carolina Conference Pension Funding Crusade. We anticipate that we will exceed our District goal.

The Rockingham District is participating with the Conference Council on Ministries and the General Board of Discipleship in a pilot project in Leader Development. Two workshops for administrative boards were held last fall as a part of the process. Our hope is to enhance the leadership, lay and clergy, of our churches.

Appreciation

A word of appreciation must be expressed to the pastors and members of the District for their commitment to Christ and his church, and for their kindness to me and my family.

The leadership responsibility of the District has been shared by A. P. Hill, Jr., who serves as Chairperson of the District Council on Ministries and Herman Winberry, who serves as Chairperson of the District Committee on the Ministry. M. F. Grantham must be cited for his work as Chairperson of Trustees and District Treasurer. These and many, many others, make it a joy to be involved in the work of our Lord in the Rockingham District. Upon them all, we pray God's blessing forever and ever. AMEN.

ROCKY MOUNT DISTRICT

The following is the report of the ministry of 18,490 United Methodists of the Rocky Mount District and of the leadership of 50 pastors. It is a witness to God's grace and love as He has led His children through the year 1978.

Church of the Year Award

The 1978 Annual Conference paid honor to two churches of the Rocky Mount District by presenting the Church of the Year Award to Nashville United Methodist Church, Reverend J. Donald Phillips, pastor, in the category of churches with 300-1,000 members; and to First United Methodist Church, Roanoke Rapids, Dr. Thomas A. Collins, pastor, in the category of churches with 1,000 or more members.

Evangelism

The total full membership of the Rocky Mount District at the close of 1978 was 18,490, a net increase of 60 members. Average attendance at the principal weekly worship service was 6,119, and increase of 62. We are encouraged by gains in these two important areas.

Education

There was a decrease of 80 in church school enrollment and 15 in average attendance in the church school. 337 persons attended the January workshops sponsored by the Committee on Lay Life and Work to train church leaders.

Stewardship

On appropriations for single Figure totaling $386,495 the churches paid $367,833.03, thus paying 95.2% of the apportionments. The Grand Total paid for all causes was $1,748,550. Several churches had a financial canvas for the first time, the Pony Express program being used increasingly. Rocky Mount: Englewood and Tarboro: St. James used the Field Service, National Division, Board of Global Ministries for leadership in stewardship crusades with exciting success.

Missions

A Mission Saturation Event was held under the leadership of Reverend Ralph I. Epps, District Coordinator of Missions. Ten charges share in missionary salary support touching the ministries of ten different foreign United Methodist missionaries.

United Methodist Women

Under the able leadership of District President, Mrs. Roy Barrow, the 61 units and the 2,80ȳ members of the United Methodist Women overpaid their pledge to missions for the year by $24,000. Amounts paid by the United Methodist Women for local church and community work totaled $30,728. Six women from the district attended the Naitonal Assembly in Louisville, Kentucky. The District Spiritual Day Apart was held at Rocky Mount. Englewood with Reverend Al Simonton, Editor of the North Carolina Christian Advocate, as leader. The District Annual Meeting was held at Halifax United Methodist Church with Reverend Fred Roberts as speaker.

The Laity

1978 closed out the term of John J. Ferebee as District Lay Leader. His mantle has fallen upon Dr. Robert C. Frazier of Wilson: West Nash. Miss Lynda Owen of Wilson: First Church leads the youth as District President. The leadership of the laity is in able hands. 450 men belong to chartered United Methodist Men units in the district. Speaker for the 1978 District Lay Rally was Honorable Samuel E. Bundy of Farmville, N.C., member of the North Carolina House of Representatives.

Buildings

Pinetops United Methodist Church completed, occupied, and dedicated their $245,000 sanctuary during the year 1978. Major renovation was completed on the church building at Sims; the cost, $10,193.71. Renovation of the parsonage at Roanoke Rapids: First Church was completed at the cost of $45,000.

Ministries

Ministries by the local church are many and varied; they are carried on without any expectation of special commendation. Some areas where our people express their concern for the needs of others are: Meals on Wheels, swimming program for the handicapped, Bible literature program for migrants, classes for Mexican children, ministry to visually handicapped, providing fuel for the needy, food pantry, clothes closet, adopting college students from a local college, tape ministries to shut-ins, ministries to rest homes, and many other such ministries.

John M. Cline

SANFORD DISTRICT

The following is the report of the ministry and stewardship of the 45 pastors and 15,562 members of the Sanford District for the year, 1978.

Membership

Evangelism has been one of the main thrusts throughout the year and the results have been gratifying. When the final records are compiled we shall show a nice gain in membership gain. Emphasis has been given to getting the inactives back into the church relationships in a more vital way.

Finances

The churches accepted $279,947.00 of an apportionment of $301,055.00 and paid $279,400.60 on the acceptances; $47.41 on Missional priorities; $12,916 Ministerial Education Fund; $903 Interdenominational Cooperation Fund; $22,442.00 Great Hour of Sharing; $2,407 World Communion; $753 Student Day; $5,465 Human Relations; $5,010 Black Colleges; $4241 Lake Junaluska; $19,759 General Advance; $1,232 Conference Advance; and $3,600 Ten Dollar Club.

Pension Crusade was a glorious success! We accepted almost 175% of the request given. New Life has come to many of our church groups because of participation in this endeavor.

United Methodist Women has taken on a new life through the leadership of Mrs. Bert Matthews and her officers. New units have been organized and strength has been given to the various sub-district activities.

Buildings and Improvements

Ground breaking has been held at Brown's Chapel and Center. They are in the process of building educational buildings. Consecration Services have been held at McQueens and Cameron. Cameron soon completed payments on the educational building and dedicated it with Bishop Blackburn being the speaker. Robbins has completely renovated the parsonage. Many of our parsonages have been improved during the year.

United Methodist Youth

Under the direction of the Reverend Wesley Brown, the United youth are experiencing new life. The better organization of the district youth has been the result of his leadership.

Council on Ministries has attempted to follow the directions of the conference. A splendid planning retreat was held and much work has been accomplished under the leadership of the Reverend Arthur Winstead as Chairman. The Reverend James Miller has given us much assistance as Conference Council Representative.

Laity

Our Laymen have conducted a mini-training session in the sub-districts in an efffort to better train our laity. Six have completed the course of study and received Certification at the Lay Rally. Over 125 lay speakers from the district participated in the "No Silent Pulpit" program during Lent. The speaker at the Laity Rally was our own Reverend Harold Leatherman. His sermon centered on the theme of World Hunger and was enthusiastically received.

Missions

The Cause of missions has been before our people this year - as the financial reports reflect. Under the leadership of the Reverend Arthur Winstead, we have made significant progress in the renewed concept of missions. We are especially proud of the fact that Page Memorial has been the sponsor of a mission outpost church. A Native American minister, the Reverend Claude Dial has given great service as pastor there. We anticipate formal organization of the church in the very near future after 1979 annual conference adjourns. This church has been a leader in profession of faith additions during the year. A 10 acre lot has been acquired for the errection of a church building. We anticipate great things for this congregation. Much praise and credit must be given to Dr. Robert Pullman and the members of Page Memorial United Methodist Church in Aberdeen for sponsoring this project.

Subdistrict Ministers and Wives have been organized for fellowship and mutual sharing. We feel that much good has come from this effort.

It is a pleasure to have been committed to this work and to acknowledge that the Sanford District has some of the best ministers and laity in the entire conference. I am grateful for the joy of serving with them. We shall ever strive for better things.

Clyde G. McCarver

WILMINGTON DISTRICT

Churches in the Wilmington District took seriously the suggestion to do some GOAL SETTING in 1978. Many local church Council on Ministries met for all-day retreat-planning sessions, and as a result there is evidence of a greater variety of ministries being offered by our churches. Mission Studies, Bible Studies, Children's Church, Children's Extended Sessions for Study, Youth Retreats, Youth Revivals, Prayer Groups, Young Adult Fellowship Meetings, Teacher-Training experiences, Stewardship-Talent Workshops, Covenant Groups, Parent Education Discussion Groups, are just a few of the on-going classes and groups for learning in which our people have been involved. There was an increase of 381 special classes/groups reported over the 1977 report.

Buildings and Improvement

Old Dock and Clarkton have completed payment on their churches and are making plans for dedication services. Evergreen completed an educational building-fellowship hall, and Jordan's Chapel recently held ground-breaking service for an educational building-fellowship hall. Major improvements have been made in the parsonages at Hampstead, Carver's Creek, and Town Creek. Ocean View has sold their parsonage and in the process of purchasing or building a new one. Church improvements include extensive renovation and relocation of offices at Trinity, Wilmington, along with grading, paving, and lighting the parking lot. Purdie, one of the oldest church buildings in the district, replaced shutters and interior lighting, which turned out to be a unique experience because of the age and architectual style of the church, which was built in 1844. Burgaw, Bethel, Lebanon, and Windsor have made improvements in their buildings. Riegelwood purchased two and one-half acres of land back of their church for future expansion. Wesley Chapel is the proud owner of a new $26,000 church bus.

Laity

Dr. Jerry Paschal and Mrs. Leroy Mintz have led the activities of the lay people. United Methodist Women and United Methodist Men both show an increase in membership for 1978. The Lay Rally, during Lent, featured a presentation of "Susannah Wesley" by Mrs. Marion Conner, Jacksonville, Florida. The response of the laity to the Pension Funding Crusade has exceeded our greatest expectations. I am especially grateful to John Bullock, district special gifts chairperson, a Grace Church layman, for his fine leadership in this area. Working with him were James Thomas, Elizabethtown; Ernie Ford, Whiteville; Odell Williamson, Shallotte; Dr. Norman Anderson and Earle Merrill, Wilmington. The Wilmington District pledged a large amount in special gifts.

Youth

I would like to say a word about the young people in the Wilmington District. Among their activities was a Youth Revival at Grace, Wilmington, when more than 200 young people participated for four nights in a "J.C. Power & Light Event", involving youth from six Wilmington area churches. A number of our churches had week-end retreats, some combined with ski trips, others involving new sights. Among these have been Burgaw, Wesley Chapel, Wesley Memorial, and Wrightsville Beach. Fair Bludd-Cerro Gordo, Westview, pine Valley, and Wesley Chapel have outstanding youth singing groups. Grace and Trinity - Wilmington, young people participated in the Bell Choir Festival at Methodist College.

Statistics

We are happy that the Wilmington District membership showed a net gain fo 126 for 1978, bringing our total membership to 15,241. Although average attendance at Sunday School was better, we reported a loss of 242 students in our Sunday Schools. An area of outreach where we showed improvement was in our contribution to General and Conference Advance Specials. We are always grateful to other churches in the conference which include, in their giving, special projects located in our district, namely, our summmer Beach Ministry at Federal Point and Long Beach, and the International Seamen's Center, Wilmington. I am happy to report that in 1978, our giving was up in Ministerial Education Fund, Black College, Missional Priorities, $10 Club, and Lake Junaluska Development Fund. Total money raised in 1978 exceeded 1977 by $28,729 -- total money raised being $1,693,182.

For every improvement, large or small, whether it be in spiritual growth, mental searching, physical improvements, or financial support, we extend a word of appreciation and praise to the ministers and lay people who have caused these things to happen.

DIVISION OF ECUMENICAL AND INTERRELIGIOUS CONCERNS

Ecumenical and Interreligious Workshops Held In All District

For the first time in several years, a training workshop for local church Ecumenical Coordinators was planned and led by this Division in all 12 districts of our Conference. A total of 111 persons participated. The District E. I. C. Coordinators, assisted by the Reverend Lonnie Turnipseed of the New York office of the Division; Dr. Cecil Robbins, former President of Louisburg College; Mrs. Jean Jerome, for Division Chairperson; Mr. Henry Goodwin, a consulting engineer of Southport, N. C., constituted the leadership team.

About Those World Council Grants

This Division has devoted some of its leadership and finances to interpreting the much publicized and misunderstood World Council of Churches Humanitarian - grants to the Program to Combat Racism to the Patriotic Front in Zimbawe-Rhodesia. Information packets, prepared by the Methodist Division of Ecumenical Concerns, detailing the fact about this program have been sent to all District Superintendents, the Bishop and other key Conference leaders and pastors. Further information regarding this grant has been sent to all Conference pastors through a recent Coordinated Mailing.

Reverend Earl Dulaney and Mr. Henry Goodwin Attend National Workshop For Christian Unity

Representing our North Carolina Conference at this year's National Conference on Christian Unity, April 23-26 at Birmingham, Alabama, were this Division's Secretary, Reverend Earl Dulaney of Burlington and Mr. Henry Goodwin of Southport. They joined 500 other national ecumenical leaders including over 50 Methodists for 4 days of discussion, planning, and sharing. The previous two years, Reverend Ralph L. Fleming, Jr., Division Chairman and Reverend Terry Bryant, Division member, attended sessions in Pittsburgh and Tulsa, Oklahoma.

Our Apportionment To The North Carolina Council of Churches is $9,600 for 1980

This division continues its advocacy on behalf of our involvement in the North Carolina Council of Churches. Our Conference's principal ecumenical commitment is through our membership in the North Carolina Council. In 1980, the Western North Carolina Conference will contribute$13,000 to the Council's budget, thus making United Methodists the leading contributors. At this conference, we will introduce the new Executive Director of the Council. Dr. Thomas Collins and Reverend Ralph L. Fleming, Jr. are currently serving on the Executive Board of the Council. Mrs. D. K. Fry of Raleigh is the State President of the United church Women of North Carolina. This Devision is now contributing from its annual budget, the travel expenses of our 8 delegates to the House of Delegates of the Council.

Interdenominational Cooperative Fund - Interpretation and Promotion Underway

A new basic informational leaflet entitled "United is Not Our Middle Name", suitable as a local church bulletin insert is being sent to all pastors in the July coordination Mailing. This excellent piece provides helpful facts about our traditional Methodist involvement and commitment to the program and activities of the National and World Council of Churches as well as the Consultation on church Union, Religions in American Life and The General Commission on Chaplaincy, all which are supported by the one million dollars Interdenominational Cooperative Fund. This should be widely distributed in all our churches and especially sent to key Stewardship and Finance Leadership.

Copies Of The New Filmstrip "Weaving The Fabric Of Unity" Now In Media Center

Three copies of this excellent 25-minute film describing the whys and wherefore of the ecumenical movement are now available for local church use at the Media Center at the Conference building in Raleigh.

The Duke Endowment

On December 1, 1924, Mr. James B. Duke established a charitable trust known as The Duke Endowment. Part of the income from that trust was designated to be used for pastors serving rural United Methodist churches in North Carolina. By his own admission, Mr. Duke's life was greatly influenced by the church. The trust which he established as a result of that influence has done much to strengthen the United Methodist church in rural North Carolina.

In an effort to enhance the services already provided for the beneficiaries, the Rural Church Section of The Duke Endowment has made several significant changes during the past year. The first of these changes was the addition of an Assistant Director in the Rural Church Office. The new staff person's responsibilities cover the total range of programs provided through the Rural Church Section.

Two further developments have taken place through the Duke Divinity School. In an effort to build the Continuing Education Program of the divinity school and the continuing education programs available to rural pastors throughout North Carolina, The Duke Endowment has made a grant to the divinity school which provides for a full-time Director of Continuing Education. Also related to the program in continuing education is the newly-established Benjamin N. Duke Fellows Program which provides financial support to rural pastors who return to the divinity school for a period of intensive study.

One other important change has been made in the Field Education Program. The trustees have made available five student intern scholarships which will enable a student to serve in a field setting for a six-month intern period.

The Duke Endowment trustees continue to search for new and creative ways to support the United Methodist Church in rural North Carolina.

Division of Education

Increased Participation In Christian Education

Reports from 1978 show an increase in attendance in local church Christian education opportunities. Short-term classes reaches 23,343 persons, a gain of almost six per cent. On-going classes and groups for learning moved to an all-time high of 17,428

The Sunday Church School, the backbone of our various study settings, had an average attendance of 55,785, a drop of one percent --as small a decline as we have had in this decade. The total number of persons attending the events for study and learning has advanced to 96,556, the third straight year we have shown an improvement.

In focus on 1980 as the bicentennial of the Sunday School movement should help us continue in these growths. Help for your local church is available from The Reverend Robert L. Baldridge, P. O. Box 10955, Raleigh, North Carolina 27605.

More and More and More and More Use Made Of Conference Camps

The trend of heavier usage of our Conference camps continued in 1978. Each of our three resident camps (Don-Lee, Chestnut Ridge, Rockfish) report and upward swing in attendance.

The good experience at Camp Don-Lee with John Farmer serving as full-time director/manager (attendance up 31% over 1977!) has encouraged the Division of Education to secure a full-time director/ manager for Camp rockfish. Bob Pryor began his work there last month. Information is available from The Reverend H. H. Cameron, P. O. Box 10955, Raleigh, North Carolina 27605.

Leadership Development Offers Help For The Local Church

Over four thousand persons took advantage of leadership development events related to educational ministry in 1978. Eight Christian Workers Schools offered courses for 904 persons. At the Conference Leadership School, educational ministry classes were taken by 476.

An estimated 500 workers with youth took part in exploration of the curriculum for youth ministry. Teachers, leaders, and pastors (about 500 of them) attended workshops on Evangelism and the Church School. Vacation Church School Workshops and Summertime Learning Institutes gave help for workers with children. Youth Ministry Enrichment Teams reached into a number of churches. Special training was offered for leaders in young adult ministry. In January, 1416 persons took part in classes designed to strengthen educational ministry. Get information on new opportunities from The Reverend Robert L. Baldridge, P. O. Box 10955, Raleigh, North Carolina 27605.

Many Churches See Scouting As An Opportunity For Ministry

One-fourth of the charges in the North Carolina Conference have Scouting. The Division of Education has tried to give fresh direction to this emphasis by naming The Reverend William T. Cottingham III as Conference Coordinator of Scouting. At this session of Conference, we honor Troop 130 of First United Methodist Church in Morehead City, the first to receive the Bishop's Award for Excellence. Another significan't troop is at University United Methodist Church in Chapel Hill, active for sixty-six consecutive years. For assistance with Scouting, contact The Reverend William T. Cottingham III, Church and Liberty Streets, Durham, North Carolina 27701.

DIVISION OF EVANGELISM

It has been stated that we, as United Methodists, need to recover the central doctrinal certainties of our religious heritage. We must reaffirm and implement the concern that they had for the poor and oppressed. In addition to these imperative of the faith, we must confront the real meaning of the statistical losses and thus produce the moral enthusiasm necessary to cease defending our defeats!

Membership Growth Goals

Your Conference Division of Evangelism has looked at these needs and feels that Evangelism is crucially important to the recovery of these certainties. We, in the Church, are mandated by our Lord to love non-Christians, to share the great news and "make disciples". Everything else the Church may want to do for people and the community is dependent upon the effectiveness in Evangelism because all of our causes need significant numbers of devoted disciples. In keeping with the challenge presented by the SEJ Council concerning net membership growth goals of 288,000 by 1984, our Conference has set 19,000 as its fair share goal. While we are grateful for the increase in membership of 297 in 1978, it takes no mathematician to figure out that our churches must get busy in order to achieve a net gain in membership each year of 4,750 during the next four years. It is regrettable to note that the Warren J. Hartman study of membership trends in United Methodist churches reveals that in 1977-78, 503 churches in our North Carolina Conference had no confirmation classes. It is clear that we must move away from what Lyle Schallers calls the "cutback syndrome", and begin reaching out to bring more people into the membership of our churches. Those of us who attended the December, 1978 Evangelism Rally in Raleigh were challenged by our speakers to accept the responsibility to be committed evangelists. This will require renewed dedication on the part of both lay and clergy.

Consultants

This Division is pleased to report that we have trained consultants in the area of church growth. These persons will be available for local church, district and conference seminars, and workshop events. The securing of these persons would be through the Council Director's office.

Mobile Home Ministry

A very important area of need, which must be addressed by our Conference, is that of the "Mobile Home Ministry". It would appear that this is a fertile ground for evangelism. The last census showed 86,189 North Carolinians living in mobile homes which is 6% of North Carolina's population. One of the most challenging statistics lies in the fact that there are 1.7 children in mobile homes as compared to 2.3 in site-built homes. This Division is calling on the Division of Missions to join with us in developing a strategy for ministry to the mobile home courts within the bounds of our Conference.

Coastal Ministries

For the first time this past year, Evangelism has become the umbrella for the Coastal Ministries in our Conference. We now have five such ministries: Agape House at Long Beach; Bogue Banks, near Morehead City; Circus Tent, at Kitty Hawk; Federal Point at Carolina Beach; and Seaman's Ministry at Wrightsville Beach. Your Division has appointed a committee to work closely with all five of these coastal ministries. We would welcome any comments that you mayhave concerning these programs, and would encourage your visitation to these centers whenever you may be in their vicinity.

New Congregations

Statistics have proven in the past that the growth of the Church has related to the careful planning and locating of new congregations. We strongly urge the establishing of new congregations, both in the white and ethnic churches. Your Division of Evangelism is pleased to note that there will be one new church established at the beginning of this new Conference Year in the Raleigh District.

Evangelism, A Local Church Ministry

Time will not permit me to relate all of the many facets of evangelism that your Division has shared in during the past twelve months. Much of the enthusiasm and dedication to doing the work of an evangelist is and must be maintained in the local church. I commend those of you who have caught this vision and are fanning the flame started by our early Methodists who had a clear call to evangelize.

The objective which we must all have is a renewed faith in Jesus Christ, letting His Holy Spirit empower us, that we might go forth making new disciples in Christ's name.

Jack L. Hunter, Chairman

THE METHODIST FOUNDATION, INC. 1977-78

The past year, our 23rd, again reflects a very favorable performance for the Methodist Foundation, Incorporated. For the year ending December 31, 1977, net dividends paid to unit holders was $387,815...again representing the largest amount paid since our beginning. Our net growth in assets for the year was $360,369...representing $469,621 from sale of new units; $300,108 from reinvestment of dividends, $15,338 from a bequest received...less a market depreciation of investments of $334,250. Our fund at year-end had a market value of $6,130,497...compared to $5,770,128 at the beginning of 1977.

There was one investment policy change in that your trustees increased the percent invested in quality real estate mortgages from 25% of our porfolio to a maximum of 30%. At year end our mortgage investments stood at $1,502,694....or 24.5%. Since the year-end this section of the portfolio has been expanded to approximately 28%.

The directors of the Foundation have been advised by Hutchinson % Associates, actuaries for our pension fund, that the performance of the Foundation to date has exceeded the requirements for the satisfactory performance of the pension fund, thereby, enabling the Board of Pensions to increase the per service year pension rate by six dollars without requesting additional funds from the Conference.

We continue to pay close attention to the performance of individual companies and industries in the equity sector...gradually building up our holdings in proven companies rather than a further diversification of names. There was very little change in the fixed income sector of the portfolio. There is reason to believe that the coming year will reflect continued improvement in our overall performance and the amount of dividends paid.

DIVISION OF HEALTH AND WELFARE

Christians and church serve human need because thy must as the response of love and faith. This mandate becomes specific in at least five ways through the agencies of this division highlighted below. The North Carolina Conference spends $400,000 plus each year through these agencies as a "caring ministry".

Methodist Home For Children

The Board of Trustees and Staff of Methodist Home for Children continues to serve the needs of children and youth in troubled situations. While the study of future operations continues, the Residential Service Program in Raleigh remains a firm support program for children. The program is fully staffed and is serving 63 children and youth at the time of this report.

The Trustees will have a separate report for Annual Conference which will cover the study and recommendations for future service. In view of this, the above report is brief but representative of present activity.

Child-Care Study Commission

The Child-Care Study Commission of this Division has functioned since the December 1978 Special Session two committees: a Land-Development committee, chaired by Mr. William Stroud, and concerned with the best use of the Raleigh Campus of the Methodist Home for Children; and a Program Committee, chaired by the Reverend Vassar Jones, that has been concerned with developing in more detail the first eight points of the Child-Care Report submitted to the Conference in December, 1978. Both of these committees will report to this regular 1979 session of the Conference.

Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc.

Serving people and providing the highest possible quality of life is what your Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc. is all about. Currently at the Durham Retirement Home, the Coble Health Care Center and Wesley Pines in Lumberton, we are serving more than 350 members and residents in your name. Through your gifts and prayerful concern, we are enabled to be an extension arm providing a 24-hour day 365 day year ministry.

During 1978, we provided more than $300,000 in direct aid to our Methodist members, who because of the continuing inflation spiral, have found themselves with insufficient funds to cover the expenses of providing essential quality services.

Semar

Semar (Southeastern Methodist Agency for Retarded) has launched and EARLY CHILDHOOD SCREENING DETECTION PROGRAM. It is designed to detect mental retardation in children ages two months to three years. Since 80% of the brain's growth takes place by the age of two years, it is most important to detect any delayed development very early in a child's life. Early detection of a problem allows for a greater possibility of helping the child develop, as well as helping the parents cope with the problem. The screening can be done by persons with only a minimal amount of training and with very little expense.

All who are interested in obtaining more information on this program should contact Reverend Vassar W. Jones of our Conference or Reverend Robert Pitzer, 157 Forest Street, Atlanta, Georgia.

Golden Cross

Through Golden Cross, thirty-two persons were assisted with medical expenses during 1978. In addition, $5500 was used to support the Chaplain's Ministry at Duke Medical Center, and $3,000 was used to support the Good Shepherd Home for Alcoholics at Lake Waccamaw. See your pastor for details.

THE METHODIST HOME FOR CHILDREN: Report of Board of Trustees

On behalf of the Trustees of the Methodist Home for Children, we thank you for the opportunity to appear before this 1979 Session of the North Carolina Annual Conference. During this session, you will be considering many important matters. One of the more significant of these matters will deal with your child care institution - The Methodist Home for Children. Our purpose is to share with you what we feel is vital, factual, pertinent information so that you may make an informed and valid decision regarding child care by The United Methodist Church.

More than three years ago, the Division of Health and Welfare Ministries along with the Board of Trustees of the Methodist Home began to question if in fact the Home was meeting the needs of child care as they existed today. This resulted in the formation of a Study commission on child care. On September 21, 1976, the Trustees requested the appointment of a Study Commission on child care "to begin as soon as possible a long range study program of child care as a responsibility of the North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church." During the twenty-two months of study, one thing became very obvious - our existing program of child care was not as effective, nor was it as efficient, as it should and could be. What do we mean by not as effective as it should and could be? Simply this, we were still operating and rendering services in accordance with the concept and goals as established by the Home fifty or more years ago.

We have been operating a foster care institution, programmed to provide food, clothing, shelter, love, affection, and family-type guidance in a Christian atmosphere to children with no serious behavioral problems. The need of this kind of care has been constantly declining. The need now, according to departments of social services and our child care consultants, is for residential treatment. That is, institutions designed to handle children with extreme behavioral problems.

In the Fall of 1978, the Child Care Study commission completed its study and presented it to the Board of Trustees who accepted it in principle. We then requested the Bishop to call a special session of annual conference for the purpose of receiving the Child Care Study Commission report. On December 16, 1978, a called session of the conference was convened for the purpose of receiving and acting upon the recommendations of the Study Commission and Board of Trustees. These recommendations were nine in number:

1. That the Methodist Home for Children continue to be the service arm of the North Carolina Annual conference and its churches in aid to children and youth.
2. That the Methodist Home for Children consider changing its corporate name.
3. That the Methodist Home for Children develop Group Homes in the Conference.
4. That the Methodist Home for Children develop as quickly as possible a Department of Foster Care to promote, locate, train, and maintain a network of Foster Homes throughout the Conference.
5. That the Methodist Home for Children develop and sustain a program for the strengthening of marriage and the family and a program to reach troubled families with assistance that would enable the family to stay together.

6. That the Methodist Home for Children consider locating, building and operating a new Residential Care facility to provide for a maximum of 40 children and youth.
7. That the Methodist Home for Children shall consider providing Emergency Care for children and youth as part of the Recommendations in 3, 4, and 6.
8. That the Methodist Home for Children consider locating, building and operating facilities to provide for the care of mentally retarded children and/or youth.
9. That the property at 1001 Glenwood Avenue, Raleigh, North Carolina, be sold in order to make it possible to develop these new areas of service to children and youth.

The conference embraced and endorsed the first eight recommendations of the Commission report which indicated its commitment to child care and its dedication of support to the continued work of the MHC. The motion as passed by the conference read "We accept the report with the exception of Section 9 and the second part of the motion to sell the property and that the same committee report to the Annual Conference on the use of the property."

Acceptance of the first eight sections of the report gave definite direction to the Trustees to move forward with an expanded program of child care for the conference. The Board President appointed a Program Steering Committee. That committee has sought advice, input and counsel from Worth Lineberger, former administrator; Dr. Marvin Vick, Administrator; and Ralph Robinson, Assistant Administrator of Residential Care at M.H.C. The Board also engaged the services of Group Child Care Consultants of Chapel Hill. This consulting firm specializes in consultation services to child care institutions througout the Southeast. As a result of the report from the consultants, we now have under consideration a detailed plan for the implementation of MHC expanded program. First, MHC defines its specific area of service - what we are, whom we are capable of serving and how we will go about accomplishing our mission. In order to better serve the conference as a whole, we believe that group homes located throughout the conference would ultimately serve all areas more beneficially. The concept of group homes has received conference approval. The Group Child Care Consultants report, however, points out that while the group home concept is an appropriate second phase, most children destined for group homes need residential treatment prior to the group home environment. We, therefore, strongly believe we should re-direct our program from Institutional Foster Care to residential treatment. Group Child Care Consultants have prepared a preliminary model program for such a facility including staffing, job description, etc., to serve approximately 40 children. It is anticipated that residents of such a facility within a period of 18 to 24 months, would leave the Residential Treatment Home and move to a group home environment hopefully in the geographical location of their true homes. This would be the first step in the implementation of the Child Care Study Commission recommendations and will, upon accomplishment, bring to fruition Sections Six and Three of that report. The ultimate objective would be for a resident of the Residential Treatment Home to move to a group home and then back to their family. Realizing that they may not be able to return to their natural home, Section Four of the report which is "that the Methodist Home for Children develop as quickly as possible a Department of Foster Care to promote, locate, train, and maintain a network of Foster Homes througout the Conference" must be pursued with vigor. Review briefly, if you will, the services that would be provided by MHC - (1) Residential Treatment to (2) group homes to (3) foster care/or returning the child to their natural home. And, so you see, real progress and plans are being carefully made by The Board of Trustees to implement the report as endorsed by the conference. During this transition period, every child now in care will be provided for. Consideration will be given the other recommendations of the child care report as appropriate.

As we proceed with the new program - economic resources must, however, be considered - child care, as it exists today, is expensive. Recognizing this, the Trustees and the Study Commission examined the non-productive resources of the Home and recommended that the property at 1001 Glenwood Avenue, Raleigh, North Carolina, be sold. This was recommendation #9 of the Child Care Study Commission report. Perhaps this recommendation was improperly worded -perhaps it should have read that the property at 1001 Glenwood Avenue, Raleigh, North Caolina, be sold, leased, developed or otherwise utilized to more adequately generate revenue for the implementation and continued economic support of the Home and its related services. The Board of Trustees still strongly feels that this should be done! This particular resource, as it presently exists, has an appraised value of approximately 5 million dollars - 5 million dollars of resources generating absolutely no usable revenue whatsoever! As a matter of fact, the operation of the present facility, due to its age and obsolescence, is indeed costly and inefficient. What are the alternatives available in order to convert this resource to provide greater economic benefit to the MHC and its related programs? There are several:

1. Sell the property in its entirety.
2. Lease the property in its entirety.
3. Develop the property, gradually and methodically, for either sale or lease, or a combination sales and leases.

Alternative #1 - The advantage of selling would be the immediate conversion of the entire source to cash, providing capital for a new more modern and efficient Residential Center, with the balance generating additional investment income to supplement operations. On the other hand, a prospective purchaser might require full and complete possession prior to our new facility being ready. Above all else, we must keep the well-being of the children in mind as we choose the best conversion alternative. Also, due to the economy as well as size of property, disposal time is indefinite and could be quite lengthy with no interim proceeds.

Alternative #2 - Leasing the entire property offers continued ownership and investment income. There may or may not be any advantage to ownership at end of lease. Leasing, however, does not provide the initial capital for the new, more modern and efficient Residential Treatment Center. In order to secure the highest return on a lease, subordination of the lease to the first mortgage is often required. The Board of Trustees does not feel that any lease should be subordinated in any manner that could conceivably expose the property to lose, or involve the Home in taking over property located on leased land. With no subordination, the lease amount would be below current money rates - perhaps 8% maximum on realistic value. There would also be difficulty in incorporating adequate escalators to offset inflationary factors. Lastly, leasing alternatives or leasees might be limited to those establishments that are compatible with the conscience of United Methodism.

Alternative #3 - The development of the property, gradually and methodically, for either sale or lease is worthy of consideration. The "Highest and Best Land Use Study" which was conducted last year indicates this alternative should ultimately yield the greatest return. It offers both immediate capital via sales for new construction and investment income via lease. It could be done gradually, allowing ample time for new facility and program implementation. It also happens to be where the greatest immediate interest lies from prospective purchasers. We do have several very fine prospective purchasers and/or leasees who are awaiting the availability of the property. The disadvantage of alternative number three is that the Home becomes more involved for what might be several years in the ultimate conversion of the resource. This seems like a small price to pay, however.

So, there they are - the three alternatives - but there are other questions which we know have been raised and which we wish to address. For simplicity sake, however, we have chosen to put these in question and answer form.

#1- Why not continue to use a portion of the property and sell, lease or develop the balance? The Trustees have considered this. Example #1 assumes retaining nine acres adjacent to the Methodist Building. The capital outlay would be approximately $2,549,997. This values the land at $749,997 which is our best estimate at this time. These same facilities built on 9 acres on the outer edge of Raleigh where land may be secured for approximately $10,000 per acre gives a capital outlay of $2,104,666. You can see the cost is approximately $445,331 more to stay on our present property. In addition, the presence of this facility on the property would reduce the value of the remaining property - realtors estimate this reduction to be in the area of 5% or $212,000. Example #2 shows that it would be $23,000 cheaper to stay on the existing location, but keep in mind the age of the four existing buildings. If we value these old buildings at half the value of new buildings, it will be $377,000 cheaper to move to a new site. Realtors tell us that use of land as illustrated in example #2 would devalue the remaining property by approximately 25% or approximately 1 million dollars.

We can remain at the present location but this is the price we will have to pay.

#2- What are the tax consequences of selling versus leasing or developing? The Trustees contacted the Internal Revenue Service seeking advice and counsel on several approaches. The Service advised us that they would issue a ruling only on a specific transaction. They did, however, advise the following: "As a matter of general information, an organization exempt from Federal income tax under section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code may sell all or a portion of its assets without jeopardizing its tax-exempt status provided that the proceeds from such a sale are used exclusively in furtherance of the organization's exempt charitable purposes. The leasing of an exempt organization's property, in whole or in part, might not jeopardize the organization's tax-exempt status but may subject the organization to the tax on unrelated business taxable income imposed by section 511 of the Code. The participation by a tax-exempt organization in a joint venture with a profit-making organization for the purpose of developing the exempt organization's property for future rental use may jeopardize the organization's tax-exempt status under section 501 (c) (3) of the Code."

Rest assured the Trustees will have due regard for any action as it may relate to our tax status.

We've been discussing MHC's non-productive resources.

#3- What other resources does the Home possess? Basically, the Home has four trust funds which have accumulated over the years from gifts and legacies. The General Endowment Fund, which is the only unrestricted fund, amounted to $2,638,000 as of December 31, 1978. Three of the funds are restricted and, as of December 31, 1978, the balances were:

Scholarship and Loan Fund of $371,882.00
Permanent Improvement Fund $109,626.00, and Building Fund 597,367.00

Earnings on the restricted funds accrue to the respective fund. Earnings on the General endowment Fund accrue to that fund and the Home presently uses $135,000 each year from the fund toward its operating budget. It is the Board's feeling that use of any of the principal of the General Endowment Fund could adversely affect operating income in the future and should be avoided. Principal from the Building Fund capital could, however, be invaded, if necessary.

#4- What is the MHC Budget and how is it funded? The 1979 budget is $847,222. It is funded:

By Governmental Agencies $232,000
Organizations $345,000 ($300,000 of which is received from the N. C. Conference)
Individuals $29,200
Sponsor Programs $35,500
Other - Primarily earnings on investments $205,522

#5- Who owns the property at 1001 Glenwood Avenue and why not transfer to another church agency? Ownership of the property vests in The Methodist Home for Children, Inc., a separate legal entity, but an agency of the N. C. Conference of the United Methodist Church. Trustees of the Home hold the property in trust for MHC. As such, they are fiduciaries and accountable for the preservation of the Home's assets. Transferring assets to anyone without full and adequate consideration would, in our opinion, be in violation of a Trustee's duty and might expose the respective Trustee to personal liability. Should the conference desire to take possession of the property and transfer it to another agency, then MHC should be dissolved and its assets turned over to the conference for their disposition.

#6- Should the property ultimately be leased or partially leased and partially sold, who would have control over the architectural design of buildings and improvements? The Board of Trustees of M.H.C.

#7- What is the estimated cost per child per day at MHC? Figures furnished by Duke Endowment show this to be $26.93 per day per child.

#8- What are estimated costs per child per day in a Residential Treatment Home? $50.00 per day per child.

#9- What are estimated costs per day in a Group Home? $39.00 per day per child.

#10- With the new proposed program under consideration, what is the best operating budget estimate for the next few years? Keep in mind the intent is to gradually reduce enrollment to approximately 40 children who have need for Residential Treatment, not Institutional Foster Care. With this in mind, we anticipate operating budgets approximating the 1979 budget.

#11- Where will the new facilities be located? We feel a Residential Center should remain in the Raleigh area. By so doing, we have the benefit of professional services so vital to this type operation from the close proximity of the three universities. Group home location cannot be definite at this time but should be as near to the children's natural home as economic factors and utilization of the facility would allow.

#12- What happens to the children presently at the Home during a transition program? Present residents take priority over all decisions. some of them would be occupants of our first group home; others who may be in need of treatment will remain. MHC will continue to provide for their present residents.

#13- Has a real estate firm been selected to represent the Home should disposition of the property ultimately be decided? Yes the firms of Charles Bradshaw and Charles Gaddy have been chosen. These firms did the Highest and Best Land Use Study. they are more familiar with the property than anyone else. They are leading local, as well as regional, realtors and they have very graciously assisted the Board in exploring higher and better utilization of the property. They have also entertained offers from interested purchasers or leasees, fully realizing that nothing could be consummated pending an ultimate decision on utilization. Now may we ask you a question?

How can the MHC continue to solicit financial aid and support from the conference and others if, at present, it is utilizing its resources unwisely?

We do not come here today recommending specifically that the property be sold. We do not come here today recommending specifically that the property be leased. The Board of Trustees, with concurrence of the Child Care Study Commission, does seek your concurrence in the utilization of this asset. This could mean the sale of portions of the property, the leasing of portions of the property, or both. It could mean the sale or lease of all the property. Frankly, we do not feel that any Board should be restricted to any specific type of disposition or management of assets but, rather, that it be charged with administering assets in such a manner as that Board feels are the most prudent and financially responsible under the circumstances, conditions, and opportunities as presented.

To you, the delegates to the 1979 session of the North Carolina conference of the United Methodist Church, we come today seeking your concurrence and confidence in allowing the Board of Trustees of The Methodist Home for Children to administer the Home's assets in such a manner as the Board feels are the most prudent and financially responsible under the circumstances, conditions and opportunities as may be presented.

(Editor's Note: A resolution concerning the Methodist Home For Children appears in Group C, Resolutions.)

THE METHODIST RETIREMENT HOMES, INC.

Representing "An Opportunity To Continue" in cooperative retirement, your extension ministry to the older and predominantly Methodist citizens of Eastern North Carolina has provided home, happiness and health care for more than 425 persons during the 1978 calendar year.

Serving people and providing the highest possible quality of life is what your Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc. is all about Currently at the Durham Retirement Home, the Coble Health Care Center and Wesley Pines in Lumberton, we are serving more than 350 members and residents in your name. Through your gifts and prayerful concern, we are enabled to be an extension arm providing at 24 hour day 365 day year ministry.

Unlike many agencies of society, the demand for our services and facilities far exceeds our capacity at any given time. The campus style of cooperative living is decidely an idea whose time has come and will remain....ever growing....into the 21st century. Indeed, retirement for senior citizens and senior health care is in a period of ministry that represents endless potential growth and tremendous need. To this end the Long Range Planning Committee of our Board of Trustees urges you to join in the vision to look toward the future and to think about the need and the possibilities for a wider ministry to the aging within our Conference.

We express our abiding appreciation for the funds that your Homes receive through the single figure apportionment of the Church. Our Board of Trustees, Staff and Members want you to know that every dollar provides direct benevolent assistance to the Methodist members from our Conference. These funds are used for this purpose alone and with additional gifts and thoughful remembrances in wills and through bequests we would have found it difficult to achieve the real benevolent mission that you have rightly expected of us. During 1979 we provided more than $300,000 in direct aid to our Methodist members, who because of the continuing inflation spiral, have found themselves with insufficient funds to cover the expenses of providing essential quality services. We actively need your understanding of the growing need for benevolent funds, we prayerfully seek your gifts, and we solicit your prayerful concern. Never hesitate to contact the Executive Director or one of the Administrators for materials about The Homes and the applications for membership. Remember, your Homes are always open for your visitation. We invite you to come and see us and to talk with us about the role you can play in ministry. We are at your service.

Highlights of the years work include:

... achievement of growth to make for optimum use of the newer Wesley Pines facility

... careful stewardship in the filling of the Durham Retirement Home and the optimum bed usuage within the Coble Health Care Center

... continued cooperation in the Deferred Giving Program and a renewed activity of the Special Gifts Committee of the Board of Trustees

... substantive progress toward certification of our Retirement Home and Health Care Center facilities by the National Division of Health and Welfare Ministries

... employment of a full time staff person as coordinator of volunteer services and public relations

To testify to this, a copy of our annual audit is in the office of the Conference Treasurer, with the Executive Director, with each Administrator and you are invited to review it.

We would be remiss if we did not tell you how much we depend upon the experience, expertise, and countless hours contributed by our dedicated Board of Trustees and by the local Committees for the Durham and Lumberton facilities. we salute them and express our continuing appreciation for their devout concern and their tireless and most competent help.

If you have any questions, or if we can be of any service to you, please do not hesitate to get in touch with the Executive Director or the Administrators of the Durham Retirement Home and the Wesley Pines Home in Lumberton.

Again, we ask you to visit your Homes so that you can see what they are doing. Thank you for your continued interest and growing support of this arm of your extension ministry in the name of Jesus Christ.

DIVISION OF HIGHER EDUCATION

Our Conference Colleges

Louisburg College, Methodist College, and North Carolina Wesleyan College receive all of their support from our conference. We commend the president and faculty of each of these fine institutions for their outstanding work; and we urge our Methodist Youth to give serious consideration to attending one of these fine institutions.

College Monitoring Committee

The College Monitoring Committee will make a full report to our conference in 1980. In the meantime, the College Monitoring Committee and the college presidents keep the Division posted on the progress, enrollment, and indebtedness of each institution. Below is a report on the colleges which receive funding from our conference:

College	Full-Time Equivalent Enrollment	Boarding Students	% of Dorm Utilization	Total Cost Per Student	Number of 1978 Graduates
High Point	997	627	81%	$3,335,00	238
Louisburg	679	591	98%	$2,956.00	135
Methodist	778	301	43%	$3,360.00	116
NC Wesleyan	621	323	72%	$3,290.00	156
Greensboro	602	472	90%	$3,655.00	122

Duke Divinity School

There are 350 full-time and 34 part-time students in the Divinity School. This is a 5% increase in enrollment. 72.4% of the students are Methodists and come from 43 of our 73 Annual Conferences. Fifty-six (56) or 15% of the student body are from the North Carolina Annual Conference.

Blackburn Scholarship

The Blackburn Scholarship was established in 1976 to honor Bishop and Mrs. Robert M. Blackburn. We are presently receiving a little better than $2,000 annually in interest from this fund. Our goal is to increase the principal, so that we may award $4,000 annually. Contributions from individuals or churches may be sent to Mr. Charles McAdams, P. O. Box 10955, Raleigh, N. C. 27605. Recipients of the Blackburn Scholarship must demonstrate deep Christian commitment, be an active member of a local United Methodist Church within the bounds of our conference, and plan to attend one of our Methodist Colleges. Present funds allow us to award $1,000 in the freshman year, $500 in the sophomore year, and $250 in the junior and senior year, or a total of $2,000 for four years. Applications are limited to entering freshmen and should be sent to Reverend Sam H. Brown, P. O. Box 220, Hope Mills, N. C. 28348 by April 1. Application forms come in the Coordinated Mailing and each local church is encouraged to have qualified youth to apply. Our recipients have been: Suzanne Inabnit, 1977-78; Jeneal Whorton, 1978-79; and Paul Stark for 1979-80.

Ministers-In-Residence

Ministers from our conference provide a "Ministers-in-Residence" program for Louisburg College, Methodist College, and North Carolina Wesleyan College. Pastors interested in participating in this ministry are invited to make arrangements through their District Superintendent.

The Regional Commission On Campus Ministry

The Regional Commission on Campus Ministry is made up of representatives from the North Carolina and Western North Carolina Conferences. We are making substantial increases in our financial support to the campus ministry across North Carolina , so that we may move to the place that we are paying 40% of the total cost. Our campus ministers report a good response by students on the 13 campuses where our ministry is offered.

The Black College Fund

We urge all local churches to accept their Black College Fund asking in full. Our total conference asking for 1978 was $113,746 and our total acceptance was $70,505, an increase of $4,567 over the previous year. We must increase our support significantly if we are to upgrade the work at the colleges. You will be interested to know that Bennett College in Greensboro received $274,164 from the Black College Fund in the most recent year for which we have figures. Your support of the Black College Fund will help Bennett and other fine schools do an even better job of educating our youth.

REPORT OF THE JOINT ADVISORY COMMITTEE ON HIGHER EDUCATION

The Joint Advisory Committee on Higher Education is composed of ten representatives from each of the annual Conferences of North Carolina, appointed by the respective Bishops. Bishop L. Scott Allen and Bishop Robert M. Blackburn, together with Dr. A. Mitchell Faulkner, Director of the Western North Carolina Conference Council on Higher Education, serve as ex officio members. The Joint Advisory Committee was created at the beginning of this quadrennium to study and advise the two Annual Conferences with respect to all areas of common interest in higher education. This applies particularly to such matters as affect Methodist institutions and students in North Carolina.

For the past two years, the committee has given attention to a study on Ministry to Campus. A subcommittee with Dr. Charles H. Mercer as Chairman, was assigned to examine and evaluate present programs, models, and trends in Campus Ministry. It was instructed to relate these concerns to a rationale of the United Methodist church's program of Campus Ministry. Out of this study, the subcommittee was directed to prepare a set of recommendations which might be expected to guide our conferences in their involvement in Campus Ministry until the end of this Century.

Dr. J. H. Ostwalt served as director of the study and guided the preparation of the report. Upon its completion, the report was submitted to the Joint Advisory Committee which has examined it and has voted its approval. It now submits the report to the 1979 sessions of the North Carolina and Western North Carolina Conferences. In so doing, it wishes to express its profound gratitude for the tireless work of the subcommittee and for the leadership of Dr. Mercer and Dr. Ostwalt.

REPORT OF THE REGIONAL COMMISSION FOR CAMPUS MINISTRY IN NORTH CAROLINA

The Regional Commission for Campus Ministry in North Carolina is glad to report that campus ministry in North Carolina is thriving. There is a good response by students to the services offered by our campus ministry units, located on 13 campuses. Students are invited to worship, participate in Christian growth groups, work in inner-city mission programs, participate in programs on prayer and meditation, engage in Bible study, and struggle to find Christian community on the college campus. Programs with faculty have been offered which help faculty talk about ethical dimensions of their teaching and research and how the university can better serve the community. In some places students, faculty, and campus ministers are involved in cutting wood for the poor; visiting prisons; leading programs at hospitals for the retarded; participating in worship services in several local churches. The challenges for ministry on our college campuses are great, and our United Methodist Campus Ministries are glad to be involved as witnesses to the Good News there.

In the past year each of our campus ministers have been evaluated by the Personnel Commitee of the Regional Commission. This evaluation was done by local board members and reviewed with each campus minister by the Personnel Committee. There have been hard decisions about funding with struggles to balance program funds and facility funds. There have been some badly needed improvements in the level of financial support which comes from each Annual conference. Although program funding for 1979 had to stay at 1978 levels, there is assurance that by 1981 both Conferences will be supporting the work of the Regional Commission at its fair share level and helping aleviate funding shortages.

The Campus Minister at Appalachian State University resigned his position as of June, 1979 and a search committee is to recommend his replacement by Annual Conference. The Regional Commission is appreciative for the fine work done by all the campus ministers which we United Methodists support. We are grateful to both Annual Conferences for your vision and care for campus ministry in North Carolina.

DIVISION OF LAY LIFE AND WORK

Record Attendance At January Workshops

3,461 local church officers attended the 13 classes offered. The Division is pleased that this officer training program is so well received. Attendance in previous years has been: 2,650 in 1975; 3,065 in 1976; 3,371 in 1977.

Interest In Lay Speaking Is On The Rise

There is renewed interest across the Conference in this program which now emphasizes service opportunities in the local church and community rather than filling empty pulpits. 46 Persons attended a basic course at conference Leadership School last August, and both basic and advanced training will be offered at the 1979 CLS. Several districts have held training courses and there is a supervisory organization at both the district and conference levels. New resources have been printed by the Board of Discipleship.

United Methodist Men Made A Priority

The Division has sought to strengthen United Methodist Men's Fellowships across the Conference. Membership has increased from 5, 638 in 1977 to 6,284 in 1978. A class was provided at CLS and over 300 men attended a rally on Saturday, October 14 in Goldsboro. A rally is also scheduled for Saturday, October 13, 1979. The booklet from the Resources System for the Local Church is a great organizational and program help.

Lay Rallies

The 1978 District Lay Rallies were noted for their creative programs. The Goldsboro District rally featured a drama on the Bible and performed by players from the area under the direction of Richard Williams, Smithfield, NC.

Lay Person Of The Year

Rick Bryant, a young adult from St. James UMC, Tarboro, was the 1978 Lay Person of the Year. Rick, elected delegate to the 1976 General Conference, was a member of the Conference Division of Missions and served as a missions interpreter. He served as a member of the General Church Board of Global Ministries and was a member of the 1978 Conference Bolivia workteam.

DIVISION OF ORDAINED MINISTRY

Ordination Service For Deacons And Elders

A high moment for any Annual Conference Session is the time for the ordination of its ministry. This year, the Division of Ordained Ministry will present a total of 21 men and women to be ordained a Deacon and 25 men and women to be ordained an Elder. Although a smaller group than the record numbers ordained last year, this year's class of ordinands represents both sexes and all three racial groups found within the Conference. There will be 24 persons presented for Probationary Membership, beginning their journey towards a full relationship with the Conference, and two persons presented for Associate Membership. The group of 26 persons presented for Full connection includes the final probationer received through the Course of Study program. After this year, all members in Full Connection must be seminary graduates in order to meet the membership requirements.

Continuing Education

Every United Methodist minister is expected to take time during each church year to be involved in some program of growth and stimulation to enhance his/her ministry. The Division is appreciative of the support that most local congregations are giving to assist this process on the part of their pastor. Spring and Fall Institutes at the Duke Divinity School and the Bishop's Seminar on Preaching provide the opportunities for the largest number of ministers to participate, but $100 scholarships have been provided for a number of other opportunities for individualized study and training.

Pastoral Care

The family life of the minister is one of the most important ingredients of the well-being required for effective service to the local church. Strain and stress are as much a part of the minister's family experience as they are within the homes of the parish. When overwhelming circumstances call for specialized professional counseling for any or all of the members, financial assistance is available on an anonymous basis, and approximately 25 have benefited from this aid during the past year. Marriage enrichment opportunities for clergy families are being planned on a district level for the coming year.

Ministerial Education Fund Assistance

Contributions from local churches to the Ministerial Education Fund during 1978 increased to nearly $185,000.00. The North Carolina Conference retains one-fourth of this fund to provide scholarship assistance for college and seminary students preparing for ministry in our Conference. During the 1978-1979 school year, 69 students were given grants from the Ministerial Education Fund, 14 on the college level and 55 on the seminary level, to a total of $49,560.00. Additional amounts were made available to the Committee on Continuing Education for programs of training and study for ministers who have already completed their formal educational process.

Herman S. Winberry,
Chairperson

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON CONTINUING EDUCATION

"Continuing education in ministry is a multi-faceted opportunity for growth, personal development, learning at different levels, up-grading of skills and on-going enrichment." Continuing education for ministry is a personally designed process for individuals to meet their own goals for achieving competency in the practice of christian ministry.

Other professionals, doctors, lawyers, accountants, teachers, and the like, take time from their busy schedules to engage themselves in the process of continually up-grading the skills needed for the competent practice of their chosen profession.

Let us all be reminded of the challenge of the 1976 DISCIPLINE in paragraph 424.3 —"Pastors shall be asked by the District Superintendent in the charge Conference to outline their continuing education for one year. The District superintendent shall also ask the local church to describe its provisions for time and financial support for the pastor's continuing education. We ask that local church committees on Pastor-Parish Relations and Finance include sufficient funds in local church budgets to provide annually for their pastor's program of continuing education.

It is the purpose of this committee to provide events, direction, and some financial support for the continuing education of our pastor of rural churches. The Continuing Education Center of Duke Divinity School provides some limited scholarship aid. And your Committee on Continuing Education makes careful use of funds budgeted by the Division on Ordained Ministry.

Since our last Annual Conference your committee has approved more than 100 grants for 28 separate and different events, totaling more than $10,000. Some of these events were: Management for Ministry at Lake Junaluska, Family Life Conference at Lake Junaluska, Spring Institute for Ministry at Duke Divinity School, Fayetteville District Seminar for Ministry at Duke Divinity school, Re-Opening of Wesley's Chapel, London England, Study Tour of Mexico, Convocation of Churches with Small Membership at Lake Junaluska, and events at the Intentional Growth Center at Lake Junaluska.

We are now looking at several events which will receive our support in the next year. One is a Seminar on Economics for Clergy at the University of North Carolina, Greensboro in September 1979; and another is a Seminar for Clergywomen in the Rural South, scheduled for October, 1979. We will soon begin intensive planning for the Bishop's Seminar on Preaching for 1980.

We express our appreciation to Bishop Robert Blackburn for his enduring support of Continuing Education of ministers, to Dr. McMurray Richey and Dr. Thomas Langford of Duke Divinity School for offering the faculty and resources of that school for the training and career development of our clergy; to Louisburg College, North Carolina Wesleyan College, and Methodist College for their counsel and support of educational ventures; to the Ministerial Education Fund for additional funds for grants; and finally to our clergy who take seriously the call to be competent in the practice of Christian ministry.

Emerson M. Thompson, Jr.,
Chairman

DIVISION OF MISSIONS

Church Extension, the advance and the Small Membership Church received the majority of the time and effort of The Division of Missions in 1978-1979. In the following Committee reports these areas of concern will be expanded.

Paul G. Bunn,
Chairman

Committee on Church Extension

The highlight of the year past for us was a Consultation on Church Extension called by Bishop Robert M. Blackburn and held on March 20, 1979. Out of that gathering of Conference leaders and resource persons came a new commitment to the importance of new church development in the 1980s in our Conference and the decision to move ahead with new churches in Raleigh and Jacksonville as soon as possible.

Another outgrowth of the consultation was a Study Document on Guidelines for Establishing New Congregation in the North Carolina Conference. Copies have been distributed to all members of the Annual Conference and their comments invited as the document is refined for presentation for adoption by the 1980 session of the Annual Conference.

Progress continued this year in the development of Page Memorial: Aberdeen's Outpost Congregation. It is hoped that by this time next year what began as an outpost will be a full-fledged mission church made up primarily of Native Americans.

We continued our promotion of membership in the Ten Dollar Club, a builders club begun in the 1950s in which members give $10 three times per year to assist a new church, an older church with special needs, and an international congregation. The following churches received grants from the 1978 calls:

Spring — St. Luke and Oleander
Summer — Philadelphus and Providence
Fall — Argentine Evangelical Methodist Church, Buenos Aries

In addition, grants from the Club's accumulated balance, made up largely of funds recovered through property sales, went to Grace: Clinton and Cherry Point: Havelock, as well as a second grant to Philadelphus.

The Ten Dollar Club will continue to have a major role in new church development in our Conference and we anticipate a significant increase in its membership and receipts in 1980.

Charles M. Smith,

Church and Community

During the past year, Church and Community has sponsored five lay workers in Church and Community ministries, allocated $15,400 in Rural Grants, $6,000 in Urban Grants, and $11,400 in Ethnic Minority local church program grants. Town and Country has sponsored dialogue and training seminars for leaders of the Conference as well as ministers in churches of small membership. The Urban Ministry Committee has sent delegates to training sessions on Mobile Home Ministries, and Urban Ministries.

The three work areas of Church and Community are seeking new and innovative ministries to support. Churches and ministers are encouraged to share ministry needs with us. We may be able to help.

Tom M. Faggart,

Committee on Education and Cultivation

The work of this committee is carried on by the following four subcommittees with chairmen listed: Advance - Jerry Smith; Mission Studies - Kay Bundy; Volunteers-in-Mission - Linwood Blackburn; Interpretation - Arthur Winstead.

All of these groups have been most active in helping the cause of missions throughout our Conference. Space does not permit a full report of all areas of work. However, special attention and emphasis should be made of the real crisis in Advance Specials for Missions.

Our Conference is one of the leading ones in missionary salary support. But in the total area we are far down the line in comparison with other Conferences. Our total giving in the area of Advance leaves much to be desired. Lack of involvement in Advance Specials for Missions has had disastrous results. There has been a decline of missionaries on the field as well as inability to be involved in many vital outreach ministries.

In a recent report from the World Division of our Board of Gobal Ministries the reason became clear. The budget of the World Division of 1972 was $19,571,498.00. In 1979 the total budget is $18,642,000.00. The effect of inflation has had a real effect on the work of the Division. For the World Division to operate at a level of 1972 with the same number of missionaries of that year and continuing the programs would require a budget of $38,000,000.00.

We must find ways to get more of the churches in the N. C. Conference to become participants in Advance specials for Missions in all areas of outreach.

Clyde Dunn,
Conference Missionary Secretary

Division of Missions, Incorporated

Division of Missions, Incorporated loaned $365,225.00 in 1978 to 22 different congregations.

On March 2, 1978, the Division of Missions, Incorporated made the first Ethnic Minority Parsonage Grant for $20,000.00 to St. Peter United Methodist Church at Oxford.

On September 26, 1978, St. Peter United Methodist Church, Hamlet received the second parsonage grant for $16,000.00.

Division of Missions granted a total of $12,000.00 to 13 different congregations for building purposes.

Division of Missions granted a total of $23,400.00 to 7 different Ethnic Minority Churches for building grants.

In general, Ethnic Minority Churches have shown great improvement in their buildings during this quadrennium. Approximately $2,000,000.00 has been loaned to churches from Division of Missions, Incorporated during my tenure on the Conference staff.

COMMISSION ON RELIGION AND RACE

More Racially Inclusive Retirement Homes

The North Carolina Conference Retirement Homes have adopted an affirmative action program designed to encourage the admission of ethnics. The Home at Lumberton has already admitted representative of ethnic minority groups. The Home in Durham needs some help in recruiting black members.

The Principle Of Parity

The Commission recommends that each board and agency of the Conference adopt the following policy of parity: When an ethnic group within the board or agency considers that its interests are affected by an action pending before the organization, a majority of that ethnic group may invoke the principle of parity, in which case the vote of the ethnic group will count 50% in the determination of the issue.

Realignment Of Charges

We encourage the Bishop and cabinet to align charges to include white and ethnic minority churches to further racial inclusiveness.

Recruit Ethnic Ministers

Increase Participation Of Ethnics

In an effort to increase the participation of representatives of ethnic minority groups in the work of the Conference we recommend the following: (1) That the Conference take note of report on the representation of ethnic minority persons on boards and agencies; (2) We request that meetings be held at times that are convenient for lay persons to attend; (3) That a list of ethnic minority persons eligible for appointment to conference boards and agencies be compiled.

Advance Specials

Churches of the N.C. conference are requested to accept Advance Specials for ethnic minority churches.

Interracial Dialogue

Interracial dialogue will take place at the Weekend for Assertiveness Training for Interracial Relationships September 14-16, 1979 at Chestnut Ridge.

Composition Of The Commission, 1980-1984

We recommend that, in the coming quadrennuim, the Commission on Religion and Race "...be constituted so that a majority of the membership be represented by ethnic minorities, proportionately representing the ethnic minority constituency of the conference." (Discipline, para. 736.2.)

O. Kelly Ingram,
Chairperson

Editor's Note:

The above report was presented to the Annual Conference as a "report on the activities of the Division of Religion and Race." It was not presented as legislative action; however, the Annual Conference chose to amend the report with the following amendments:

That the paragraph on "The Principle of Parity" be deleted. (It was deleted)

That the Paragraph on Realignment of Charges reads as follows: We encourage the Bishop and the Cabinet and the churches involved to align charges in accordance with the Disciple of the United Methodist Church, 1976, to align Charges to include white and ethnic minority churches to further racial inclusiveness.

That under the paragraph on "Recruit Ethnic Minorities" that an additional sentence be added to read, "We also commend ethnic churches and pastors who are recruiting persons for the ministry of Jesus Christ.

That on the paragraph on "Increase Participation of Ethnics" that item #4 be added to read: (4) that the ethnic pastors of the local church be consulted by the Bishop's Nominating Committee before nominating ethnics to said board or agency.

COMMISSION ON THE STATUS AND ROLE OF WOMEN

The Commission Plans A "Women In The Pulpit Sunday"

The Commission on the Status and Role of Women is promoting a local church "Women in the Pulpit Sunday." Worship resources have been prepared by members of the commision and are available from: Leadership Development, P. O. Box 10955, Raleigh, North Carolina 27605, (919) 832-9560. It is hoped that each church will observe this special Sunday sometime during the year. Why not ask one of our clergywomen to come and be the preacher? Another possibility is to use a capable laywoman from the district or Conference. Here is an opportunity to promote the role of women, both lay and clergy, in our church as well as the work of The United Methodist Women.

Commission Encourages Women to Become Lay Speakers;

The General Church and our Conference have a new Lay Speaker program. The Commission encourages more women to become involved in this training and to become certified. Basic training for certification will be offered at Conference Leadership School as well as in several of the districts. It is encouraging to note that many more women have been named as Lay Leaders in their churches. We hope that many will take advantage of this training program and become certified lay speakers.

Interpretative Brochure Being Produced

A brochure on the purpose and function of the Commission on the Status and Role of Women is now being prepared. This will be available in the fall and distributed through the Coordinated Mailing as well as being available at various conference and district meetings. "Why do we need to Commission on the Status and Role of Women?" "Just what do they do, anyway?" You will find answers to these and many more questions in the new brochure.

Study Materials on "Women In Non-Traditional Jobs" Soon to Be Available

The Commission on the Status and Role of Women, in cooperation with the committee on Career Planning and Counseling is preparing material to be used in a local church study on the subject of "Women in Non-Traditional Jobs." This material will be suitable for a study with youth as well as adults, and will be distributed through the Coordinated Mailing in late summer.

DIVISION CF STEWARDSHIP

What Is Stewardship And Why Is It Important?

STEWARDSHIP is the expression of our belief that all human life is under God. We believe that He has created us with a purpose, that human life is sacred, and that we matter to Him. How we use our lives is, therefore, important. How we respond to God's act of creation and redemption through Jesus Christ is our stewardship.

This Response Is Three-Fold

Our relationship to God, to our fellow-man, and to the earth. As stewards, we are obedient and faithful to God as Lord. Our fellow-man is our neighbor to whom we relate with dignity and respect as a child of God like ourselves. The earth is our home and all the material world is a trust from God to use, to conserve, to improve and to give.

Gifts And Wills In The Local Church

What can my local church do about Gifts and Wills? A LOT! And it is extremely important that you get involved. There is help available in the form of Wills and Estate Planning Seminars. These can be planned on a local church level or among of churches. Their purpose is to help persons realize the importance of having a will. It provides an opportunity for persons to begin planning early and to continue planning their estate. The seminars also furnish helpful information and guidance to persons as they consider and "on going tithe" as a part of their stewardship response to God.

Program Planning Budget Building

Program Planning seeks to involve as many members and friends of the congregation as possible in evaluating, planning, and implementing the church's financial commitment. Various approaches are available through the Division of Stewardship: The Commitment Plan, Loyalty Sundays, Circuit Rider, Stewardship Crusades, Program Planning and Budget Building, etc.

Resources For Stewardship With Children

It is a simple feat, but often overlooked, to include our children in the annual commitment program of the church. special cards have been prepared by the Division of Stewardship to enable children to make a personal financial commitment and receive quarterly reports on their progress. a special packet, Resources for Stewardship with Children, is available from the division. This packet includes: curriculum resources, activities, music, audiovisuals, biblical perspectives, devotionals, etc.

Media Center Resources

Don't overlook the Media Center for Stewardship helps! Our resource list provides films and filmstrips in areas, such as: EVERY MEMBER CANVAS, LIFESTYLE, STEWARDSHIP AND GIFTS AND WILLS. The Division of Stewardship highly recommends the film, How Good Life Can Be, in dealing with concepts of giving ourselves in service to others. This summer a new film focusing on the need for considering the necessity of writing our wills will be placed in the Media Center.

Take Time To Visit And Look

We are looking forward to your sharing with us at the Stewardship display in the Student Union. We have available a variety of the materials provided

Looking Forward With Anticipation

What's Ahead? Basic and advanced level seminars for the purpose of developing new and renewed skills for stewardship leadership in the local church. Help for the local church treasurers as they work with the new United Methodist Local Church Financial Record System. Continuation of the Ethnic Minority Local Church stewardship Listening Seminars. These seminars are gathering information on motivation, organization, lifestyles, and methods of funding within the Ethnic Minority Local Church Stewardship Listening Seminars. These seminars are gathering information on motivation, organization, lifestyles, and methods of funding within the Ethnic Minority Local Church. Materials will be developed to provide a broader concept of Stewardship Education.

Office of Deferred Giving...DIVISION OF STEWARDSHIP

The opportunities through deferred giving now appear to be household words for practically every one of our preachers and for many hundreds of our laypersons. Such was certainly not the case three years ago. Organizationally the going has been rough at times and all of us have not always seen the same objectives as the most desired goals. Nonetheless we have certainly achieved recognition and have caught the attention of a number of important donors. At this point in time Conference agencies are over one million dollars ahead of where they were three years ago.

The Office of Deferred Giving was established on May 1, 1976 as a part of the efforts of the Department of Gifts and Wills, Division of Stewardship. There had been no active work done in that area for a number of years although past efforts had begun to bear fruit through the probate of wills developed earlier. Since no conference funding was available for the program, The Rev. C. Franklin Grill, Conference coordinator of Resources, secured a commitment from five of the Conference agencies, (Louisburg College, Methodist College, Methodist Home for Children, Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc., and North Carolina Wesleyan College), for funding for a trial three year period. At the end of 1978 the accomplishments of the office were reviewed by the Board of Methodist Foundation and that Board agreed to provide substantial partial support through 1979.

On April 23, 1979 the Council on Finance Administration reviewed the work of the office and issued a recommendation that the Conference take over funding and that it be made a part of the Conference budget. That recommendation will be before you tomorrow.

During the first three years the Office of Deferred Giving had a primary responsibility to the five agencies providing support; the developmental efforts were concentrated upon a coordination with the development efforts of those agencies rather than upon local churches. In spite of that necessary direction, an impresive number of services were performed for local churches....46 seminars, services and leadership workshops were held in local churches with attendance in excess of 1,284 laypersons. Since the beginning of 1979 the efforts have been directed primarily toward local church needs and as we approach the time when the work may become a part of the Conference ministry the total organizational structure will focus on local church needs through Districts.

From May 1, 1976 through May 1979 the Office of Deferred Giving has registered gifts totaling more than $1,427,000.00.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES

The annual meeting of the Board of Trustees was held at 12:30 p.m. June 6, 1979, at Methodist college during Annual Conference Session.

The financial statements for the calendar year 1978 were presented and reviewed by Charles McAdams, Conference Treasurer. The Trustees Fund, Methodist Building Account, Staff Parsonages and Episcopal Residence Accounts are printed in the Conference Journal, Volume, 1, 1979.

The Gum Branch Church note has been paid and in turn we have paid off the loan to the Board of Missions, Inc., for the staff parsonage at 2527 St. Mary's Street. All of the staff parsonages are now debt free. The Episcopal Residence has an outstanding indebtedness of $19,072.64 which is being reduced annually to the Board of Trustees Account. A new carport has been added and the deck rebuilt at the Episcopal Residence.

The Trustees, through the Treasurer-Business Administrator, have endeavored to properly maintain the staff parsonages and the Methodist Building. The Methodist Building is fully leased and since taking over the full management of the building two years ago by the Conference Treasurer-Business Administrator, over $16,000 has been placed in an operating reserve account from the net operation of the building.

We are pleased that the General Church Insurance Program is now available in every respect in North Carolina, and we encourage all churches to investigate and make comparisons in rates before renewing insurance policies.

UNITED METHODIST MEN

Each year the United Methodist Men's Groups in our conference improve. We have more groups chartered in 1978 than in 1977 and more chartered this year to date than in the same period last year. Naturally, more chartered groups mean more members. We have 6,284 men participating, up form 5,638 the previous year, a 11.4% increase.

This year in the Annual Reports peanuts remain the most used money making project. This money was used for many benevolent causes, but in contrast to the previous year a large percentage of this money and a great deal of donated labor was used to improve local church facilities. One men's group went all the way and paid off the church mortgage when the church treasury ran out of money.

More groups seem to be trying to supply spiritual assistance to it's members by offering bible studies, prayer groups and other similar related activities. There seems to be a beginning of visitation and joint projects between neighboring groups. This may be the result of more emphasis being placed on our district and Conference United Men's Organization. In line with that, we now have District Officers in 10 of the 12 districts and we hope to organize the eleventh district soon

We are proud of the progress that has been made but we are also conscious of the fact that we are not where we should be. Most men's groups have set their goals too low. We have not yet accepted the challange of a greater purpose. We have not yet realized our unlimited potential as a special group to do great things in all areas of God's work. We have been mowing grass when we should be have been cutting timber. However, things are changing. We are beginning to plan, to set goals higher than last year and to reach those goals. The UMM Organization is a sleeping giant on the verge of a great awakening. I am only supposed to report to you the progress of the past year, but my joy in these accomplishments is exceeded only by my excited anticipation of what is going to happen in the future as our men's organization begins to accept the challange.

UNITED METHODIST WOMEN

Bishop Blackburn delegates and visitors, over 29,000 United Methodist Women of this conference send you greetings. Many exciting experiences have been a part of the 1978-79 year for the conference Team, the District Leadership, and local United Methodist Women.

First, I would like for each one here today who belongs to United Methodist Women to stand up. Please remember that this membership includes each local minister!

It is important for everyone to realize that each objective; each goal; the program of the local unit, the district and the conference; all activities of United Methodist Women throughout the Church should be planned to fit under the UMBRELLA of the PURPOSE which states that: "The organized Unit of United Methodist Women shall be a community of women whose purpose is: To know God and to experience freedom as whole persons through Jesus Christ; To develop a creative, supportive fellowship; And to expand concepts of mission through participation in the global ministries of the church.

Today's report will share a little of the excitement of this past year. Some activities seem to just "belong" under one particular part of the PURPOSE while others interrelate so well that it is very difficult to identify with only one.

To Know God And To Experience Freedom As Whole Persons Through Jesus Christ

More than 200 women attended the Conference Retreat at Methodist College in May. Dr. Robert Young, minister at Duke University Chapel chose as his theme "Reaching Out". Each District has held a Retreat during the past year. Many local units have had or are planning a Day Apart for their membership. The church wide study on the book of Revelation has been a meaningful study for those who have participated in the Church or through local units. Locally there are many Bible Study Groups and Prayer Groups which hopefully undergirds the reaching out and action activities.

ALL event and activities planned are planned with this part of the PURPOSE foremost in everyon's thoughts.

To Develop a Creative, Supportive Fellowship

This might be divided into two support groups - those plans involving United Methodist Women and those involving others outside of United Methodist Women. ANNUAL MEETING. Front Street United Methodist Church, Burlington, October 6-7, 1978. Mrs Jean Jerome shared about her experiences of her visit to the Peoples Republic of China. Ms. Kathy Mitchem of Scarritt College, a drama "Images", The Burlington Boys Choir, were just a few of the highlights.

Do-It-Today

(District Officers In Training) This was held in Goldsboro last November for the 1979 District Officers. This perhaps is the most important activity of the year to share the TEAM emphasis of United Methodist Women.

Under 39's

This is a very special 24-hour event held in March this year for the young women to come together, share, and learn more about their organization. Ninety-five spent a meaningful time together with the Jurisdiction Secretary, Mrs. Jill Hicks from Tuscaloosa Alabama as special guest. Mrs. Dotty Kornegary of Creedmoor served as chairperson.

"Kede"

Is the Conference Newsletter, edited by Mrs. Vivian Mitchell. This is published 4 times each year and is mailed to all conference and district officers and two officers in each local units. Other may subscribe for $1.00 per year.

N. C. Christian Advocate

Also is a channel for information and our editor, Mrs. Robbie Barrett is always looking for news and special interest items. OTHERS include representative to meetings of World Federation of Methodist Women Regional Meeting; Church Women United; North Carolina Council of Women's Organizations; State Council of Social Legislation. Another first was a joint meeting of the leadership of the North Carolina Conference and the Western North Carolina Conference United Methodist Women for ERA Seminar in Greensboro. This was sponsored by the Women's Division.

To Expand Concepts Of Mission Through Participation In The Global Ministries Of The Church.

Pledge To Missions. As we reach out through our gifts, we begin to realize there is something beyond our local unit. Last year $246,598.62 was sent to the Women's Division from the United Methodist Women of this Conference.

North Carolina Projects. Two thousand dollars were given to each of the four projects; Harnett County Church and Community Project, Walnut Terrace Child Development Center, East Carolina Student Center, and Robeson County Church and Community Center.

Conference Leadership School. Class for United Methodist Women, all the Mission Studies, and other classes give those who attend a special bonus.

Scholarship Program. Graduate and Undergraduate gifts are available. These express in a very tangible way United Methodist Women's concern for educational opportunities.

Extra training opportunities included Regional School at Ferrum College in Virginia last June for the Conference Officers, Officer Training in New York for new officers, an invitation for a representative to attend the Women's Division Meeting last October in Detroit. All of these opportunities DO expand concepts of Mission.

YES, UNDER THE UMBRELLA OF THE PURPOSE, United Methodist Women in the North Carolina Conference are seeking to fulfill this year's conference theme:

"SEE AND KNOW — SERVE AND GROW"

United Methodist Youth

Bishop Blackburn, members of the Conference, and visitors:
Youth—vibrant, enthusiastic, seeking.....
Youth—sensitive, vulnerable, loving.....
Youth—Full members of the United Methodist Church...

Youth make up a large part of our church. Because of this fact we have a Conference Youth Ministries Program.

It's purpose is to aid in strengthening local church Youth Ministries programs, to aid in guiding youth in personal growth and commitment, and to be a general resource for local churches in youth minisries.

How? Some examples are:

An eighth grader from Rocky Mount on tour with a choir of 80 youth—traveling, laughing, learning.

A tenth grader from Mt. Gilead studying the state legislature to better understand our government—studing, exploring, learning.

An eleventh grader meeting a personal challenge and hiking 50 miles on the Appalachian Trail—growing, understanding, learning.

A seventh grader discovering what it means to be a Christian—loving, committing, learning.

A tenth grader understanding what makes a strong leader—searching, finding, learning.

Things like these and more happen at the Conference Youth Events. Youth Events occur in the spring, summer, and fall. These events always contain an element of learning. We are fortunate to have such a wide variety of events.

How else? A weekend team of youth and adults trained to work with your UMYF for a weeekend. A group known as a Youth Ministry Enrichment Team trained to help in whatever area you need—worship, commitment, program, leadership, community.

How else? As a general resource—for programs in your churches, for information, for anything about Youth Ministries.

These and other methods are ways the Conference Youth Ministries Program meets its purpose.

More people are continually taking advantage of the Conference Youth Ministries Program. The Conference Youth events had a 9.5% increase in participants from 1977 to 1978.

Conference Rally Day held on April 7 was a fantasic day where 900 to 1000 youth gathered together at Wesleyan College to laugh, to cry, to look inside of themselves, and to worship God as they heard speakers and enjoyed fellowship. It was a day for youth to gain a better understanding of what it means to be a member of the connectional United Methodist Church. The number in attendance this year of 900 to 1000 youth was quite an increase over last year's 500 to 600 youth participants.

Youth Service Fund is a missional fund raised solely by United Methodist Youth above and beyond their giving to the church—their second mile giving. Youth Service Fund helps fund projects in our conference and outside of our conference, such as Robeson County Church and Community Center or Appalachian Service Project. Due to the hard work of our conference youth treasurer, Powell Osten and many other youth, the Youth Service Fund giving at the end of April was up 330% above last year's giving through April; up from 335 dollars to 1,443 dollars in April 1979. We, the Conference Council on Youth Ministries have set a goal of 5,000 dollars for our conference youth to raise in 1979.

In the area of youth ministries in general, there are some resources your churches should be made aware of. ARENA for Sr. High Youth and FELLOWSHIP TIMES for Jr. High Youth are quarterly program helps for UMYF's. This cry has been answered by a long awaited handbook for UMYF's. It is planned to be finished and published by this fall. This handbook tries to address the needs of any youth group whether it be small, medium, or large. The handbook will contain a section on youth leadership skills, youth worker skills, resources, structural ideas, program aids, and many other items for the UMYF. This handbook will be a general guide for the UMYF. I have been very priviledged to help in reviewing this handbook and I would strongly recommend this manual for your UMYF. These resources, the handbook, RENA, and FELLOWSHIP TIMES; are all available through Discipleship Resources in Nashville.

Most of the continuing success of the Conference Youth Ministries Program can be credited to the Conference Coordinator of Youth Ministries, Ed Morrisson. He has given much time and effort above and beyond the calling of his work with Youth Ministries.

Others who should receive credit are District Superintendents, pastors, youth workers, and youth themselves for their work in the area of Youth Ministry.

Though we have had a good, solid, strong year of growth in Youth Ministries, we still have room to grow. At Rally Day we had a large number of youth, but only 12 percent of the churches were represented. We always have room to grow.

I have enjoyed this year as President of the conference youth. I have appreciated the way that people on boards, councils, committees, and people in general have listened to me as I have voiced my concerns about Youth Ministries. My life has been rewarded as I have worked across the conference at District and local functions. A concern for the youth has been clearly evident among people as I have worked in Youth Ministries; not only in the local church and conference, but also on the national level as well. Through serving on the Executive Committee and Steering Committee of the National Youth Ministries Organization, I have seen genuine support of Youth.

Youth Ministries can give your youth program a shot in the arm. Remember that the conference Youth Minstries Program is in existance for you, the local churches, your youth programs, and youth; not for any other reason. The Conference Youth Ministries Program is always available. Please make use of this program. For more inforamtion concerning summer events, Youth Service Fund, and other aspects of Youth Ministries, see our display out front.

In closing, I would just like to say that we can find some of the strongest members of our church among our youth—strong witnesses and strong workers. They are church of today. We are all a part of the church of today.

DIVISON OF WORSHIP

Major Thrusts

In 1978 the Division of Worship (1) continued planning several conference-level worship services (para 728.4 of The Book of Discipline) and (2) prepared and distributed a booklet containing worship resource lists on every phase of worship, compiled by the Board of Discipleship.

Bishop's Meeting With Confirmation Classes

We again sponsored the Bishop's Meetings with Confirmation classes, which were held in Greenville at Jarvis Memorial UMC on March 11, and twice on Saturday, March 18, at Raleigh's Edenton Street UMC. The format was like the previous year's. Those who planned and/or led the services were Stanley Smith, chairperson; Andrew Henry, Robert Pullman, and Roger Searles.

Bishop's Seminar On Preaching

We planned the evening worship services for the Bishop's Seminar on Preaching. Those who presided were Robert Pullman on April 10, when the order of worship in The Book of Hymns was used, and John Harwood on April 11, when the order from Word and Table was followed.

Annual Conference

At Annual Conference the division sponsored the early morning Holy Communion services in the amphitheater at 7 A.M. and in Hensdale Chapel at 8 A.M. Leaders were as follows: Tuesday, 7 A.M. (rained out); 8 A.M. J. Thomas Smith, Liturgist; Wallace Kirby, preacher; Wednesday, 7 A.M. Edward Morrison, liturgist; G. Robert McKenzie, preacher; 8 A.M. Carlton Hirschi, liturgist; Dewey Tyson, preacher. Ray Sparrow and Paul Granger made arrangements for these services.

Conference Leadership School

The six services at conference Leadership School were planned by the division using themes suggested by the speaker, The Reverend Maxie Dunnam, namely, Prayer on Saturday and Tuesday, Praise on Sunday morning and Wednesday; Freedom on Sunday night; and Wholeness on Monday. Liturgists were Anna Gail Workman, Robert Baldridge, Stanley Smith, James H. Miller, Jr., Judi Smith, and Jane Hook.

A worship display was set up in the lounge where much free worship resource material was picked up by registrants. Worship courses included "Music and Children" and "Drama in the Church".

More Resources

Fifty packets on One Great Day of United Methodist Singing (OGDOUMS) were placed in the conference office for the churches. Also, the division asked Sue Henry to make available at Cokesbury Book Store 50 copies of A Scriptural Index of the United Methodist Hymnal.

Seminar On Music And The Pastor

The division gave $500 to the Fellowship of United Methodist Musicians for a seminar on "Music and the Pastor" to be held in early 1979.

Miscellaneous

Ex-officio members added to the division by the conference Council on Ministries were the Reverend Cathy Carlson, Durham; Mrs. Jeanette Mast, Burlington; and Dr. William H. Willimon, Durham.

The chairperson attended the Congress on Evangelism in Miami January 2-5 and participated in the section on worship. He also sent the Bishop a rationale for not holding Annual Conference on Sunday, because of its effect on worship attendance in the local church.

DIVISION OF CHURCH AND SOCIETY

The following six resolutions have been prepared by the Division of Church and Society and are being presented for consideration by the Annual Conference. In addition, the Division has prepared seven study papers on social issues which we hope the members of this conference will study and use. At the December Conference Council on Ministries meeting it was decided that "study papers" would be offered for information and education and not require a vote by the conference. These have been printed in The N. C. Christian Advocate and will be included in the study packets available to classes and groups wishing to use them and are available here this week. It is our hope that delegates will see these resolutions and study papers as only a part of our work because we are also involved in on-going program such as Yokefellow, the United National Study Tour, Legislative Seminars, and communicating with and training of local work area chairpersons of social concerns.

Resolution Number 1
ON GENERAL IMMORALITY IN OUR SOCIETY

Whereas; The Discipline instructs the Division of Church and Society, "to analyze the issues which confront the person, the local community, the nation and the world; and to encourage Christian lines of action . . ." (Paragraph 1202;) and

Whereas; no single issue is more alarming than the present imperfect state of human society, as evidenced by the most sordid crimes, pornographic filth, the flaunting of homosexuality, the acceptance of drug and alcohol abuse, the variance of "justice" dispensed by our courts for similar offenses, the use of abortions as a birth control measure, the greed for both power and wealth in unions and industry, the casual breaking of marriage vows, etc. ad infinitum; and

Whereas; because "we affirm the natural world as God's handiwork and dedicate ourselved to its preservation, enhancement, and faithful use by humankind" and joyfully receive for ourselves and others the blessing of community, sexuality, marriage, and the family," we cannot continue to be neutral toward the corrupt, nihilistic behavior or our time.

Therefore: be it resolved that we urge moral education in our home and schools, a new courage and forthrightness in our churches in our stand for chastity, sobriety, fidelity, honesty, truthfulness, decency and respect for persons and property.

Resolution Number 2

CONCERNING THE REPEAL OF THE NORTH CAROLINA TAX ON FOOD

Whereas; Human Hunger is a missional priority item of the United Methodist Church; and

Whereas; the average family of four today pays $100 tax for $2500 worth of food; and

Whereas; the amount of tax paid on food keeps rising as the cost of groceries increases; and

Whereas; the food tax is a regressive one affecting most adversely those who least can afford to pay it;

Therefore, be it resolved that the North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church urge the General Assembly to repeal the food tax.

Resolution Number 3

ON THE SALT II TREATY

Whereas; The nuclear arms race has escalated to such a point that nations now have the ability to eliminate all modern civilization in a very short-lived interchange of nuclear missiles; and,

Whereas; It is incumbent upon governments to seek the security of their citizenry; and,

Whereas; The only security concerning nuclear arms is to prevent any use of them, and,

Whereas; Strategic Arms Limitation Talks (SALT) have been between the United States and the U.S.S.R., with a view to limiting and attempting to reserve the run-away arms race, and a second treaty is about to be signed (or has been signed) popularly called SALT II to limit the further sophistication and deployment of strategic nuclear weapons; and,

Whereas; Lasting and secure negotiated positions are obtained only by the subordination of lesser desires by both sides in orde to achieve a more important goal of both parties;

Therefore, be it resolved, that we, the North Carolina Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church, urge our Government to ratify the SALT II Treaty and urge the USSR and our Senators from North Carolina to vote for ratification of this Treaty and influence their colleagues in favor of its ratification; and that we recommend that United Methodists of the North Carolina Conference to write their Senators urging them to vote for ratification.

Resolution Number 4

AGAINST THE USE OF THE DEATH PENALTY

A moratorium on the use of the death penalty in the United States existed from June 2, 1967, when Louis Jose Monge was executed in the gas chamber of the Colorado State Penitentiary, until January 17, 1977, when Gary Mark Gilmore was shot by a firing squad at the Utah State Prison.

During this moratorium the churches slowly relaxed their once-vigorous efforts for the full abolition of capital punishment because of their premature confidence that the trend toward abolition was strong and irreversible. During the earlier period from the 1950's until around 1968 national church bodies had taken firm positions oppsoing the death penalty. It was significant that during that time no national religious body went on record in favor of capital punishment. Church leaders tended to believe that the Supreme Court of the United States would ultimately take the same position.

However, on July 2, 1976, the Court upheld the discretionary death penalty statues of three states; and immediately a large number of state legislatures rushed to pass new death penalty statues. North Carolina was one of these. Therefore, we now see that the churches must again help the people of our country understand why the death penalty must not be used.

The ancient laws of the Hebrews, seeking to restrain tribal welfare, did call for the use of capital punishment. It was commanded not only for murder and rape but also for working on the Sabbath and cursing one's parents. Jesus Christ fulfilled the humanitarian intent of the earlier laws when he expressly forbade the treatment of another human being on the basis of "an eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth." His Great Commandment was, "Love your enemies" and "love your neighbor." To test him the Pharisees brought a woman caught in the act of adultery and asked, "What do you say about her?" They pointed out that the law called for the death penalty. He replied, "Let him who is without sin among you cast the first stone." The death penalty was not used by Jesus Christ; later it was used on Jesus Christ.

Therefore, we concur with former statements of the North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church in opposition to the death penalty. We concur with the most recent official statement of our Church as passed in 1976 by the General Conference and printed in The Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church at paragraph 74 (F): " . . . We oppose capital punishment and urge its elimination from all criminal codes."

In our opposition to the death penalty we also join other churches whose national conferences have officially states their antagonism to capital punishment:

The General Board of the American Baptist Convention in 1977,
The Annual Conference of the Church of the Brethen in 1975,
The U.S. Catholic Conference in 1978,
The General Assembly of the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) in 1973,
The General Convention of the Episcopal Church in 1969,
The Friends Committee on National Legislation in 1977,
The Six Biennial Convention of the Lutheran Church in American in 1972,
The 106th General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, U.S. in 1966,
The General Synod of the Reformed Church in America in 1965,
The Eleventh General Synod of the United Church of Christ in 1977, and
The Governing Board of the National Council of Churches of Christ in U.S.A. in 1976.

Our witness against capital punishment may be summarized. We believe the death penalty should be abolished because:

(1) Innocent people are sometimes executed, and this miscarriage of justice is impossible to remedy.

(2) Unfairness of application is a proven fact, and this double standard of justice results in our sacrificing mostly the poor and friendless convict from a minority race.

(3) Deterrance to crimnal behavior has never been proved by the most carefult studies, and it is clear that the states which have abolished capital punishment have sometimes decreased the crime of murder in their societies by their own example.

(4) Vengeance and retaliation are not the moral values which we want our state to teach; and our free democratic society should seek rather to restrain the criminal, to protect the innocent, to assist the victim, and to rehabilitate the offender.

(5) Violence by the state is a non-justifiable and counter productive ethical response to violence by an individual, and reverance for life and love for enemies is the better response.

We believe that capital punishment is a legal issue that must always be studied on moral grounds. We urge local church groups and individuals to make this study and call all the agencies of our state and national to refrain from using the death penalty.

Resolution Number 5

ON THE LAW OF THE SEA

Whereas, We acknowledge God as the creator of the earth creation ordaining of human beings as the stewards of His creation; and,

Whereas, The population of the earth is increasng and the resources (oil and minerals, etc.) are being depleted to a point where the control on the seabed minerals could easily be a prime factor in the development of the economies of the poorer nations or a future war between the powers with the technical ability to exploit the seas; and,

Whereas, The United States is a leading consumer of the earth's resources and has the technical ability to mine the seabeds; and,

Whereas, In 1970 the United Nations agreed that "those areas of the sea beyond national boundaries are the common heritage of mankind" and began urging the development of a "Law of the Sea Treaty" through conferences dealing with how these resources could best be fairly shared by all people; and,

Whereas, The General Conference of the United Methodist Churchin its Social Principles of 1976 has encouraged all United Methodists to become informed about all aspects of "The Law of the Sea" and to call upon their governments to commit themselves to the development of a just and equitable treaty through the United Nations Conference on the Law of the Sea to ratification of the treaty by our respective governments;

Therefore, be it resolved that North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church send appropriate messages to President Carter, our senators, and our representatives to the Law of the Sea Conference and urge participation in efforts to develop a Law of the Sea Treaty that is equitable and just, and we urge that the United States vote for its ratification when one is completed; and

Be it also resolved that we urge our Congress to refuse to pass legislation to allow United States corporations to exploit resources before such a treaty can be put into force.

Resolution Number 6

ON SUPPORTING THE PUBLIC SCHOOL SYSTEM IN NORTH CAROLINA

Realizing that our Democracy depends on an educated public, we recognize the value and importance of our North Carolina Public School System. We encourage our constituency to support our Public Schools as an expression of their Christianity because of the values taught by them such as democracy, equality, and respect for all people of every economic and social group. At the same time we realize there is room for improvement and acknowledge the many complicated problems the Public School System faces; therefore, we think we should dedicate ourselves to being a part of the solution. We believe it is the responsbility of all United Methodists whether they are personally involved in the Public Schools of North Carolina or not, to:

1. Become informed through visiting the schools and inviting school personnel to speak at special church meetings; by attending School Board Meetings, PTSA, County Commissioner and City Council Meetings, especially when they are dealing with school issues and budgets; and by attending other school functions.
2. Volunteer their services as teacher's aides, lunch room aides, recreational assistants, tutors, etc.
3. Support the Competency Testing Program as a valid instrument not only to measure progress, but as a means of locating those pupils who need and should receive special instructions.
4. Urge good stewardship in the use of our tax dollars, especially as it relates to public education and discourage the use of our taxes for private elementary, junior high and senior high schools.
5. Encourage all United Methodists to send their own children to Public Schools and to insist that the school system abide by the law in providing an adequate education for ALL children enrolled.

DIVISION OF DIACONAL MINISTRY

The Division of Diaconal Ministry meets twice each year. In the fall, plans are made for the program to be carried out during the year. Interpretation of the program is under the direction of Rev. Charles Morrison, Helen Bame and Bernice Ballance. Continuing Education Committee is served by Dr. Garland Knott, Betty Purkey and Linda Harris, Support Systems by Irene Gattis, Rev. Angus Cameron, Rev. John Cline. Career Counseling and Recruitment is the responsibility of Dan Holland, Richard Williams and Vonnie Tucker. The executive committee, composed of Martha Garrick, Richard Williams, Irene Gattis, Rev. Bill Sabiston, Laura Davenport, and Rev. Bill Sherman, also serves as our Interview Committee.

In February each year, we meet to consider certification of lay persons in the areas of Christian Education, Music and Evangelism. Also, each Diaconal Minister's qualifications are reviewed with recommendation made for continuance, if requested and if possible within our guidelines. New persons may be recommended for consecration.

To become a Diaconal Minister, a lay person must be certified in their area of work, be recommended by their Pastor-Parish/Staff Relations Committee and Charge Conference after a full year of successful work in the conference, interviewed and recommended by the Conference Division of Diaconal Ministry and voted on by the Annual Conference to be consecrated by the Bishop to full-time Christian service in the church or its agencies.

It gives me great pleasure to recommend to you now for consecration as a Diaconal Minister in the North Carolina Annual Conference, David M. Hines, Director of Music at Grace United Methodist Church in Wilmington.

A list follows of persons who have been certified in the area of their service. Their names are provided for your information:

JOINT COMMITTEE ON DISABILITY

The Joint Committee on Disability acts as the advocate of those ministers in the North Carolina Conference who are forced by physical or emotional disability to seek temporary or permanent relief from their appointment. The committee is given the responsibility to study the problems of disability within the Conference, to provide a continuing personal ministry to those who are disabled, and to make recommendations to the appropriate agencies of the Conference for each minister seeking Disability Leave, including the source of their disability income.

The following recommendtions are presented to the 1978 Session of the North Carolina Conference:

1. The Joint Committee on Disability will make available upon request the necessary forms for any minister to make application for Disability Leave. In all cases the applications must be completed by the minister, the physician, and the district superintendent before the request for Disability Leave can be acted upon. It is the recommendation of the Joint Committee on Disability that such requests be presented before May 15 for inclusion in the committee's report to the Annual Conference Session.

2. The Joint Committee on Disability may require physiological and psychological examinations when deemed necessary by the committee. These will be done by a physician approved by the committee, and in such a case the committee may share the expense of the examination in an amount not to exceed $100.00.

3. The Joint Committee on Disability will study each application for Disability Leave submitted by ministers of the Conference to determine the recommendation of the minister's physician and district superintendent, particularly as it reflects the anticipated length of the minister's disability. We recommend the payment of support funds for those ministers deemed temporarily disabled (or able to return to their appointment within the Conference year) from the Emergency Relief Fund and those who are deemed permanently disabled from the disability provisions of the Board of Pensions. Any minister receiving funds from the Emergency Relief Fund and recommended to be continued on Disability Leave for a second year will then receive support payments from the disability provisions of the Board of Pensions.

4. We recommend that appropriations from the Emergency Relief Fund, continuing with the 1978-1979 Conference year, be the same as those from the Board of Pensions, that is, based on one-third of the average salary of the North Carolina Conference. In addition to the basic support funds, the cost of the minister's coverage under the Conference insurance program, hospitalization and life insurance, will be paid in full, and an interim monthly grant of $250.00 will be made for the first five months a minister is granted Disability Leave, or until Social Security benefits become effective, whichever is first. Support payments from the Emergency Relief Fund will become effective on the date that the minister is granted Disability Leave by the Bishop and are payable at the end of each month.

5. The Joint Committee on Disability will review the progress of each minister on Disability Leave at least annually. This review will include both recommendations from the minister's physician and district superintendent as well as opportunities for continuing fellowship with the minister to develop further possibilities of assistance in his/her disabled circumstances. Those receiving aid from the Emergency Relief Fund will be reviewed at the end of their first six months of Disability Leave.

6. We recommend that expenses of travel, telephone, postage, and other materials for the committee be paid from the Emergency Relief Fund.

7. We recommend the following ministers to be continued on Disability Leave:

Paul W. Evans (AM)	Board of Pensions support
Willie J. Evans	Board of Pensions support
W. Bryan Gregory	Board of Pensions support
R. C. Hamilton, Jr.	Board of Pensions support
Robert L. Nicks	Board of Pensions support
Evander Parnell (AM)	Board of Pensions support
George W. Ports, Jr.	Board of Pensions support
Frank D. Salmon	Board of Pensions support
William A. Seawell	Board of Pensions support
Edgar F. Seymour	Board of Pensions support
Luther V. Wesley	Board of Pensions support
Wilford D. Wise	Board of Pensions support
John E. Wood	Board of Pensions support

8. We recommend the following persons to be assisted by the Emergency Relief Fund during their period of transition from the ministry to secular employment (because of health reasons).

J. Robert Rummell and Jack M. Morrill

9. We recommend that ministers and congregations in the communities in which our disabled ministers reside seek to establish a supportive relationship with those on Disability Leave to maintain good fellowship and provide for pastoral opportunities. It is further recommended that housing needs and other special problems of our disabled ministers be considered by these congregations and communities in the light of the contribution made to our United Methodist Church by those on disability during their years of service. We can all become better stewards of the gift of life and skill as we share in this ministry of caring and concern.

Jack M. Benfield, Chairman
Joseph K. Bostick, Secretary

(Editors Note: The Joint Committee had intended to include the name of C. Graham Nickens in its report to Annual Conference but inadvertently omitted his name. He has been approved by the Committee for disability status for the 1979-1980 Conference Year. James Coile, Conference Secretary)

COMMISSION ON EQUITABLE SALARIES

I. Feasibility Study

The 1978 Session of the North Carolina Conference requested that the Commission on Equitable Salaries study the feasibility of relating an annual increase in the minimum salary of the ministers of the conference to the corresponding increase in the salary of the District Superintendents (1978 Journal, page 191).

The Commission requested that a statistical study be done by the J. M. Ormond Center at the Duke Divinity School of the salaries of the ministers of the North Carolina Conference by categories for the period 1970-1978. Dr. Robert L. Wilson compiled this data with the following results:

The total salary and travel expenses paid to the District Superintendents increased from $12,500 in 1970 to $23,995 in 1977. This amounts to a 92.0% growth in actual dollars, a 13.4% increase in constant dollars for the period. Constant dollars indicate the actual purchasing power of income compared to the value of the dollar in 1967.

The total salary and travel expenses paid to the average minister (including all categories - full-time, part-time, student as well as conference members and local pastors) increased from $6,297 to $10,196 during the 1970-1977 period. This is a 61.9% increase in actual dollars, a 4.3% increase in constant dollars.

During the same period the maximum equitable salary (married clergy with children) increased in all three categories, full-time conference members, full-time local pastors, and students. Full-time conference members increased from $6,000 to $9,200, a gain of 53.3% in actual dollars, but a loss of 1.2% in constant dollars. Full-time local pastors increased from $5,200 to $8,600, a gain of 65.4% in actual dollars and 6.5% in constant dollars. Student pastors increased from $4,000 to $7,200, a gain of 80.0% in actual dollars and 16.0% in constant dollars.

The Commission recognizes that the more reflective figure to examine is the increase in the "mean" or average salary of all the ministers in the conference, a little more than 60% in actual dollars and 4.3% in constant dollars. This is compensation received by a more representative sample of the clergy and paid by a more representative church within the conference. The salaries of the District Superintendents are set by a formula that averages the total of the highest salary in each of the twelve districts. This has little relationship to the minimum, or "beginning," salary that is reflected in the equitable salary support program.

Consideration was given in the establishment of the 1980 salary scale of the relative increases in the salaries of the three categories in terms of constant dollars. The group that seemed to deserve the largest increase was the full-time conference members who were showing a loss of real income over the 1970-1977 period. The recommended 10% increase will do little more than keep their income at least even with the inflation rate of 1970-1980, but it does take more into account the added expense and sacrifice necessary to achieve membership status in the conference. The recommended increase for full-time local pastors will keep pace with our inflationary times and reflect the transitory role of this type of ministry. In the recommendations for student pastors two factors were considered in the retention of the same salary structure as in 1979. First, student salaries have increased the most in the three categories in terms of both actual and constant dollars. Second, the Commission is aware that the student category is one that the North Carolina Conference defined in a special policy report adopted by the 1974 Session (1974 Journal, page 122) as a part-time category, to be recognized as such by the student minister, the charge served, and the conference. In addition to the salary paid by the local church, the student is also eligible for assistance from a number of other sources including the Ministerial Education Fund, the Duke Endownment, district scholarships, local church endowment programs, and seminary grants. Occasionally, a student may actually receive more cash income than a full-time conference member from various sources within the conference and the seminary. The basic role of a student pastor is to be a student, preparing for ministry to the best of his/her ability; full service to the local church is accomplished in those time when preparation for required scholastic activities has been completed.

II. The recommended schedule of Minimum Salaries through the Commission on Equitable Salaries for 1980 is as follows:

A. Regular Recommendations:

Full-Time Conference and Associate Conference Members
Base Salary (per pastor)	$8,800
Utility Allowance (per charge)	1,500
Spouse, or one or more dependents* (per family)	400

Full-Time Local Pastors
Base Salary (per pastor)	$7,800
Utility Allowance (per charge)	1,500
Spouse, or one or more dependents* (per family)	400
Students
Base Salary (per pastor)	$6,000
Utility Allowance (per charge)	1,500
Spouse, or one or more dependents* (per family	400

*The IRS definition of "dependents" will be used.

B. Special Recommendations:
1. A charge served by a full-time pastor(s) may provide up to $1,000 for pastoral travel without its affecting equitable salary privisions. A charge served by a student pastor(s) may provide up to $1,000 for pastoral travel without its affecting equitable salary provisions.
2. Part-time Supplies: Ministers of any status who are serving part-time will receive income from Equitable Salary funds, if any, on a basis negotiated with the church, the pastor, the District Superintendent, and the Equitable Salary Commission.

III. Principles Governing the Use of Equitable Salary Funds

The Pastor's salary is the responsibility of the charge; therefore, the charges should so group themselves as to assume full pastoral support. The Commission urges each charge receiving Equitable Salary funds, its Minister, and District Superintendents to administer the affairs of the charge to the end that it may move as rapidly as possible toward full financial support. To enable the Conference, the Commission, and the District Superintendents to carry on their cooperative efforts in understanding, harmony, and for the greatest good for all concerned, the following principles and procedures are set forth:

A. The pastor's dependents at the time of assignment to the charge and as of January 1 shall govern the amount paid the pastor.

B. In considering the salary for the charge, all income, including salary, bonuses, and other benefits not specifically excluded, are included as salary in determining appropriations from Equitable Salaries Commission.

C. Charges must be arranged so that no more than one-third of the total salary will be supplemented from Equitable Salary Funds. Charges asking for more than one-third supplement must make an additional application, indicating the reasons for being given special consideration. Newly established congregations will be given special consideration.

D. When division of charges is desired, Equitable Salary funds will be used only upon recommendation of the Bishop, or the "Bishop's Task Force on the Division of Circuits" and Cabinet approval.

E. In the Division of Circuits in which one church seeks to become a station, it is recommended that such church assume all salary obligations and its proportionate share of single-figure asking.

1. It is recommended that the remainder of the division pay two-thirds of pastoral support, and its share of single-figure asking.

1. The Commission on Equitable Salaries further recommends that each charge which has received, or shall hereafter receive, Equitable Salary aid, shall reduce this aid by 10 percent each year until the charge has accepted full self-support. The District Superintendents are to inform all charges receiving aid or expecting to receive aid in the future of this regulation. This requirement must be kept in mind in preparing for any requests.

3. When there is a division of a charge forming one or more student appointments, the charge must pay two-thirds of said salary.

F. Any Equitable Salary supplement will be terminated immediately upon the pastor's taking full-time secular employment. Such a pastor may be reinstated at any time upon returning to full-time ministerial status. Exceptions to this rule may be permitted by approval of the Executive Committee of the Commission on Equitable Salaries on recommendation of the District Superintendent of the pastor who is seeking for emergency reasons, employment outside that of his church ministry.

IV. Use of Equitable Salary Funds in Enlarged Parish Models

In order to improve the effective utilization of Conference ministerial manpower,

And in recognition of the fact that the size of the membership of a charge together with its quality of leadership are significant factors both in charge salaries and the quality of a church's total witness:

The Commission on Equitable Salaries encourages and aids those churches which seek to improve their total programs through: (1) establishing cooperative programs which are designed to result in an increase in the number of churches and members in a charge; (2) increasing the level of intercongregational cooperation; or (3) merging congregations.

In order to implement this policy, the Equitable Salary Commission may utilize a maximum of seven percent of its total allocations to supplement salaries beyond the established minimum salary. In funding programs for this purpose the following procedures will be followed:

A. The District Superintendent of the charge will submit a proposal to the Commission, which proposal (for initial requests) shall include:
   1. The names, locations, and memberships of each church involved.
   2. Evidence of the total charge's involvement, approval, and participation in the program.
   3. Specific year-by-year goals and objectives to be reached in the charges' witness as a result of the program.
   4. Specific job descriptions for each position if the proposal includes differentiated staffing.
   5. Salary budgets.
   6. Annual goals shall include provisions for the charges' assuming the total salary obligations within a specifically stated number of years, not to exceed five.

B. At the end of each year there shall be a review of each program by the Commission on Equitable Salaries. Each review shall include data from the following:
   1. The District Superintendent, who shall provide a progress report, a statement indicating the level of funding required for the ensuing years as determined after consultation with te charge, and the salaries budgeted for the charge.
   2. The charge, which shall indicate:
      a. the degree to which the charge goals and objectives as stated in its initial and subsequent proposals have been reached.
      b. any changes of job descriptions as approved by the District Superintendent.
      c. changes in membership of each church since the initial funding.
      d. restatements of previous and/or additional goals and objectives.

HIGHER EDUCATION, JOINT COMMITTEE ON

Recommendations to the North Carolina and the Western North Carolina Annual Conferences of the United Methodist Church

The following proposals are made to the North Carolina and the Western North Carolina Annual Conferences of the United Methodist Church, through their Joint Committee on Higher Education. The Study Committee on Ministry to the Campus recommends:

a. That the North Carolina and the Western North Carolina Annual Conferences of the United Methodist Church proceed immediately to organize a state-wide program of campus ministry according to the following guidelines.

(1) The new organization shall be state-wide in its jurisdiction over United Methodist campus ministries.

(2) The new organization shall replace the present North Carolina Regional Commission on Christian Higher Education and Campus Ministry which shall be deactivated at the time the new agency becomes operative.

(3) The new organization shall be financed jointly by the two United Methodist annual conferences in North Carolina according to a formula based upon the United Methodist Church World Service Apportionments to those annual conferences.

(4) The North Carolina and the Western North Carolina Annual Conferences shall join together in the formation of the new organization which shall be designated the United Methodist Commission on Campus Ministry in North Carolina.

(5) The United Methodist Commission on Campus Ministry in North Carolina shall have an executive director who shall serve as the chief administrative officer of the United Methodist campus ministries in the state which are funded through the Commission. The executive director shall also be an adviser to the bishops and their cabinets, as well as a coordinator of and advocate for United Methodist campus ministries in North Carolina. The office of the Executive Director shall rotate on a quadrennial basis between the North Carolina and the Western North Carolina Annual Conferences. The staff person of the Conference Council on Ministries of the North Carolina Conference who is assigned responsibility for Higher Education may hold this office as a part of his/her assigned duties. The director of the Council on Higher Education of the Western North Carolina Conference may hold this office as a part of his/her assigned duties.

(6) The Executive Director of the United Methodist Commission on Campus Ministry shall supervise the preparation of budgets for the local and state-wide programs for approval by the Commission and for presentation to the appropriate annual conference agencies, shall oversee the distribution of allotted funds to local campus ministries, and shall assure the use of sound procedures for financial accountability at all levels of the local and state ministries under his or her supervision.

b. The United Methodist Commission on Campus Ministry in North Carolina shall be established immediately by the authority of the two annual conferences in the state, and shall be assigned the responsibility both for phasing out the Regional Commission on Christian Higher Education and Campus Ministry and for developing the procedures and actions necessary for the activation of the United Methodist Commission on Campus Ministry in North Carolina. The new organization shall become fully operative on January 1, 1981.

c. The United Methodist Commission on Campus Ministry in North Carolina shall be composed of seventeen members, determined as follows:

(1) Executive Director of the Commission. Ex-officio and non-voting. (1)

(2) Sixteen members, to include the following.

— The two bishops of the North Carolina and the Western North Carolina Annual Conferences. (2)

— Chair of each annual conference board or division of higher education and ministry. (2)

— Directors of each Annual Conference Council on Ministries. (2)

— Ten at-large members, recommended by the board or division of higher education and ministry of each United Methodist annual conference in North Carolina, and presented to the two jurisdictions by their respective nominating committees. (10)

Total (17)

(3) Continuous membership on the United Methodist Commission on Campus Ministry in North Carolina shall be limited to eight consecutive years.

d. The United Methodist Commission on Campus Ministry in North Carolina shall develop a set of by-laws to govern its operation. These by-laws shall be approved by the board or division of higher education and ministry of each United Methodist annual conference in the state.

e. The United Methodist Commission on Campus Ministry in North Carolina shall require each local campus ministry board of directors to develop a set of by-laws to govern its operation. This document shall be consistent with a written model for local campus ministry by-laws prepared and made available by the Commission.

f. Each director of a local United Methodist campus ministry in North Carolina shall be accountable to the superintendent of the United Methodist district in which the ministry is located. That accountability shall include one annual meeting of the local board analogous to a charge conference and held under the presidency of the district superintendent. Accountability procedures for ecumenical campus ministries shall be specified in the by-laws developed by the United Methodist Commission on Campus Ministry in North Carolina.

g. The following policies shall govern the assignment of local campus ministers in North Carolina:

(1) Appointments shall normally be made from within the state-wide ministry of the United Methodist Church in North Carolina; however, sufficient flexibility will be allowed to facilitate the bringing in of new and special talent for the ministries to the campuses.

(2) Local United Methodist churches situated near public and independent colleges and universities in which no United Methodist campus ministry program is being conducted shall be encouraged to develop such programs and to coordinate them with the work of the United Methodist Commission on Campus Ministry in North Carolina.

h. The members of the Joint Advisory Committee from the North Carolina Conference are authorized to negotiate with their counterparts from the Western North Carolina Conference the reconciliation of any discrepancies which may result from amendments or changes approved by the separate Annual Conferences as they consider the adoption of this report.

C. Pension Funding Crusade

The Board of Pensions expresses great appreciation to the people of the North Carolina Conference, laity and clergy, for the response to the Pension Funding Crusade. From the initial response of the ministers gathered to launch this effort on January 22, through the district rallies and cluster workshops, to the local church acceptances and funding campaigns, the spirit of concern for and interest in our retired ministers and their families, along with the widows and children of our deceased pastors, has been heart-warming. The final results of this campaign will really not be known for several more years, but our first indicators are that it will be a great success.

D. General Notations

1. Haywood Linwood Harrell, granted the retired relationship at the 1977 Session, should be listed under the provisions of Par. 434.5 (retirement with an actuarily reduced pension).
2. The Board of Pensions has a great appreciation for the spouses of our ministers who stand shoulder to shoulder with their mates in the practice and responsibilities of ministry in the local church. Although the current Federal income tax and Social Security provisions take no account of this shared responsbility in their allowances for the surviving spouse, it is the conviction of the Board of Pensions that they should have this consideration. The General Board of Pensions of The United Methodist Church, in concert with similar bodies of other demoninations, continues to work for helpful legislation on behalf of our retired ministers and their survivors. Individual members and local churches are encouraged to make their federal legislators aware of the needs of these devoted servants of the Church with the hope that corrective measures can be taken to assist in housing exclusion provisions.

REPORT II

INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE DOCUMENT NO. 5045 (10-67)
DECLARES:

"Rental Value of Home furnished a Clergyman, and cost of utilities paid for him, as part of his compensation for carrying out his duties as clergyman, are not income to him, if he is duly ordained, licensed, or commissioned."

A Rental Allowance to Clergyman, paid as part of his compensation, is not income to the extend he used it, in the year received, to provide a home, or pay utilities for a home furnished him. However, the church, or organization which employs him must have officially designated the payment as a rental allowance before the payment was made."

"The above rules are also applicable to retired clergymen where a rent-free home or rental allowance is furnished him in recognition of past services in carrying out his duties as a clergyman."

A REVISED RULING, 63, 156, 163-2CB 79 STATES:

"... the rental value of home furnished to a retired minister as part of his compensation for services is excludable from his gross income under Section 107 (1) of the Code. Also, the rental allowance paid to him as part of his compensation for past services is excludable under Section 107 (2) of the Code, to the extend used by him for expenses directly related to providing a home." (See Code Sec. 107, 1.107. 1 -113.01)

Therefore the following resolution is presented to the North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church, meeting in Fayetteville, North Carolina:

Whereas, The United Methodist Church has a tradition of providing housing (a parsonage) for its ministers, or in instances where no parsonage is owned by the charge giving the minister a housing allowance:

Whereas, Retired Ministers of the North Carolina Conference are entitled to the same privileges as those in the Effective Relationship: and

Whereas, the most practical method of providing housing for the Retired Ministers if by means of rental allowance;

Therefore, Be It Resolved, that the amount of $3,500.00 per year be set as a fair and reasonable rental allowance for each Retired Minister of this annual conference; that the first $3,500.00 paid to a Retired Minister each year by The Board of Pensions of The North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church and $2,400.00 of this is designated as the payment of this Housing Allowance and $1,000.00 for Utility Allowance. The Housing Allowance is specifically designated as compensation to the minister for the cost of renting or providing housing for himself and his family and those costs related thereto, pursuant to the Code as stated in Document 5045 (10-67).

The Board of Pensions emphasizes that the Retired Minister who uses this Housing Allowance must be able to furnish proof that he made expenditures in the amounts claimed. It the full $3,500.00 cannot be substantiated as expenditures, then claim should be made only for those amounts which can be verified.

We also remind the minister who uses this allowance, that the amount he claims as a Housing Allowance exclusion must be included as Income in reporting his Social Security. It is possible that reduced Social Security benefits would offset any claims for the Housing Allowance exclusion. Please consult your Social Security Advisor about this matter.

Further, the Board of Pensions absolves itself of any responsibility in the event the Internal Revenue Service disallows any housing allowance claimed.

REPORT III
MINISTERS' RETIREMENT FUND CONSTITUTION

To provide a more consistent and equitable basis for administering the Ministers' Retirement Fund, and to confirm to the language of the 1976 Discipline, we recommend the following changes: (Page 326 of the 1975 Journal, and Page 383 of the 1976 Journal.)

Eligibility for Membership:

The first sentence of the first paragraph now reads as follows: "Each minister in the probationary relationship, in full connection, or associate membership, and lay supply minister who is serving full time in a charge or other work by episcopal appointment, and such work contributing to the minister's pension credit shall be eligible to join."

We recommend that this sentence be amended and a second sentence added as follows: Each minister in the probationary relationship, in full connection, in associate membership, or as a local pastor serving full time in a charge or other work by episcopal appointment, and such work is contributing to the minister's pension credit, shall be eligible to join. In order to remain an active, participating member, the minister must continue as a probationary member, a member in full connection, an associate member, or a local pastor to serve full time in a charge or other work under episcopal appointment, such work contributing to the minister's pension credit.

Assessments:

The third paragraph now reads as follows: "All other ministers who participate in this fund shall pay a sum equivalent to 2% of their annual gross income and if such minister has no such annual income shall pay 2% of average salary. These persons shall make an annual payment into the fund, an amount equal to 2% of the average salary of the Conference, as determined by the report of the General Board of Pensions, for the year or years affected. However, in the case of ministers appointed to the forenamed categories whose salaries or income is below the average salary of the annual conference, these persons shall pay 2% of the new salary level of the charge they are leaving. The amounts for these salary levels are to be supplied to the Board of Pensions by their respective district superintendents. In the event the district superintendent does not furnish the salary information, these persons shall make their annual payment on the basis of the conference average salary, as determined above. The Council on Finance and Administration shall make provision for payment equal to 1% of salary usually paid by the charge for district superintendents and ministers employed by the Council on Ministries. District superintendents and Council on Ministries ministerial employees shall pay 1% of salary, travel, and utility allowances. Those persons affiliated with the Council on Ministries staff shall include their total income received, and pay 1% of this amount, the first $1,500.00 designated as automobile travel expenses. Funds appropriated for travel above this amount shall be exempt. Also, any income from the Council on Ministries directed towards utilities shall be included as income, and payment made on these funds."

We recommend this paragraph be revised to read as follows: All other ministers who participate in this fund shall pay a sum equivalent to 2% of their annual gross income and if such minister has no such annual income shall pay 2% of average salary. These persons shall make an annual payment into the fund, an amount equal to 2% of the average salary of the Conference, as determined by the report of the General Board of Pensions, for the year or years affected. However, in the case of ministers appointed to the forenamed categories whose salaries or income is below the average salary of the Annual Conference, these persons shall pay 2% of the new salary level of the charge they are leaving. The amounts for these salary levels are to be supplied to the Board of Pensions by their respective district superintendents. In the event the district superintendent does not furnish the salary information, these persons shall make their annual payment on the basis of the Conference average salary, as determined above. The Council on Finance and Administration shall make provision for payment equal to 1% of salary usually paid by the charge for district superintendents and Council on Ministries ministerial employees shall pay 1% of such income designated as salary and utilities.

Deadline for Receipt of Payments:

The second paragraph now reads as follows: "The fiscal year of the Ministers' Retirement Fund shall be the same as that of the Annual Conference fiscal year, January 1 through December 31. Each member of the fund shall submit the required payment no later than January 31 of each year. The Conference Treasurer shall notify all members that this payment is due. This notice shall not be made later than December 1 of each year. Payments AFTER January 31, will be credited to the minister making the payment. However, this delayed payment extends the benefit payment for one year if he has been a member less than ten (10) years. If the minister has been a member over ten (10) years, he will collect no dividends for the year or years of the delayed payments.

Base Benefits shall be paid to superannuated members of the Retirement Fund as follows:

If superannuated at the end of one year of membership	$ 200.00
If superannuated at the end of two years of membership	300.00
If superannuated at the end of three years of membership	400.00

If superannuated at the end of fourteen years of membership	1,500.00
If superannuated at the end of fifteen years of membership	1,600.00

After ten years of membership, a member is eligible to receive dividends credited to his or her account and payable in addition to the Base Benefit upon retirement."

We recommend this paragraph be revised to read as follows: The fiscal year of the Ministers' Retirement Fund shall be the same as that of the Annual Conference fiscal year, January 1 through December 31. Each member of the fund shall submit the required payment no later than January 31 of each year. The Conference Treasurer shall notify all members that this payment is due. This notice shall not be made later than December 1 of each year. Payments AFTER January 31, will be credited to the minister making the payment. However, this delayed payment extends the benefit payment for one year, if he/she has been a member less than ten (10) years. If the minister has been a member over ten (10) years, he/she will collect no dividends for the year or years of the delayed payments.

Base Benefits shall be paid to retired members of the Retirement Fund as follows:

If retired at the end of one year of membership	$ 200.00
If retired at the end of two years of membership	300.00
If retired at the end of three years of membership	400.00

If retired at the end of eight years of membership	900.00
If retired at the end of nine years of membership	1,000.00
If retired at the end of ten years of membership	1,100.00
If retired at the end of eleven years of membership	1,200.00
If retired at the end of twelve years of membership	1,300.00
If retired at the end of thirteen years of membership	1,400.00
If retired at the end of fourteen years of membership	1,500.00
If retired at the end of fifteen years of membership	1,600.00

After ten years of membership, a member is eligible to receive dividends credited to his/her account and payable in addition to the Base Benefit upon retirement.

The paragraphs with the word superannuated should be amended to read retired, and superannuation to read, retirement.

METHODIST BOARD OF PUBLICATION, INC.

We recommend that

1. A North Carolina Christian Advocate subscription campaign be held annually in each local church. The dates of the campaign in the Western North Carolina Annual Conference to be from Oct. 15 through Nov. 15, 1979, to avoid conflicting with a Pension Funding Crusade scheduled for early 1980. The dates of the campaign in the North Carolina Annual Conference to be from January 15 through March 15, 1980. The purpose of the Advocate campaign will be to give each local church an opportunity to concentrate on Advocate subscriptions both new and renewal. Sunday, Nov. 4, 1979, is suggested as Advocate Sunday for the Western North Carolina Conference. Sunday, Jan. 27, 1980, is suggested as Advocate Sunday for the North Carolina Conference.

2. Each local church accept as its minimum goal of Advocate subscriptions 10% of its membership. For example, a church with 500 members would be expected to have a minimum of 50 subscribers to the Advocate.

3. There ba an All-Administrative Board subscription plan available to the local churches at $4.25 each per year.

4. There be a category called Gold Star churches with the number of subscriptions for this category being one subscription for every 3.5 members based on each church's total full membership as of Dec. 31, 1978, reported in the 1978 Journals of the respective conferences, at $3.25 each per year.

5. All subscriptions in churches with either the All-Administrative Board Plan or the Gold Star Plan be at the reduced rate of the Plan operative in their church.

6. Each local church be prepared to report to the 1979 fall Charge Conference progress made to date in reaching the minimum 10%-of-its-membership subscription goal.

7. Each district superintendent be asked to designate a District Director for the North Carolina Christian Advocate to promote circulation.

8. Each local church nominate to the 1979 fall Charge Conference the name of a person to be its Advocate Campaign chairperson and that this person be a member of the Administrative Board of that church.

9. The Advocate be continued as a weekly publication during 1980, and that the price of individual subscriptions be $4.75 a year.

Respectfully submitted,
Donald Ellis, President
A. F. Fisher, Secretary

Group C—Resolutions

THE REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS AND REFERENCE

On behalf of the North Carolina Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church, meeting in the 154th continuous session of our Methodist fellowship, your committee on Resolutions and Reference expresses sincere appreciation to all who have contributed to its success and advancement.

We must begin by expressing our appreciation for Methodist College and for the warm and enthusiastic welcome rendered to us when we represent a massive work responsibility for each officer and employee. Our thanks to Dr. Richard Pearce, to vice president Bill Lowdermilk, and to each person assisting in our program of support and entertainment.

From the opening moments we were made to feel at home by these persons, as by Mayor Beth Finch, by our own Bishop Robert M. Blackburn who challenged us with the State of the Church address while inspiring us with the service of Holy Communion.

Our gratitude extends to the Reverend R. T. Commander, Greenville Host district Superintendent, and to all of his associates who were instrumental in the planning for this district, and to the Fellowship of Musicians for the excellence of their musical offerings which have become normative at our conference sessions.

We are appreciative for the good and fair coverage given our conference sessions by the media representatives from the North Carolina Christian Advocate; Television Stations No.11 and No.28 of Durham and Raleigh/Durham; reporters from the Fayetteville Times and the Fayetteville Reporter, from the Raleigh Times and News and Observer, from the Ahoskie News Herald, and others. Special thanks is due to Mrs. Barbara Wilkinson, her associates with the Saddle Bag and the members of the Committee on Communications.

We have been inspired by the helpful messages of Dr. William A. Holmes, pastor of Metropolitan United Methodist Church of Washington, D.C., the scholarly challenge issued by Dr. Robert Cushman of the Duke Divinity School to our Class of Elders, and the fascinating look into the future provided for us by futurist Dr. Harold Plummer.

An emotional highlight of the conference was the Memorial Service with inspiring music shared by Reverend Charles M. Smith, and a provocative message by the Reverend Paul Edwards.

While our business was rushed and crowded by the interest always engendered by elections for General and Jurisdictional Conference delegations, we feel that our presiding officer, Bishop Blackburn worked diligently to give all a fair opportunity to be heard on any issue before the conference. None deserve more thanks than the tellers who have missed much of the conference agenda, and more of the fellowship to serve us efficiently in the election process.

A word of thanks is essential to our ever-present Secretary James Coile and those numerous members of his staff on stage and behind the scenes, who work long, tireless hours that the work of the conference may not only be recorded, but may move smoothly as we have grown accustomed to at each session.

We are grateful that we have had as representatives among us those willing and eager to speak on behalf of the black experience, the Native American conscience, the concerns of youth, young adults, of women, and if any believed that insufficient concern was evidenced on occasion, patience and time has been offered for remedy. More and more each year we see evidences that we are becoming increasingly sensitive to the concerns of all so that we become more nearly one body in Christ.

We have been enriched at this session by the presence of Mrs. Robert M. Blackburn, a Jewell brought to our conference in September of 1978. May God richly bless Bishop and Mrs. Robert M. Blackburn with years of joyful union.

We give thanks to God for each minister and layperson who has attended this Conference. Each has blessed the other and enriched our total fellowship in His service. The spouses blessed us with their charming presence at our Wednesday sessions, and we welcomed our many visitors who brought us greetings, information, or assistance in our work of the Church.

To each of these and to many others whom we should have mentioned by name, we offer thanks to Almighty God for your labor and love in His work. In the spirit of our Latin American neighbors in Christ, we now approach the closing moments with the lovely salutation, "Via con Dios", 'go with God.'!

Sincerely,

Thomas A. Collins

E. M. Thompson, Secretary

Absences from Meetings

That after two consecutive absences from meetings of any Conference program agency, such as Division, Commission, Committee, Task Force, without notification of the Chairperson or other designated member, a person shall automatically be replaced through the regular nominating process of the Conference.

Resolution of Appreciation for Franklin C. Grill

The North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church, meeting in its 1979 session, paused in its deliberations to recognize C. Franklin Grill, who has served as Coordinator of Resources, Conference Council on Ministries, for the past six years. As required by the rules of the Annual Conference, he will leave this position at the end of the current session of the Annual Conference.

Throughout this six-year period, Mr. Grill, as Coordinator of Resources, has had responsibilities in several areas. He has been responsible for processing loans for the North Carolina Conference Board of Mission, Inc., and for making building grants for the Division of Missions. He has handled these responsibilities with the shrewdness of a banker and the compassion of a pastor.

In the area of stewardship he has developed new programs for training and has led numerous stewardship programs in churches across the conference. Wherever he has led such training programs, there have been significant gains both in the financial stability of the churches and in their understanding of the meaning of Christian stewardship.

One other area in which Mr. Grill has excelled is that of archives and history. Because of his love of history, he has made an invaluable contribution to the historical research of churches and events in the North Carolina Conference.

Let it then be a part of the recorded history of the North Annual Conference that Mr. Grill is being lauded for his faithful administration of the responsibilities entrusted to him.

Respectfully Submitted,

Paul G. Bunn, President

Milton T. Mann, Secretary
Division of Missions

Lay Delegate Study Committee

That the Bishop appoint a Committee of Laymen to study procedures for electing lay delegates to the Jurisdictional and General Conferences. The Committee shall report its findings and recommendations not later than the 1982 Annual Conference.

(Editor's Note: The above resolution was made by a lay member of the Annual Conference and was passed by the lay members of the Annual Conference.)

Ministerial Delegates to General and Jurisdictional Conferences

That Bishop R. M. Blackburn appoint a committee to study an easier method to elect General and Jurisdictional Conference delegates and that committee report to the 1982 Annual Conference.

(Editor's Note: The above resolution was made by a ministerial member of the Annual Conference and was passed by the ministerial members of the Annual Conference.)

Resolution On Course Requirements

We move that the Division of Ordained Ministry require all candidates for Full Connection and Elder's Orders to demonstrate satisfactory completion of the following seminary level courses:

1. A course in preaching that includes a practicum, laboratory or field experience in preparing, delivery and evaluating sermons.
2. A course in public worship that includes the theory and practice of planning and leading worship services.
3. That the course requirements contained in paragraph 421.3c of the Discipline be fulfilled by completing these three separate and distinct courses:
   a. Methodist Policy
   b. Methodist Theology and Doctrine
   c. A History of Methodism

These requirements will become effective for candidates applying for Full Connection in the Spring of 1981.

Lay Person of the Year, Margaret T. Boyd

Preceeding annual conference the Division of Lay Life and Work request that nominations for outstanding laymen be sent in to the committee along with a synopsis of their qualifications. The committee then meets to decide whether or not one layman has made such a contribution to his church, community or conference work that he should be recognized at Annual Conference as the outstanding layman of the year. We do this for several reasons but primarily for two. First, it is right and good to pay recognition to the layman who devotes his life to God's work and let him know that the church is aware. And second, we hold him up to the rest of the laity as an example to model our lives after.

This year over thirty laymen's names were submitted for consideration. All had contributed tirelessly and with great devotion and talent to the music, teaching, leadership and physical labor. After the joyous task of reviewing these great reports, one layman's contribution was such as to receive our unanimous vote as outstanding layman of the year.

In her local church, in the past, she has served as vice president, secretary and president of the Woman's Society of Christian Service,

Sunday School teacher, board member of most of the church's commissions, pianist for the primary department, counselor for senior high youths, Life member of United Methodist Women and much more.

On the District level, she has served as president of United Methodist Women, secretary of promotion, UMYF Council, Coordinator of Youth Ministries, counselor Senior High UMYF, Chairman Division of Higher Education, Council of Ministries, certified lay speaker and much much more.

At the conference level she has served as secretary of Youth work, Dean and Assistant Dean UMYF workshops, staff member ACS, Delegate to Convocation of Youth at Purdue University, Secretary of Youth Work, Dean of Women Morals Concern, Adult staff worker SEJ Youth conference at Lake Junaluska and Arlington, Virginia and much more. She has served over sixty positions and continues to serve with freshness and enthusiasm. She is a wife, mother, grandmother and a very active business woman. She is a joy to her family, her friends, her church and I take great joy in presenting to you the outstanding layman of the year, Mrs. Margaret T. Boyd of the First United Methodist Church, Mount Olive.

Status and Role of Women

That the Commission on the Status and Role of Women be made up of District Representatives and up to four at-large members to insure membership balance.

Methodist Home for Children

That we authorize the Trustees of the Methodist Home for Children to employ a realtor to sell, lease, or develop or otherwise utilize the property of the Methodist Home for Children. However, no agreement shall be finalized without the advice and consent of the Division of Health and Welfare Ministries, the Bishop and the Cabinet, and the Trustees of the Methodist Home for Children meeting in joint session.

Moving Day — Appointment Responsibility

That pastors changing appointments will assume responsibilities on the new charge on "moving day", and that his/her first worship service will be the Sunday following "moving day", beginning in 1980.

Petitions to General Conference

Small Membership Church

With two thirds of our churches having less than 200 members and approximately half the congregations having an average attendance of less than 100, it is essential that this fact be recognized not only in the planning and programatic decisions but also in the statements setting forth our theological and philosophical bases; therefore,

We petition that a new paragraph be added to Chapter One, "The Ministry of All Christians" to read as follows:

Section VII. Organization and Administration of The General Ministries

Paragraph 111. The organization and administration for Christian Ministry, including policies, organizational structures, personnel and programatic decisions and actions shall seek to represent and respond to interests and needs of all United Methodists as expressed by local churches. The church of small membership shall be normative.

Staff Persons

I petition New Paragraph 613 and/or Paragraph 813.6:

"The names and stated purposes of all staff, board members and employees of any General Council, Board or Agency who shall attend and/or participate in the work of the General Conference shall be submitted by each General Secretary to the Secretary of the Committee on General Conference Arrangements prior to the opening session of the General Conference, unless, of course, such person or persons be duly elected members of the General Conference. The names and stated purposes for attendance of all staff, board members, and employees of any General Council, Board or Agency shall be published in the minutes of the General Conference and reported in the Daily Advocate. Only those persons with specific assignments that assist the work of the General Conference shall be funded."

Abortion

To the members of the 1980 General Conference, The United Methodist Church in Paragraph 71 (E), following the sixth sentence ending with the words "warrant abortion", insert the following:

"Abortion on demand for reasons of personal convenience, social adjustment, or economic advantage we believe to be morally wrong. There should be opposition to any legislation designed to make abortion possible for the reasons previously stated."

The rest of Paragraph 71 (E) would be retained as it is.

Discipline Changes

Proposed changes in the Book of Discipline may be submitted for action by the General Conference by a board, council, commission, or agency of the Annual, Jurisdictional or General Conference, only after they have first been approved by the vote of at least one annual conference. This in no way limits the right of an individual or local church to present a petition directly to General Conference.

Paul Carruth

Doctrine and Doctrinal Statements

The North Carolina Annual Conference in session June 4-7, 1979 at Fayetteville, North Carolina, petitions the 1980 General Conference that the following statement be added to the "Conclusion" of "Part II, Doctrine and Doctrinal Statements and the General Rules," Paragraphs 67-69 of The Book of Discipline, 1976, page 85.

It is recommended that these Doctrine and Doctrinal Statements and the General Rules be constantly available to United Methodist Christians, and that our congregations be regularly instructed in the significance of these statements for faith and practice.

Rationale:

1. We accept the concept of pluralism and doctrinal diversity.
2. United Methodist, lay and clerical, have been tentative about what we believe.
3. Questions about our faith and beliefs are raised; faith is shaken by radical theologies and honest inquiry.
4. There are emphasis that are peculiar to United Methodists.
5. A renewed emphasis on the doctrine and doctrinal statements of our church can enhance the church and strengthen its mission and ministry to itself and in the world.

Health and Welfare

The North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church petitions the General Conference of 1980 to retain within the structure of the General Council on Ministries a Division of Health and Welfare Ministries, both on the General Church and Annual Conference levels.

Judicial Council Declaratory Decision Request

Be it resolved, the following questions shall be presented to the Judicial Council for declaratory decision in conformity with P2515 of the Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church:

(1) Can the North Carolina Conference official presiding at a local church charge conference rule arbitrarily that the Chairman of the Board of Trustees of the local church duly elected in accordance with P2424 and serving in accordance with P248 is not a member of the charge conference solely because he does not contribute to the church budget?

(2) Does the Book of the Discipline P248 take precedence over Robert's Rules of Order entitling the Chairman of the Board of Trustees elected in accordance with P2424 to serve until charges are brought against him for cause for removal from office?

(3) Will refusal to contribute to the budget of the local church alone constitute grounds for disqualification or removal from office of a member in good standing who supports the church with his prayers, presence, gifts, and service in accordance with Paragraphs 215 and 219 of the Book of Discipline?

(4) Can the District Superintendent who presides at a regular charge conference rejecting the single figure asking without exception or objection following debate and vote call a special session of the charge conference for the purpose of reversing the action rejecting the single figure asking at the regular charge conference in accordance with P518, P519, and P522 of the Book of Discipline?

(5) Can the District Superintendent who presides at a regular charge conference approving the pastor's salary for the coming year without exception or objection after debate and vote call a special charge conference to change the pastor's salary set at the regular charge conference in accordance with P518, P519, and P522 of the Book of Discipline?

MARRYING DIVORCED PERSONS

To the Members of the 1980 General Conference, The United Methodist Church:

SUBJECT: DUTIES OF A PASTOR: DIVORCE

Add 453. c) (5) renumbering 453. c) (5), (6), and (7) as (6), (7), and (8).

"In view of the seriousness with which the Scriptures and the Church regard divorce, pastors may solemnize the marriage of a divorced person only when they are satisfied by careful counseling that (1) the divorced person is sufficiently aware of the factors leading to the failure of the previous marriage, (2) the divorced person is sincerely preparing to make the proposed marriage truly Christian, and (3) sufficient time has elasped between the divorce and the contemplated marriage for adequate preparation and counseling."

THIS RE-INSERTS INTO THE 1980 Discipline the provision found in the 1972 Discipline, paragraph 350. 5, b).

MORAL STANDARDS FOR MINISTERS

To the Committee on Memorials of the North Carolina Annual Conference, 1979.

SUBJECT: MORAL QUALIFICATIONS OF UNITED METHODIST CHURCH MINISTERS.

We petition that Paragraph 419 of the 1976 Discipline be amended by adding, after the words "faithful in the discharge of their duties" the following statement:

"Moral standards for United Methodist Church ministers (Probationers, Local Pastors, Associate Members, Members in Full Connection) shall be least include:

1. The practice of Christ-like concern for and ministry with all sorts and conditions of persons, including homosexuals.
2. The affirmation and practice of sexual relationships only within the covenant of heterosexual marriage.
3. Any person practicing a homosexual lifestyle shall be ineligible for ordination and/or appointment by a Bishop in the United Methodist Church.

MORAL STANDARDS OF MINISTERS

To insert para 419.2, "Exemplary Moral Character of Members in Full Connection".

The responsibilities of members in full connection require exemplary moral character on the part of each person admitted into or continued in this relationship. Moral standards for members in full connection shall at least include:

1. The practice of Christlike concern for and ministry with all sorts of persons.
2. The practice of truth-telling, responsibility, and integrity in social, professional, financial, and political relationships.
3. The affirmation and practice of sexual relationships (intercourse) only within the covenant of heterosexual marriage.

NOMINATIONS

PARAGRAPH 260.1

That the 1980 General Conference endeavor to improve the provisions in The Discipline for election of the local church Committee on Nominations and Personnel with the intent of eliminating the following problems:

1. Adequate thought and prayer is often lacking in the nomination of persons when limited to nominations from the floor of the Charge Conference.
2. Youth members who are elected for a 3-year term, unless they are 9th graders at the time of their election, pass the age of youth and become young adults before their term of office expires — thus giving unproportionate representation to young adults on the committee.

3. A member of the committee who is not actively involved in the work of the committee greatly hinders a small committee over a 3-year period.

These problems could be resolved by changes as follows:

1. Nominations for this committee could be made by the Committee on Nominations and Personnel with the provision that they not be eligible to succeed themselves. Additional nominations could then be made from the floor if so desired.
2. A youth or young adult elected to the committee would serve only so long as he/she remains in the age category for which they were elected. This would allow election of older youth, better qualified to serve, and not overload the committee with young adult members at a later point. A youth who became a young adult while on the committee could be re-elected as a young adult — a young adult who passed the young adult designation while on the committee could be re-elected as an adult; but unless so elected would cease to serve on the committee — and thus need to be replaced at the Charge Conference.
3. A provision whereby the position of any member of the committee who does not participate on the committee for a period of one year shall be declared open, and the Committee on Nominations and Personnel shall submit a nomination to the next Charge Conference for election of someone to this position.

SEXIST LANGUAGE

Be it resolved that in the General Conference of 1980 and in subsequent years it shall not be considered sexist language to use theological terms with gender as they occur in Scripture. (For example: Reference to God as Father, to Jesus as Son, or to the Church as the Bride of Christ).
